The Benefit of Change. We are like house plants: We need a change of soil now and then—to be replanted. New scenes, new experiences, new surroundings give a change of climate, for air instead of water, sunshine in place of shade. This is a real benefit to the human body. There are no artificial means of making a change of climate. You can make this trip at very little expense, and enjoy a ride over the scenic Pacific and Klaskan mountains, which at this time of the year with some of the most beautiful scenery in the world. W. E. COMAN, 124 Third St., Portland, Or.

Five Good Reasons. That the Rio Grande route is the most popular one between the Pacific coast and the east is evidenced by the fact that the greater per cent of transcontinental travelers use it. First, the scenic attractions in view are unequaled in the world. Second, the rail route is the most comfortable and enjoyable for ladies traveling alone or with children. Third, it is the only route between the East and West passing directly through Salt Lake City, or modern Zion. Fourth, the choice of two distinct routes through the heart of the Rocky Mountains. Fifth, three fast through trains daily between Ogden and Denver equipped with every modern convenience. There are many other reasons why this route is the most comfortable and enjoyable in the whole country. You can leave a great deal on the subject of through travel, and receive some very beautiful and interesting booklets, by calling on or writing to the undersigned, W. C. McBride, Gen'l Agent, or M. J. Roche, Traveling Passenger Agent, 124 Third Street, Portland, Ore.

His Last Hope Realized. [From the Western, Ocala, Mont.] In the first month of Oklahoma to settlers in 1890, the editor of this paper was among the many seekers after fortune who made the big race one fine day in April. During his traveling about and afterwards his camping upon his claim, he encountered much bad water, which, together with the severe heat, gave him a very severe diarrhoea which it seemed almost impossible to check, and along in June the case became so bad he expected to die. One day one of his neighbors brought him one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a last hope. A big dose was given him while he was rolling about on the ground in great agony, and in a few minutes the dose was repeated. The good effect of the medicine was soon noticed and within an hour the patient was taking his first solid sleep for a fortnight. That one little bottle worked a complete cure, and he cannot help but feel grateful. The reason for bowel disorders being so hand suggest this item. For sale by all dealers.

Notice to Dog Owners. You are hereby notified that the license on dogs is now due and you are requested to call on the Recorder and settle the sum. J. A. BILBY, City Marshal.
