A Successful Operation

is always dangerous—do not submit to the surgeon's knife until you have tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It will cure when every thing else fails—it has done this in thousands of cases. Here is one of them: I suffered from blood and protruding piles for twenty years. Was treated by different specialists and used many remedies, but obtained no relief until I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Two boxes of this salve cured my eighteen months' ailment. I have not had a touch of the piles since.—H. A. Tidale, Summerton, S. C. For Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Protruding Piles, no remedy equals DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by E. C. Peery.

THE NEW TOMATO TREE.

Singular Specimen That Has Been
Propagated from the Vase
Bears Fruit.

If one would be considered quite sane one should not discuss the true tomato tree yet. Otherwise one is likely to be regarded as a fruit grower, and informed that tomatoes grow on vines instead of trees, says the Philadelphia Record.

All this to the contrary notwithstanding, there really is a tree tomato. Such a tree is grown by Mrs. Shepherd, at Ventura, Cal. She has grown it several years, and feels that it has a great future as a fruit for shipping. It comes into bearing along during the holidays, when fruits are scarce, and ships long distances perfectly. Some say it is practically hardy in California. This tree, however, grows under glass.

As to the fruit, there seems to be no understanding. Some call this rich, tomato-tinted production fruit; others tomato, which is equivalent to a vegetable. As to flavors, it is said to be a cross between the tomato and the plum, and is equally delicious as a salad or a dessert. Experts think the day is not far off when it will be extensively grown. One good specimen, and about the easiest to get at here in the east, is the one in the Bronx botanical garden, in New York. For some time past this tree has hung full of these rosy, plum-shaped fruits, or vegetables, which hang singly or in clusters of two or three or four.

PEACE FORT MONUMENT.

Mark the spot on Rock Island
Where Treaty Was Made with Sax and Fox Indians.

At the lower end of Rock Island, in the Mississippi, was built, in 1816, a fort which was named after Gen. Armstrong, then secretary of war. The encroachments of the Indians, and the need for a rallying place for the white settlers on the banks of the Mississippi, made the fort a necessity. It was built of hewn logs, and was strong enough to resist any attempt of the Indians to capture it. Happily, there never arose an occasion to use the fort for warlike purposes, and it became but a trading post, says George H. Daniels' Four-Track News.

There was signed here, in 1831, the treaty by which the Sax and Fox Indians agreed to remove to the Iowa side of the river, and leave the village on the banks of Rock river, which they had occupied so long. The fort was 400 feet square, and having access to water, and carrying a large supply of food, was equipped for a long siege.

There now remains nothing of it. Two cannon pointing down the river have been the only things to mark the spot where it stood till two years ago, when the daughter of the American Revolution erected a monument there.

ABOUT THE RED-HEADED GIRL.

The Possession of Which
Her Darker Sisters Cannot Claim Possession.

A champion of the red-headed girl has come to the front. Not that the girl in question is greatly in need of a champion. In nine cases out of ten she is abundantly able to care for herself without assistance from any source, says the Chicago Chronicle. But this advice of "the girl with the auburn hair" defies the world to dispute the truth of these five propositions:

1. Detect the odor of a previous high ball further, quicker and with more unerring instinct than any other being on earth.
2. Nail a lie and bore deeper holes with her penetrating eye in so doing than any other thing that has eyes.
3. Make any be as of a bar look like 30 cents quicker and with less effort than any other living thing.
4. Break a man's morning nap and hustle him to build the fire in the range quicker, surer and with less back talk than any other style of womankind.
5. She is the only known species who can throw a missile with accurate aim and who does not endanger the lives of innocent bystanders.

WHAT THE POPE SPENDS.

Head of the Catholic Church is a Moderate Administrator of Large Funds.

As pope, Leo's expenditures are vast—without counting what he spends on Catholic missions, on the inferior clergy, on churches and on education, and upon the support of the 5,000 people who populate the vatican, he maintains within the palace walls, the first factory of mosaics in the world, while for works of art, he probably spends more than any other government and through it is true the vatican receives subscriptions of money from all parts of the world, of which it does not distribute the half, and which its treasures are continually increasing, still it must be remembered that after ten centuries, Leo XIII. is the first pope who has ascended the throne without temporal power. The budget of the vatican at Christmas is $1,000,000 francs, which are the offerings of the faithful, but it may be imagined that an exceptional administration is needed to obtain this sum yearly, and the pope is a model administrator.

REV. DR. DOANE.

Rev. N. Doan, D. D., Dean of the Theological School of the Portland University, Celebrated his golden Wedding
Last September.

This worthy man has been at the head of the Methodist church in the Northwest over 40 years. He had a double reason to be congratulated on this occasion as he was totally deaf for years, and in spite of his advanced age, his hearing was restored by Dr. Doan, now located at the Revere Hotel, Albany. No one will attempt to question the reverend gentleman's word, as his noblest record is well known. He tells his story below in his own words.

University Park, Portland, Oregon, April 26, 1899. To whom it may concern and encourage, to friends who have suffered like myself, the loss of hearing. On April 24th, I called on Dr. Darrin, whom I believed to be a skilled aurist and physician, to restore my hearing. He applied his remedies and electricity to one ear and cured the deafness in a few minutes. Then he turned his attention to the other ear, which did not yield so readily. For this ear the doctor gave me medicine to use at home, which I am now using. I think it the duty of all who are afflicted to have their hearing restored if possible, and I know of no one whom I think more skilled than Dr. Darrin.

NEHEMIAH DOANE.
What Further Testimony Did Dr.
Doane

TO THE EDITOR: Some time ago I said something of regaining my hearing under the treatment of Dr. Darrin, of which I had suffered for several years. On the first application the deafness of one ear was remedied. I applied the medicine faithfully and went again to the doctor who succeeded entirely in restoring the lost sense of hearing, so that when I went out on the street it seemed to be the noisiest city I was ever in. My hearing still remains distinct, in both ears equally good.

NEHEMIAH DOANE.
Mr. Darrin's Experience With Dr.
Darrin

TO THE EDITOR: For two years prior to going under Dr. Darrin's electrical treatment I was afflicted with heart trouble, sour stomach, dyspepsia, bloating and pains. Dr. Darrin has cured me. Refer anyone to me at my home in Medford, Ore., or by letter. I most earnestly commend Dr. Darrin as a skilled physician.

A Wonderful Invention.

It is interesting to note that for tunes are frequently made by the invention of articles of minor importance. Many of the most popular devices are those designed to benefit the people and most popular conditions, and one of the most interesting of these that has ever been invented is the Dr. White Electric Comb, patented Jan. 1, 1900. These wonderful combs positively cure dandruff, hair falling out, sick and nervous headaches, and when used in connection with Dr. White's electric Hair Brush are positively guaranteed to make straight hair curly in 25 days' time. Thousands of these electric combs have been sold in the various cities of the United States, and the demand is constant in increasing. Our agents are rapidly becoming rich selling these combs. They positively sell on sight. Send for sample. Men's size, $1.00; ladies' size, $0.50. While we are introducing them. See Want Column of this paper. Very Remarkable Cure of Diarrhoea

"About six years ago for the first time in my life I had a sudden and severe attack of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with a testimonial of a man who had been cured by it. The case was so similar to my own that I concluded to try the remedy. The result was wonderful. I could hardly realize that I was well again, or believe it could be so after having suffered so long, but that one bottle of medicine, costing but a few cents, cured me." For
