It was this week decided that as the races on the 4th of July prove grandiose could not be carried out. I have a picnic on Friday, July 24th. With the money left from the celebration fund and that raised by subscription, a fine programme and plenty of sports is assured. Come one and all and have a good time. Owing to the rain we missed a good time on the 4th but weather permitting we'll have a fine time the 24th. Come and see.

Wednesday of this week two gentlemen from Eastern Oregon drove into Scio a bunch of horses and are driving them through town across a team owned by Riley Miller and they started with them. A the end of Main street they all collided with the barn wire and Mrs. Munkers with the result that one of the bunchgrass horses cut its throat and died soon after and another was considerably cut up. The dispute as to the cause of the accident resulted in the two horse owners separating their land, each taking half.

The trouble of Mrs. Saunders continues. After Mrs. W. Saunders married her husband's brother Ed Saunders she was deserted by her new husband who went north. Mrs. Saunders followed with her babe in her arms to Portland, reaching there with $1.49, but has been unable to find her husband. The Mercury devotes a column to the case, in which it states that Mrs. Saunders had been divorced from her first husband only three or four days, but as a matter of fact she had been divorced over six months and the second marriage was entirely legal.

The 4th at Scio.—We celebrated! Yes, we celebrated in good old web-foot style. At an early hour, despite the threatening clouds, the boys began to pour in from every direction, the young men and his best girl, the married man, his wife and children, grandpa and grandma, and last but not least, the bossers from a neighboring city. At eight o'clock it had begun to rain and many were the anxious looks for old Sol. But he never showed his smiling countenance. Parade time came and still it poured down, so much so that the parade was postponed until 1 o'clock in hopes that the weather would clear. At 1 o'clock the parade was formed, quite a few little girls riding on the Liberty Car, out the Goddard and her mother were compelled to ride in a covered hack. At the grounds everything was wet through, and yet some people were there all day. The Jefferson Band

Brutally Tortured

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been known. I came across Electric Bitters and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles completely relieved and cured me." Sudden Death

Mrs. Myra Higgins died very suddenly Monday evening at 5 o'clock. She was stricken with paralysis at 7:15 in the morning and never recovered consciousness, but passed quietly and easily to the Great Beyond at the close of the day. She was born in Centerville, N. Y., Sept. 27, 1839, and was 63 years, 9 months and 2 days old.

She had been a resident of Chelan only about a year, coming here from Scio, Oregon. She leaves three sons, all living in this vicinity; to mourn her death. She has the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

The funeral took place at the family residence Wednesday morning at 10:30, being conducted by Rev. Henry J. Gurr, of St. Andrew's and was largely attended, the burial being at the Masonic cemetery.—Chelan Leader.

Mrs. Higgins with her husband and three sons moved from Scio to Chelan in 1893 to a farm near Scio where Mr. Higgins died in 1897 and Mrs. Higgins resided on the farm and in Scio since his death, until her death at 7:15 this morning.

She was kind and always gave her assistance in caring for the sick and afflicted.

Catarth of the Stomach.

When the stomach is overloaded, when food is taken into it that fails to digest, it decays and influences the mucous membrane, exposing the nerves, and causes the glands to secrete mucus. Instead of the natural juices of digestion. This is called Catarth of the Stomach. For years I suffered with Catarth of the Stomach, caused by indigestion. Doctors and medicines failed to benefit me until I used Koldi Dyspepsia Cure.—J. R. Rhea, Coppell, Tex. Sold by E. C. Peery.

McKINLEY—WARE LAND CASES.

Horace McKinley and Miss Marie Ware are held to answer to the United States Grand Jury.

PORTLAND, June 27.—The preliminary examination of Miss Marie Ware, late commissioner at Eugene, Horace G. McKinley and S. A. D. Pater, charged with defrauding the United States Government of timber lands, began before U. S. Commissioner Sladen at Portland yesterday.

The accusation against them is that of having forged the names of fictitious persons to homestead applications and of conspiring to have the same entered at the land office at Roseburg.

Special Inspector A. R. Greene, of the Interior Department, introduces in evidence five homestead entries bearing alleged fictitious names. In support of this allegation, Inspector Greene testified that he had not been able to find any trace of the supposed filers who were purported to be residents of Cottage Grove. Five citizens of Cottage Grove testified that they had never heard of the men whose names were signed as prospective locators upon the homesteads. Upon this and other damaging evidence, McKinley and Miss Ware were bound over to the United States grand jury in bonds of $2000 each. Pater made no appearance though under $500 bonds. The jury will convene in October.
