A Great Graft.

Secretary of the Interior, Hitchcock is doing more than any other one man at the present time to retard the development of Oregon. One after another forest reserve is being created and additions ma le to already large reserves which have heretofore been withdrawn from settlers. Great bodies of fine timber have been appropriated by the corporations without a word of protest but when the honest settlers acquire land in any quantity cries of "fraud" go up from the Interior department and reserves created. The people of Oregon have watched the rapid strides through the lumber industry and just as their own state is just about to take rank as a lumber manufacturing center, the Autocrat of the Interior department, sets aside large tracts of merchantable timber and creates useless forest reserves. A large addition has been made to the cascade reserve by a recent order. The lands are situated in Clackamas, Marion and Linn counties. The townships are from 5 to 13 inclusive in range 4 east, immediately adjoining the Cascade forest reserve on the east. Each township contains 23,040 acres, and the whole number of acres in the nine townships withdrawn is 207,360. All of township 11 and two thirds of township 12 are unsurveyed land. Of the whole area withdrawn from settlement, 81,325 acres are vacant land of which 38,400 acres are unsurveyed.

Another reserve has been created in Eastern Oregon and several hundred Albany citizens are included in the list of unfortunates who will have their holdings tied up by the action of the Secretary. The lands are only temporarily withdrawn but will doubtless be created for a forest reserve. The withdrawn lands lying in the Lakeview districts are; Townships 24, 22, 26, 27 and 28, ranges 7, 8 and 9; townships 21 to 28 inclusive, ranges 10 to 16; townships 28 and 30, ranges 12 and 13; townships 29 and 30, ranges 14 and 15; townships 40 and 41, ranges 14½ and 15; townships 29, 30, 31, 32 and 33, range 16; township 33, range 17; south west quarter of township 33, range 18, all south and east, and the strip of land north and west of the Klamath Indian reservation.

In the Dallas district the following lands were withdrawn; townships 18, 19 and 20, range 20; townships 19 and 20, range 10 and 11; townships 18 and 20, ranges 12, 13, 14 and 15; township 20, range 16 all south and east.

It is time for the law abiding element to put an end to mob rule in this country, and steps should be taken to this end at once. The established conviction of civilization is that law must have absolute, unwavering respect. It cannot be discredited in particular instances, and then expected in others to command the respect which the well-being of society requires should be given it. It cannot be admitted that the higher morality or the public interest, as these are discerned by mobs, is to be set above the law. The epidemic of disrespect for it that is sweeping the world will lamentably weaken the hands of authority for many a day.

The automobile has been laid in the shade. The Postal Telegraph company boasts that it can send a message around the world in twelve minutes. That is about the speed of a negro with an angry mob at his heels.

Not wishing to be the pig's tail in the race, Governor Cummins of Iowa is now making eyes at the vice-presidency.

It is now in order to mind our own business and let foreign governments do the same

The cheapest thing in the world is good advice.

NOT AFRAID TO ADVERTISE.

A Noted Doctor Who Will Not Hide His Light

[Albany Herald, June 26]

Dr. Darrin has been at the Revere House the past two months as a specialist. During his visit here the doctor has been the most talked of professional man who ever visited our city. This has been largely the result of the fact that, while he is a regular physicion, and a graduate of the most reputable schools, he has dropped that of professional ethics which dictates that a professional physician shall not advertise his skill to the world, and thus give the masses an opportunity to get the benefit of his superior ability. There seems to be more and more professional men in this enlightened age who refuse to hide their light under a bushel, all on account of a false idea that if they make their talents known to the world by use of printers' ink they must lose their standing in their chosen profession.

Dr. Darrin is a good example of what a free thinking, independent American citizen can do if he will not be a slave to a code of ethics that is largely dictated by narrow selfishness. He has advertised his skill for years, after having had extensive practice in New York, London, Paris and other metropolitan centers, and it is no secret that he has made money very freely. This need not argue that he has not given value received, as far as it can be done by any skilled physician. This money, which is the result of his skill in medicines as well as advertising, he turns to good uses. He spends fortunes in travel, having made the tour of the world, and visited all the countries of interest on the map. This travel has probably enabled him to learn much in a professional way, but at all events he has had the enjoyment of it, and paid for it with his own money.

During his stay in Salem and Albany he has effected many cures, or at least the voluntary statement of his patients published in all the papers so indicate. These persons are known to the public, and the fact that their statements are published in the papers gives an opportunity to investigate the cases for themselves. One case where a young man states that his hearing has been restored from deafness, after having spent hundreds of dollars with regular professional specialists in that line, ought to command the attention of the public, and it is such facts as these that make it possible for Dr. Darrin to have the large practice he does. Is it wrong to advertise such results, and give others similarly situated an opportunity to get like benefit? When this question is honestly answered it must be admitted that such work is not only legitimate, but of the highest character. It is useless for so called regular doctors to cry down such work or try to legislate such men out of a profession, and every attempt at the latter will only result in failure. The truth is the public sorely needs the best skill that all the doctors can muster, and ought not to be deprived of it by a silly code of ethics.

Save the Children.

Ninety-nine of every onehundred diseases that children have are due to disorders of the stomach, and these disorders are all caused by indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is just as good for children as it is for adults. Children thrive on it. It keeps their little stomachs sweet and encourages their growth and development. Mrs. Henry Carter, 705 Central St., Nashville, Tenn., says: "My little boy is now three years old and has been suffering from indigestion ever since he was born. I have had the best doctors in Nashville, but failed to do him any good. After using one bottle of Kodol he is a well baby. I recommend it to all sufferers." Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Sold by E. C. Peery.

Dysentery Cured Without The Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was cured without having a doctor. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by all dealers.

Not Over Wise.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For sale by all dealers.

Vice-President Woman's Democratic Clubs of Northern Ohio.

"I dreaded the change of life which was fast approaching. I noticed Wine of Cardui, and decided to try a bottle. I experienced some relief the first month, so I kept on taking it for three months and now I menstruate with no pain and I shall take it off and on now until I have passed the climax."

Female weakness, disordered menses, falling of the womb and ovarian troubles do not wear off. They follow a woman to the change of life. Do not wait but take Wine of Cardui now and avoid the trouble. Wine of Cardui never fails to benefit a suffering woman of any age. Wine of Cardui relieved Mrs. Webb when she was in danger. When you come to the change of life Mrs. Webb's letter will mean more to you than it does now. But you may now avoid the suffering she endured. Druggists sell $1 bottles of Wine of Cardui.
