Prosperity and Wall Street.

There are a good many people down East who are worrying because of the great decline in the price of stocks, and the unsatisfactory state of things on the stock market. They recall that not many years ago, that business of the country responded quickly to the conditions prevailing in Wall street, and they seem to think this the natural and inevitable condition of things.

The whole thing reminds one of Lord Dundreary's conundrum; "Why does a dog waggle his tail?" The answer will be remembered by all who ever saw the old play, Our American Cousin: "Because the dog is bigger than the tail. If the tail were bigger than the dog the tail would waggle the dog."

Time was when Wall street was the dog and the remainder of the country's business was its cauda appendage. Therefore the tail waggled whenever Wall street caused it to do so. The tail has, however, grown bigger than the dog, and the contortions of the latter, which are caused by dyspepsia resulting from "undigested securities," affect it not one whit.—Toledo Blade.

The thirteen convicts who escaped from Folsom last week seem to be all Tracy's in the matter of eluding and resisting capture. They are surrounded by posses of officers and militia and have been since the evening of the day of their escape. Their location has been known with more or less certainty during the whole time they have been at large. Several fights have occurred, with some fatalities, most calamitous to their pursuers. It is noticeable that the most desperate fight occurred when the militia was surprised by the convicts. The impression is that if the former had known that the convicts were at that particular point there would have been no fight. It is likely that there are many "cold feet" among the pursuing parties. As the convicts are desperate men and are shooting to kill, criticism by the experienced should be tempered with moderation.

The directors of the Lewis and Clark centennial exposition made a wise choice when they selected H. W. Scott as president to succeed H. W. Corbett deceased. In fact, we do not believe another man in the entire state of Oregon, could fill the place as well as Mr. Scott will. His name will not only add strength to the enterprise, but will give to the people abroad an assurance as no other man could, that it will be no fake affair, but an up-to date exposition of the resources of the Pacific Northwest. Mr. Scott is the right man in the right place.

This is the age of newspaper reading. There may be some better way in the future for the dissemination of news, but at the present time the daily newspaper is read by practically every one in the community. But let no advertiser delude himself into the notion that he can remain out of the paper for long periods of time and remain prominently before the reading public as an up-to-date merchant. Newspaper advertising to be most effective should be continuous.

When all these Oregon timber reserves are finally opened to settlement, as they must some day be, there will be a lot of corporation fellows on hand to cover them with script before any one else has an opportunity to make locations.

The pure, unadulterated Witch Hazel is used in making DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which is the best salve in the world for cuts, burns, bruises, boils, eczema and piles. Dysentery Cured Without The Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was cured without having a doctor. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by all dealers.

Reduced Summer Excursion Rates.

The Denver & Rio Grande popularly known as the "Scenic Line of the World," has announced greatly reduced round-trip rates from Pacific Coast points for the benefit of teachers who will spend their vacation in the East, and of delegates to all the prominent Conventions.—N. E. A., at Boston; A. O. U. W., at St. Paul; B. P. O. E., at Baltimore; Woodmen of America at Indianapolis; Eagles, at New York; Mystic Shrine, at Saratoga Springs; K. of P., at Louisville, and T. P. A., at Indianapolis

Tickets at the reduced rates will be based on one fare for the round trip, but will be sold only on certain days. These tickets will carry stop-over privileges on the going trip, giving passengers an opportunity to visit Salt Lake City, Glenwood Springs, Colorado Springs and Denver; and will be good to return any time within ninety (90) days. Passengers going via the Denver & Rio Grande are given the privilege of returning via a different route.

Not Over Wise.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For sale by all dealers.

Suicide Prevented.

The startling announcement that a preventive of suicide had been discovered will interest many. THEDFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT THE ORIGINAL LIVER MEDICINE

A sallow complexion, dizziness, biliousness and a coated tongue are common indications of liver and kidney diseases. Stomach and bowel troubles, severe as they are, give immediate warning by pain, but liver and kidney troubles, though less painful at the start, are much harder to cure. Thedford's Black-Draught never fails to benefit diseased liver and weakened kidneys. It stirs up the torpid liver to throw off the germs of fever and ague. It is a certain preventive of cholera and Bright's disease of the kidneys. With kidneys reinforced by Thedford's Black-Draught thousands of persons have dwelt immune in the midst of yellow fever. Many families live in perfect health and have no other doctor than Thedford's Black-Draught. It is always on hand for use in an emergency and saves many expensive calls of a doctor.

Mullins, S. C., March 10, 1901.
I have used Thedford's Black-Draught for three years and I have not had to go to a doctor since I have been taking it. It is the best medicine for me that is on the market for liver and kidney troubles and dyspepsia and other complaints. Rev. A. G. LEWIS.
