EDITORIAL.

The Portland public school board has decided against employing married women as teachers. The family is being boycotted on every hand. Babies are not welcome at social functions, therefore many mothers are ostracized. Children are not welcome at many of the "swell" hotels and in every city are found men who will not rent a dwelling to a family with children. Now comes this last slap of the Portland school board. It is a travesty on good judgment and an insult to the noblest instincts of humanity. Boycott the family and you destroy the homes of the country and convert the race into a horde of boarding house cranks and dyspeptics. Bar the married woman out of any of the callings and you destroy the very basis of free institutions. The more honest, self-supporting married women, the better for the poor men.—East Oregonian.

Arrangements are being made to work the inmates of the County jail, who in the past have been leading a very indolent and pleasant life. As soon as arrangements can be completed with the City & Suburban Railway Company for a car to carry them outside the city limits the hapless prisoners will be lined up and taken to a scene of labor, possibly in the vicinity of the Fulton line. The prisoners do not take kindly to the new plans, and several have announced that they will rebel. Three deputies, well armed, will see to it that the captives get up a sweat and do not escape.—Oregonian.

Fourteen masked cattlemen on Birch Creek, in Montana, Friday took one of the sheep herders from the camp of Joe Sturgeon. He was carried ten miles into the mountains, to a tree and whipped to death. The cattlemen had ordered the sheepmen to leave the country and had repeatedly driven away the sheep. Sheriff Taylor and a heavy posse is after the offenders and it is to be hoped speedy justice will be given the perpetrators of so barbaric a crime.

DR. R. H. CURL.

While Drunk Nearly Burned Up.

Recorder J. S. Van Winkle was passing the residence owned by J. J. Graham, on First street, and occupied by Dr. R. H. Curl, at a few minutes after 8 o'clock Friday morning, when he saw smoke issuing from all parts of the house. He called to A. M. Holt, who was passing and one or two others and rushed to the front door, which was locked. Dr. Curl, on the inside, in drunken language cried out:

"It's all right, it's all right, if I want to burn the d——n house guess I can."

Going to a rear door, which was unlocked, the room was found too full of smoke to enter then. A small fire near the kitchen stove was pulled out with a broom. A hole was burned nearly through the floor. Finally getting into the sitting room smothering fires were found every where. Dr. Curl, who was lying on a sofa, dressed, was shoved out into the open air, a horrible looking spectacle, his face nearly black from the smoke and his clothes burned in several places. Upon getting out doors he remarked to Mr. Van Winkle:

"I did the best I could."

Small fires that had been smothering mostly in bed clothes were found in several places and easily extinguished, as they had gotten little headway. On the lounge, where the Dr. was lying was a fire at the head of the sofa partly under him, and one under the foot of the sofa, directly under his feet. His bed had been made up the evening previous by his daughter, who, though, slept with a friend that night. The clothes were scattered all around and were badly burned, besides a rug and the matting on the floor.

He was taken to the city jail, where both his feet were found badly burned, as well as one of his hands slightly.

Then he declared it was an accident, and that he didn't do it, saying he had scattered the fire and tried to put some of the burning things in the kitchen stove. He claimed to have been smoking in bed and that the things caught from that and he tried to put the fire out. In his condition scattering things about generally, finally lying down on the sofa. Some think he tried to burn himself and the house. He is badly mixed on the time and circumstances, very naturally on account of his intoxicated condition.

The fire had been set for some time for some men passing at 7 o'clock smelt the smoke, but thought nothing of it.

The case is an exceedingly sad one Dr. Curl is a good dentist, but has given up to strong drink and permitted it to master him. Mrs. Curl was unable to live with him any longer and is away from home. His daughter, a clerk in the store of the Sugar Bowl, is here, but has been staying elsewhere.—Democrat.

Luck and Labor.

From the Northwestern Christian Advocate.

If the boy who claims "Just my luck" were truthful, he would say "Just my laziness" or "Just my inattention."

Luck is waiting for something to turn up.

Labor, with keen eyes and strong will, will turn up something.

Luck lies in bed and wishes the postman would bring him news of a legacy.

Labor turns out at 6 o'clock, and with a busy pen or ringing hammer lays the foundation of a competence.

Luck whines.

Labor whistles.

Luck relies on chances.

Labor on character.

Luck slips down to indulgence.

Labor strides upward to independence.

Save the Children.

Ninety-nine of every onehundred diseases that children have are due to disorders of the stomach, and these disorders are all caused by indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is just as good for children as it is for adults. Children thrive on it. It keeps their little stomachs sweet and encourages their growth and development. Mrs. Henry Carter, 705 Central St., Nashville, Tenn., says: "My little boy is now three years old and has been suffering from indigestion ever since he was born. I have had the best doctors in Nashville, but failed to do him any good. After using one bottle of Kodol he is a well baby. I recommend it to all sufferers." Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Sold by E. C. Peery.

DeWitt is the name.

When you go to buy Witch Hazel Salve look for the name DeWITT on every box. The pure, unadulterated Witch Hazel is used in making DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which is the best salve in the world for cuts, burns, bruises, boils, eczema and piles. The popularity of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, due to its many cures, has caused numerous worthless counterfeits to be placed on the market. The genuine bears the name of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. Sold by E. C. Peery.

Dysentery Cured Without The Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was cured without having a doctor. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by all dealers.

Reduced Summer Excursion Rates.

The Denver & Rio Grande popularly known as the "Scenic Line of the World," has announced greatly reduced round-trip rates from Pacific Coast points for the benefit of teachers who will spend their vacation in the East, and of delegates to all the prominent Conventions.—N. E. A., at Boston; A. O. U. W., at St. Paul; B. P. O. E., at Baltimore; Woodmen of America at Indianapolis; Eagles, at New York; Mystic Shrine, at Saratoga Springs; K. of P., at Louisville, and T. P. A., at Indianapolis

Tickets at the reduced rates will be based on one fare for the round trip, but will be sold only on certain days. These tickets will carry stop-over privileges on the going trip, giving passengers an opportunity to visit Salt Lake City, Glenwood Springs, Colorado Springs and Denver; and will be good to return any time within ninety (90) days. Passengers going via the Denver & Rio Grande are given the privilege of returning via a different route.

Not Over Wise.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl seated at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For sale by all dealers.

Suicide Prevented.

The startling announcement that a preventive of suicide had been discovered will interest many. A run down system, or despondency invariably precede suicide and something has been found that will prevent that condition which makes suicide likely. At the first thought of self destruction take Electric Bitters. It being a great tonic and nervine will strengthen the nerves and build up the system. It's also a great Stomach, Liver and kidney regulator. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by E. C. Peery druggist.

The Death Penalty.

A little thing sometimes results in death. Thus a mere scratch, insignificant cuts or puny boils have paid the death penalty. It is wise to have Bucklin's Arnica Salve ever handy. It's the best Salve on earth and will prevent fatality, when Burns, Sores, Ulcels and Piles threaten. Only 25c, at Peery's drug store.
