The people of Scio are unanimous in their expressions of satisfaction that he has decided to accept. Under his rule, the school has become one of the best in the Valley and will doubtless continue to improve.

The straw hat is in great demand this year. It is most important to see enough of them, as there was only about half enough to supply the demand grown in this section. At J. W. Jordan's farm near the Sanderson bridge, people come and camp all night in order to get what berries there are early the next morning. The prevailing price is 10 cents per gallon, and pick them yourself.

A horse ball game between Scio and Stayton at that place Sunday last, was won by Scio 20 to 14. An impression of Stayton, our first visit was that it is a prize winner for poor side walks and a baseball ground. A return game for a purse of $5 will probably be arranged in the near future and if played on the Scio grounds will probably be a good game and not a foregone conclusion. The last game was the first Scio boys have played and the Scio team was thoroughly organized while the Stayton team has played a good many games this season.

The Oregon City land office has been authorized by the Interior Department to offer for sale townships 5 and 6, ranges 7 and 8 west, in the Grand Ronde Indian reservation. The sale will be made by separate sealed bids, which will be received between 8 o'clock p. m., August 8, and 10 o'clock p. m., August 8. Each bid is to be accompanied by a certified check for 20 per cent of the amount bid, the same to be credited on the purchase price and the purchaser to pay the balance on establishing his citizenship. The land included in this tract consists of some of the most valuable agricultural lands of the Grand Ronde reservation.

With $100 appropriated last week by the county court for the purpose, the total of the reward now offered for Creffield is about $400. Formerly $100 was contributed by citizens and the sheriff's hands as a reward for the capture of the fugitive, and within the past few days an additional $100 has been raised by subscription. This, with the $100 offered in a certain order, makes an aggregate of $400. The order of the Benton county court making the appropriation recites that Creffield is a criminal out of the ordinary; that at large he is a menace to the peace and happiness of the community, and that six of his followers have been committed to the insane asylum.

Decisions in the cases of Brenner against Leaver, Wadde against Sexton, Wadde against Gaines, Jones against Gaines and Brenner against Moore, have all been decided in the Oregon City Land Office favorable to the contestants. The above cases concern timber claims taken up by the defendants on Crabtree creek and which were taken up as homesteads, and the plaintiff endeavored to prove that they had not resided on them as the law requires. This is an important decision as hundreds of homesteads in that section were taken up in the same manner and these claims are valuable ones. The defendants in the above cases, where they have been decided against, have Oregon City, or allowed 30 days to file appeals to the Commissioner of the General Land Office at Washington.
