A Portland court has decided the value of a leg to be $9,150. This is the amount the court thinks the O. W. P. & B. R. Co. should pay an employee that lost a leg in the company's service.

Gained Forty Pounds in Thirty Days

For several months our younger brother had been troubled with indigestion. He tried various remedies but got no benefit from them. We purchased some of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and he commenced taking them. Inside of thirty days he had gained forty pounds in flesh. He is now fully recovered. We have a good trade on the tablets—Haley Bros., Merchants, Long Branch, Mo. For sale by all dealers.

To Whom It May Concern.

This is to notify the public that my wife, Icie Ann Platt and I have separated by mutual agreement. I will not be responsible for any bills that she may contract from this date. Dated at Scio, this October 15, 1904.

A Question of Tacks.

Any reader of this paper, sending tacks in silver, by postal note or in one and two cent stamps, will be sent by Daily Journal one month; or the Sunday Journal two months; or the Semi-Weekly Journal three months; or the Weekly Journal four months; and in addition a match safe filled with tacks, postage prepaid. Address The Journal, Portland, Oregon.

Cause of Lockjaw.

Lockjaw, or tetanus, is caused by a bacillus or germ which exists plentifully in street dirt. It is inactive so long as exposed to the air, but when carried beneath the skin as in the wounds caused by penetration caps or by rusty nails, and when the air is excluded the germ is roused to activity and produces the most violent sickness known. These germs may be destroyed and all danger of lockjaw avoided by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely as soon as the injury is received. Pain balm is an antiseptic and causes cuts, bruises and like injuries to heal without maturation and in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. It is for sale by all dealers.

Again the manager of the Portland baseball club is changed with the hope that the downward tendency in the percentage column may be checked. A more effective check would probably result if a new ball player were acquired.

LOCAL.

It is rumored that Scio is to have a new music store.

Circuit Court Department No. 1, convenes in Albany next Monday. With a new barber and new butchers, Scio is going some. See their ads elsewhere.

Last Sunday the fire hose was turned on the bridge and the decking thoroughly cleaned.

Hops are quoted at 41 to 51 cents per pound. Beer, however, remains at the usual 3 cents per glass basis.

Some of our citizens predict a cold winter. The unusual number of weddings is the basis of the prediction.

Before it gets too wet don't neglect plowing your garden for next year's crop. It will pay in giving a more mellow soil to cultivate.

The Morrow-Blyden hunting party returned Saturday. They report a very wet time. One poor little fox, which owes its demise to their visit. We are now comfortably located in our new office and quite ready to take your subscription. Don't delay but come at once. We need you in our business.

Two Portland men have been arrested by Game Warden Baker for killing too many pheasants in one day. They hunted in the vicinity of Tanager Sunday.

Road Supervisor Pomeroy last week had quite a force of men at work placing gravel on the road over Cemetery Hill. The road will now be good all winter.

A Portland man was the lowest bidder for the erection of government buildings for the Lewis and Clark fair. 1913 bid was $255,882 for the construction of four or five buildings.

Lucas Lodge, K. of P. of Albany, tendered Grand Chancellor Carl a reception upon his return from Scio. Mr. Carl is fourth member of lowest lodge to fill the G. U. position.

It was expected that M. M. Peery of Springfield, would come and join the Miller-Peery-Grimes hunting party, but the press of business was such that he could not come. R. Sweeney was drafted to take his place.

"Mingle War in California" is strikingly described in October Sunset magazine. Articles by Gen. MacArthur and others. Beautiful colored drawings. Many industrial articles, sketches, stories, etc. 10 cents from all newsdealers.

Joseph Adner, a Mill City logger, was unfortunate enough last week to have a large log roll over him. Fortunately the log was on a skidway, or the injury would have been fatal. As it is Mr. Adner is badly crushed, though not necessarily fatally injured.

Ira Bennett, the slippery prisoner, is again behind prison bars. He laid out for a week or more and having injured his knee, he went to the home of his mother to rest and recuperate. Without the knowledge of her son the mother telephoned Sheriff White and the arrest followed.

A divorce suit was yesterday filed at the court house with George W. Platt as plaintiff and I. A. Platt defendant. The two were married in Linn county, June 6, 1899. There are no children. The plaintiff alleges cruel and inhuman treatment and general worthlessness, and says his wife left his bed and board on October 13.—Herald.

It is quite probable that Homer Davenport's fine collection of birds and animals will be an exhibition at the big fair next year. He has the most extensive collection of specimens in the world, having 35 distinct varieties. Among the animals may be mentioned Arabian horses, Angora goats, Persian sheep, and various other animals, besides his game cocks and bull dogs.

A few weeks ago two Laramie men killed three elk up in the mountains beyond the Big Bottom country. The meat was brought down to Laramie on several horses taken up for the purpose, and divided among eight families of Laramie, according to a report given the Democrat by a man who has been in the Laramie neighborhood. There promises to be some further developments in the matter later, as it is believed to kill elk at any time, and the result is a large one.—Albany Democrat.

PURELY PERSONAL.

A hunting party composed of Blyden school of this city, Will C. Blyden, of Anity, and Messrs Peery and Grimes, of Dayton, Yambill county, assembled in this city leaving on Wednesday for their hunting grounds on the headwaters of Crabtree.

J. N. Morris will this week move over to Lebanon. Just how we will get along without Jos, remains to be seen. Jos is a good citizen and has lived in Scio for many moons; but changes must come and we can't submit. What is our loss is Lebanon's gain.

N. S. Dalgleish and family, who recently went to Canada, have returned to Lebanon to reside. Mr. Dalgleish says any one who has lived on this coast for 13 years will not like Canada. Mr. Dalgleish has accepted a position with Everett & Kyle.—Lebanon E. A.

On account of the press of business last week, incident to the moving of the News office, we overlooked the matter of notifying Patie McDonald and Fred Daily, delegates of Le-nidias Lodge K. of P., attend the grand lodge of that order at Seaside. They report a very enjoyable trip.

Correspondence Invited.

The SANTIAM NEWS desires correspondents in the various neighborhood centers in the forks of the Santiam. It is good training for such of boys and girls. It will cultivate your powers of observation as well as that of expressing your thoughts in writing. Let us hear from Crabtree, Lacombe, Jordan, Shelburne, Lyons, Rock Creek and other points weekly. The editor will look over your manuscripts carefully before they go into print.

Telephone Patrons Remember

That if you wish your phones to work satisfactory, you must remove all brush that will touch the line, renew your batteries whenever white patches begin to show on the outside, and keep all connecting wires screwed tight. There are a great many things that will cause a poor service, that if looked after on time, will do away with many causes of aggravation. The central office at Scio wishes to give the farmers a good service, if you will help us in looking after the details that you are supposed to look after. We will do the rest.

CENTRAL OFFICE.

A Serenading Party.

Tuesday night at about ten o'clock the News editor's dream was disturbed by strains of vocal music apparently about a block distant. As we surmised, the music was produced by a party of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Don McKnight. After singing three or four selections, the party repaired to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Gill, where a Miss Edna Gill and Mr. Shumaker were spending their last night of single blessedness. The serenaders were: Mrs. F. J. Irvin, Mrs. R. W. Gill, Mrs. Littleton, Misses Grace Gill, Eva Myers, Claudia McKnight, Sylvia Munkers, Inez Munkers, Imogene Gill, Audie Shelton, and Messrs. J. Percy Wells, Roger Cain, Frank Gill, Dr. B. W. Schaffner and W. A. Ewing.

Fits: If you would like to have a fit wear one of Kuppenheimer's suits and you will have one. Wesley Bros. have a complete line of Kuppenheimer's guaranteed clothing on hand for fall and winter.

Born.

VERNON—On October 11, 1904, to Mr. and Mrs. Emma Vernon, a daughter.

BEARD—To Mr. and Mrs. H. Fry Beard, on October 18, 1904, an eight pound boy.

Since the happy event "Garry has added an inch or two to his height. He, also, passes his friends with a feeling akin to disdain. When asked to explain, his only response is, "It's a toy."

MARRIED.

McKNIGHT—RAY—At high noon, Wednesday, October 12, 1904, Mr. Donald Ray McKnight, of Scio, and Miss Evelyn Ray, the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Ray, of Jordan.

The ceremony was performed in Albany at the residence of S. P. Munkers, uncle of the groom, by Rev. Launer, pastor of the Evangelical church. The house was decorated for the occasion with carnations and ferns. The bride was charmingly gowned in a soft shade of gray, while the groom wore the conventional black.

After the ceremony delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. McKnight will be at home to their friends after Nov. 1st at their home in South Scio.

Hymen's Doings.

Hymen has again been in Scio, and this time brought a "love delighted hour" to Miss Edna Gill, of this city, and Mr. Kinney J. Shumaker, of Jefferson.

On Wednesday of this week these popular young people were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Gill, the Rev. L. C. Bauer officiating. Friends of the bride had beautifully decorated the home for the occasion with autumn leaves and ivy. The guests were assembled in the parlor and promptly as the clock began to strike the hour of twelve the familiar strains of the wedding march commenced to echo through the halls and the bridal procession entered, the bride attended by Miss Catherine Robinson, of Lebanon, and the groom by the bride's brother, Mr. Byron Gill. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white silk organza over cream silk, and carried in her hand a bunch of white carnations. The bridesmaid was also dressed in white organza and carried an arm bouquet of white roses. The procession entered under a large grape and rose, and suspended from above, and the impressive words were said which united these husband and wife. The guests then repaired to the dining room where a sumptuous dinner was spread.

The bride has grown from childhood to young womanhood in Scio, and possesses many talents and accomplishments. The groom is a promising young man of Jefferson, and a person of most exemplary habits.

The happy couple drove to Jefferson and took the afternoon train for North Yambill, Wash., but will subsequently return to Oregon and make it their home.

Following are the names of the invited guests: Rev. and Mrs. L. C. Bauer, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Gill, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Gill, Mr. and Mrs. J. Shumaker, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Shumaker, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Looney, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Blyden, Mrs. Everett Looney, Misses Grace Gill, Imogene Gill, Leone Montgomery, Catherine Robinson, Iva R. Stevenson, Messrs. Byron Gill, Frank Gill, Fred Ficklin, J. B. Shumaker, J. Percy Wells.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

No one who is acquainted with its good qualities can be surprised at its great popularity. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures colds and grip effectually and permanently, but prevents these diseases from resulting in pneumonia. It is also a certain cure for croup. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as readily to a baby as to adults. It is also pleasant to take. When all of these facts are taken into consideration it is not surprising that it is so popular in foreign lands, as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it. For sale by all dealers.

WANTED—Special representative in this county and adjoining territories, to represent and advertise an old established business house of solid financial standing. Salary $21 weekly, with Expenses advanced each Monday by check direct from headquarters. Horse and buggy furnished when necessary; position permanent. Address Hlew Bros. & Co., Dept. A, Monon Bldg. Chicago, Illinois.

Many Mothers of a Like Opinion.

Mrs. Palmer, of Cordova, Iowa, says: "One of my children was subject to croup of a severe type, and the giving of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly, always brought relief. Many mothers in this neighborhood think the same as I do about this remedy, and want no other kind for their children." For sale by all dealers.
