Ashburnham, O. trio, Testifies to the Good Qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

ASHBURNHAM, Oreg., April 16, 1906.—I think it is only right that I should tell you what a wonderful effect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has produced. The day before Easter I was so distressed with a cold and cough that I did not think I was able to take any duties the next day, as my voice was almost strangled by the cough. The same day I received an order from you for a bottle of your Cough Remedy. I at once procured a sample bottle, and took about three doses of the medicine. To my great relief the cough and cold had completely disappeared and I was able to preach three times on Easter Day. I know that this rapid and effective cure was due to your Cough Remedy. I make this testimonial without solicitation, being thankful to have found such a good remedy.

Respectfully yours,
 E. A. LANGFORD, M. A.,
 Rector of St. Luke's Church,
 10 Chamberlain Medicine Co.,

The U S grand jury in Portland give the cranks a turn on Tuesday. The result was indictments against George Swenson, B B Ormsby, C E Loomis, Henry Young, Dr W H Davis, John Doe and Richard Roe. The other five mentioned are supposed to be eastern men.

Judge Burnett held an adjourned term of court in Albany last week. At that time Ira Connett, the slippery prisoner with drew the plea of not guilty and pleaded guilty to larceny. He was sentenced to the penitentiary for 2 years. The indictment against his brother, was dismissed.

President Roosevelt in his recommendation to congress for legislation looking to regulating railroads, will probably raise up a hornet nest among railroad people. Yet the president is right and in the end will win out. The railroads are entitled to reasonable compensation and no more. The question is what is reasonable.

James Abbott, who has been leaner for the force of men that have been building the road into the Block River mines in Linn county, is spending the holidays at home. He states that the road built is most excellent one and one over which a team can draw 40000 lbs. He thinks there yet remains about six miles of road to construct.

Wm. Brenner and Joe Warwick with their dogs, indulged in a coyote chase over east of Lebanon on Monday. Coyotes had been disturbing the flocks over there and the boys were invited over for the chase. They captured one coyote and perhaps gave others such a scare, that they will perhaps give that locality a wide berth for a while.

Did you ever think of the amount of good you may do by paying your small debts? To illustrate, he good it may do we relate the following: A owed B a debt of $10. B owed a like amount to C. C. D and D to Banker E. Now A receiving $10 from Banker E for work, paid his debt to B. B paid his to C, C to D and D in turn a debt to Banker E. It thus seems that because of the industry of A, who did $10 worth of work and paid his debt, that in all, $40 of debt has been paid and in the end Banker E has just as much money as he had before he employed A to do the work. The payment of your debt, whatever it may be, might not be the cause of such clearing up of debt as the above, yet it might. Who can tell? If every one would make extra endeavor to pay his little obligations, we would do much to avoid the approach of hard times.

Linn County to the Front.

Wednesday quite a number of Albansians came over for various purposes. Among the number was H. Bryant who is one of a committee appointed by the Albany Push club to arouse the various towns and localities in the county to the importance of the situation. The Albany people desire organized effort in every locality. The effort is to be made to prepare such an exhibit for Linn county, that there will be no question but what the first premium for county exhibits at the big fair should be given to Linn. We can do this if everybody will put his shoulder to the wheel and show what we have. In order to show our best productions of grasses, cereals, vegetables, etc., these various articles must be found, collected and prepared. Somebody must do this and some sort of organization is necessary to make the proper selection. This is the cause of Mr. Bryant's visit.

Hanson Garland a real estate dealer in Portland is up visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. Geo Garland.

We are informed that a certain party in town has constituted himself a committee to look after the welfare of the widows and orphans, principally the widows.

Timbers are being hauled preparatory to placing new frame work under the bridge across Thomas creek in this city. Commissioner Butler with a force of men is to commence the work sometime this week.

Telephone line No 8, was out of commission for about a week. Linnemen from Albany discovered the trouble to be a cross in the line out about one mile from town. During the stormy period of the year farmers should look over their lines carefully every week.

The Eclectic Business college of Albany, Oregon, is one of the best Business colleges in the West. President Richardson is known as a most careful instructor, and his students speak of his work in the highest terms of praise. He does exactly as he promises. This is the college for earnest students.

Aunt Mary Hunt, one of Scio's most capable and generous women, now lies dangerously ill at her residence, in this city, without any hope for her recovery. Bright's disease of the kidneys is the complaint, and she now appears in the last stages of the disease. Many people in this city have been the recipients of her kindly, sympathetic ministrations, whose work she will be sincerely mourned by everybody in this vicinity. It is not expected that she will live but a few days, at most.

Everybody's Magazine for January has already reached us, heavy with Frenzied Finance, the most sensational of all twentieth century articles, besides which the average story is a dissertation on the Sahara desert. Tom Lawson is the greatest originator of the age, and he is doing a great deal of good. He is unobtrusively telling facts in his wonderful account of the manner in which millions are juggled in the interest of the manipulators. Incidentally Lawson tells how $300,000,000 was raised in Wall street and used to defeat Bryan, six states being bought up in the interest of patriotism, on any explanation of Bryan's defeat in 1896, and a sample of machine politics.—Democrat.
