

PRICE.

ngs in S & SHOES. se Assort- Furnishings g of 1905.

Clothing Co.

g Co.

S.

Directors Blyen, J J Barnes, C A Warner.

illing busi- e. Wheat r. We are ll treat you

HARDSON e of bridge.

OREGON has been refitted ned throughout ome beds, airy tables supplied the market af-attention given Free sam- C.

ON. Proprietor

AX PHILLIPS. LER IS

py, Nuts, Ci- bacco and eful arti- numerous ention- rinks Soda, Bottled t Beef Tea, Cocktails, Etc.

ing in my line

PHILLIPS.

Eastern R. R.

12:45 P. M. 1:45 P. M. 2:45 P. M. 3:45 P. M. 4:45 P. M. 5:45 P. M. 6:45 P. M. 7:45 P. M. 8:45 P. M. 9:45 P. M. 10:45 P. M. 11:45 P. M.

Albany in 1905. The Albany Hardware Co. is the largest and best equipped hardware store in Albany, Oregon. It carries a full line of hardware, tools, and building materials. It is located at 212 and 221 First Street, Albany, Oregon.

115 Acting Manager.

We are showing the New Shjrt Waist Suits for Spring....

Changeable Mohair Suits, $5.00 to $7.50 Cream Alpaca, fan y trimmed, at $10.00 White-Linen Suits $7.00 Silk Shirt Waist Suits $11.00 to $18.00 Also new embroidered shirt Waists in cotton and linen.
A very good insertion trimmed and tacked Waist for $1.00 Handsome white lawn tacked and embroidered Waist, at $1.50
The price does not tell it all. They are made in the best factories in the United States, and have a style that you only see in the best goods.

A display of NEW NECKWEAR and RUCHING this week.
Fancy shaded Ribbons, new polka-dot Ribbons.
400 yards of fine 124 count Gingham, per yard $1.00 Monday morning, April 9th, we will put on sale, for one week only, a ladies' fast black, flat hose, which is a good 10c value, for 5c a pair

S. E. YOUNG & SON,
Albany, Oregon.

Look Here!!

For the next 30 days beginning January 1st, I will close out my book stock at the following low prices:

Regular 25 cent Books for 10 cents each Regular 50 cent Books for 20 cents each
Regular 75 cent Books for 30 cents each Regular $1.00 Books for 40 cents each Regular $1.25 Books for 50 cents each
Regular $1.50 Books for 60 cents each

Yours for business, E. C. Peery, Druggist.

NOTICE TO FARMERS

If you want the best woven wire fence, If you want the best carriages, buggies, If you want the best hay vester, mower, If you want the best plow or any kind of agricultural implements, Call on

W. H. GOLTRA, Albany.

J. B. GILL, P. H. MACDONALD.

GILL & MACDONALD.

GENERAL BLACKSMITHS,

Wagon repairing and in fact do everything carried on by a first-class blacksmith and wagon shop. Horseshoeing a specialty.
Satisfaction guaranteed.

Hats-Hats-Hats

Mens and Boys Hats.

We have 'em, of the latest styles and at prices that will suit all. Also a nice New Line of

SHOES
OF
ALL KINDS
AND

Dress Goods

Galore. We have the Goods: You have de mon. Call and inspect our stock.

Hibler & Gill Co.

Engine owners desiring their thresh ing engines placed in good condition should bring them at once to H. S. Johnston, while business is slack. He will fit them up in good order at reasonable prices, and guarantee the repairs to be satisfactory. If desired he will go to where the engine is housed. 25-11

Hay For Sale.
I have about 5 tons of good cheat hay baled, for sale at $12 per ton. W. D.
Reed on the Newton Crabtree farm.
40-1

Fine Millinery.
Mrs. E. Cyrus has a fine large line of Ladies' and Childrens' hats now on exhibition and for sale. If desired, one-half of purchase will be taken in produce, delivered at any of the stores. 40-

LOCAL

Harnish—Scioto—Saturday April 8th.
Judge Galloway's court is in session at Albany, this week.

A. W. Hagey has moved to the S. I.
Shore's property, in this city.

John Wooley made the county metropolis, a business visit, last week.

Walter Blyen has been appointed deputy, by Marshal J. A. Blyen.

Dr. and Mrs. Prill, were passengers on Monday's C. & E. train to Albany.

Mrs. J. W. Compton returned from a visit to Crabtree relatives, Saturday.

Chas. Wooley expects to receive a carload of wagons and farming implements this week.

S. I. Shore, of Monmouth, arrived in this city, Wednesday morning, on a business visit.

George Thompson, a young man who resided 5 miles south of Scioto, died on the evening of April 4.

Prof. V. L. Colavan of the Shelton district, closed a very successful term of school last Friday.

Joe Strick is advertising his household goods for sale, and is contemplating leaving our port.

Avoid trusts. Patronize mutual fire insurance, O. F. R. A. of McMinnville, Wm. C. C. Bryant, Albany, Oregon.

It is reported that the Hancock Wooden Mills Co., will rebuild their mills at Albany, destroyed last week, by fire.

Mrs. John Connor, an old-time resident of Linn county of many years, died in Portland, last Monday, at the age of 60 years.

The unshar pool that has been made up in the vicinity of Scioto, consisting of about 3,000 fcees, will be offered for sale Saturday, April 8.

Miss Bessie Morris went over to Albany Saturday evening to spend Sunday with her sister, who is teaching school in the Cowan district.

We have a full line of creamery supplies and tubular cream separator in stock. Call and see before you buy elsewhere. CHAS. WOOLEY.

C. S. Harnish will be at his Scioto gal-ery Saturday morning April 8th, and remain three days. Get ready for your photos. 40-11

Joe Young started for Nebraska, Friday, for the purpose of buying and bringing to Scioto a fine Percheron stallion. He expects to return by the 10th of the month.

Joe Young, one of our most progressive citizens, started on a trip to Minnesota, last Friday. He will have something to say from a business point of view later on.

An employee of the Curtis Lumber Co. was taken to Albany Tuesday by special train, on account of a broken leg. He was taken to the Shelton hospital and the fracture reduced by Dr. Davis.

R. Shelton sold, last week, 63 acres of land 4 miles N. E. of Scioto to Mr. Anton Jirka, from Iowa, consideration $1200.
Mr. Jirka will erect buildings on his new farm this summer and make his permanent residence thereon.

County Supt. Jackson has made the apportionment of the school funds, which amounts to five dollars for each child of school age, in the county. Scioto's portion is $630.00. There is now 154 school districts in the county.

Miss Bessie Morris, our belle girl, went over to Albany on Saturday evening's train, to remain over Sunday.
Bessie said she was going over to see her fellow, but as it was April 7, we accept of the statement with a considerable degree of allowance.

H. D. Landon, one of the practical lightermen of Salem, has moved to our city and will become a permanent resident. He has a fine mill property up in Blyen, which he will at once place in operation. It is his purpose to keep his yards in this city. Later on he will make known his intentions through advertisements.

Mr. Marsh, a relative of J. J. Barnes, and who has been a guest of the Barnes during the winter, started on his return journey, to his Michigan home, last Monday. He expects the winter here so much, that it is quite probable that he will dispose of his Michigan property and return to the Willamette Valley, as a permanent resident, in the near future.

Fauline, the bright and lovable 6-year-old daughter of Paul Schmitt, of Albany, was drowned in the Santiam canal, on last Friday morning. She and companion of the same age were playing on a bridge crossing the canal, when Paul line, by some means slipped into the canal and was seen no more. The point where the little girls were playing was just behind the electric light plant and but a short distance from the Calapoos and the body was probably swept into the stream. The body was "recovered" a day or two later having been swept into the Calapoos. The funeral was attended by a large concourse of Albany citizens, who all sympathize with the bereaved parents.

The Brenner-Jones-Richardson hunting party returned from a three days hunt Friday. They brought back meat with them that they pronounced a prime article of bear meat and furnished 2 1/2 a sample to prove it. Well, as there were no claws attached to the sample furnished, our well-known ad referee strictly telling the truth, will not allow us to state what it was. For all we know it might have been sliced from the hams of a cougar or coyote, but as it had a more palatable taste when we thought it was bear, we have concluded that for once in their lives, the boys have told the truth. 40-

Benny was unmarried. His god father feels the shock of the sudden taking off of his son greatly, who with three brothers, W. R., of Lexington, Or., I. A., of Albany and J. P. of Munkers and one sister, Mrs. M. E. Neal, of Benton county, mourn his loss.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he preached the gospel of Christ with some considerable success. Benny had many friends and was well liked by his many acquaintances.

Benjamin W. Munkers, aged 43, died, Monday, at Salem, Oregon, after some three or four weeks' illness. He was a familiarly known by his friends and acquaintances, went down to the vicinity of Independence to work.
Within a short time he became ill, with a breaking out on his face similar to poison oak. His illness proving of a grave nature, he was brought to his home at his father's home, at Munkers station.

It soon became apparent that his mind was greatly affected, and, becoming violent, it was deemed advisable to take him to the asylum for the insane, at Salem. This was done last Thursday.
Friday night about 9 o'clock, his system seem to completely collapse and death resulted in a few minutes.

The remains were brought to his home on Saturday and prepared for burial, which occurred at the Miller cemetery, Sunday afternoon. A large concourse of relatives and friends attended the funeral, the services being conducted by a Jefferson clergyman.

Benny was unmarried. His god
father feels the shock of the sudden
taking off of his son greatly, who with
three brothers, W. R., of Lexington,
Or., I. A., of Albany and J. P. of Mun-
kers and one sister, Mrs. M. E. Neal, of Benton county, mourn his loss.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Pioneer Passes Away

David Myers After A Long and Painful Illness Joins the Great Majority.

One of our best known and most respected citizens passed away at 6 p. m., Wednesday. Mr. Myers' illness lights disease, dates back over a period of several years, though not acute except during the past few months.

During the past few weeks, he has undergone great suffering, which at times amounted to torture. When the final moments came, all of his children, except Mrs. Mary Williams, who is in California, were at his bedside, anxious and willing to do anything within the power of human skill and tenderness, to relieve the suffering of their only living parent; but they were powerless. So when the pale messenger arrived, he was greeted with a feeling of relief, by both the sufferer and his sorrowing children.

Linn county has had no better citizen than was David Myers. Unassuming, honest because his fine sense of right and justice would not permit him to be otherwise, he has passed along through life doing his "likework" as a citizen, as a husband, and as a father in an almost faultless manner. He could leave no richer heritage to his sorrowing children than the spotless character for honesty and integrity which he possessed.

David Myers was born in Trumbull county, Ohio, on February 16, 1854, being the fifth of a family of fifteen children. Here his boyhood days were spent, during which time he was required to work very hard and had but little time to attend school. When he was 20 years old he went to California, by way of the isthmus of Panama, and there engaged in placer mining in Eldorado county and being moderately successful thereat. In 1888 he transferred his mining interests to the Sound county, Washington, and in November of that year located in Portland. He here worked at the carpenter trade, but soon came to Marion county, engaging in saw-milling, near Stayton. In 1902 he located on his farm, 3 miles east of Scioto, where he farmed and worked at his trade of carpentering until 1903, when he moved to Scioto. Here he has engaged in the lumber business, conducting a planer in connection therewith, until he disposed of the planing mill and business in 1905. Since which time he has not engaged in active business. Having by frugality and careful attention to business, secured a comfortable competence, he could well afford to devote the remaining years of his life to the care of his health, which by this time was giving him much concern.

Mr. Myers has never aspired to public office, though he filled the position of county commissioner for a term of two years. Politically, Mr. Myers was a democrat; though of late years he has been independent.

In 1861 he was married to Miss Mary P. McDonald, by whom a family of thirteen children—3 boys and 10 girls, were born and all but two of whom are now living. Jefferson, lives in Portland; Clay and Ida deceased; Laura B. Dora and Flora live in Portland, Mand in Salem, Mrs. Mary Williams in California, Mrs. Eva Ewing, Myrtle, Edward D. and Lola at home.

Mr. Myers was a member of Scioto Lodge No. 39, A. F. & A. M. and also a member of Safety Lodge, A. O. U. W.
He belonged to the Linn county pioneer association and, when health permitted, greatly enjoyed the annual gatherings.
The funeral will be held at the Christian church at 2 p. m. today. The burial will be under the auspices of A. F. & A. M. The plot bearers were made up equally of Masons and Workmen.

DEAD.

MUNKERS—At Salem on March 31, 1905, Benjamin W. Munkers, aged 43,
died, Monday, at Salem, Oregon, after some three or four weeks' illness. He was a familiarly known by his
friends and acquaintances, went down
to the vicinity of Independence to work.
Within a short time he became ill, with
a breaking out on his face similar to
poison oak. His illness proving of a grave nature, he was brought to his
home at his father's home, at Munkers
station.

It soon became apparent that his
mind was greatly affected, and, becoming violent, it was deemed advisable
to take him to the asylum for the insane,
at Salem. This was done last Thursday.
Friday night about 9 o'clock, his system
seem to completely collapse and death
resulted in a few minutes.

The remains were brought to his home
on Saturday and prepared for burial,
which occurred at the Miller cemetery,
Sunday afternoon. A large concourse
of relatives and friends attended the
funeral, the services being conducted by
a Jefferson clergyman.

Benny was unmarried. His god
father feels the shock of the sudden
taking off of his son greatly, who with
three brothers, W. R., of Lexington,
Or., I. A., of Albany and J. P. of Mun-
kers and one sister, Mrs. M. E. Neal, of Benton county, mourn his loss.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Benny had always been somewhat er-
atic in mind, though of fine memory.
At an earlier period in his life he
preached the gospel of Christ with some
considerable success. Benny had many
friends and was well liked by his many
acquaintances.

Attempt No. 2, To Wreck Overland Train Near Albany

Upon going home from church last night Mr. Ed Cooper, residing the side of the Jewish cemetery, discovered a couple of ties on the track opposite the residence of R. L. Burkhardt, in the eastern part of the city. He took them off and had Mr. Burkhardt notify Chief of Police McClain.

A freight train, going north later struck two or more ties about a mile north of Mr. Burkhardt's just this side of the Jewish cemetery. They were placed parallel and just inside the rails where they were not noticeable. The train was going slow and carried the ties ahead the length of three telegraph poles, when they struck an obstruction at a road crossing and the engine was thrown partially off the track, fortunately doing little damage. It was soon placed on the rails and proceeded on its way.

Chief of Police McClain, Nightwatch Cantwell, John Catlin, Agent Frank and one or two others visited the place last night and Sheriff White and others today. When the overland passed last night two shots were heard, either the explosion of torpedoes left by the freight train or from a gun fired nearby. Two shot gun cartridges were found in the brush near the track, one new, the other old, and it may have been in connection with them. Both views are given by different persons. But the reason is a mystery if the latter.

The prevailing opinion is that it was not for a hold-up, but for pure cuselness, the same as on a former occasion within the city limits.

The matter is under investigation and should be probed to the bottom.

The ties were evidently intended for the overland, and if that train had struck them at full speed there would undoubtedly have been a bad wreck. The ties were placed on the track sometime after 7 o'clock, after the Albany local had passed. Who did it?—Monday's Democrat.

The S. P. company offers a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of the guilty party or parties.

To Be Rehabilitated.

For the past year the Scioto railroad has not been operated and during the winter the engine was taken to Portland. Now, we understand, the road is to be placed in condition again and the present season promises to be quite a busy one from a freight viewpoint. The Hall Lumber Co. have a contract for two million feet of bridge timbers and 50,000 ties for the S. P. company, John Cyrus a contract for 50,000 ties, the Miller company for another 25,000 and several other smaller lots, all of which would be loaded in Scioto if the road was in condition. In addition Mr. H. D. Landon will operate his mill in Blyen, and ship his lumber from here. Taken together these promises to be more business for the road than at any time before. Everybody will rejoice to see the Scioto overland again ready for business.

For Sale—310 acres of fine land, and started 2 miles West of Tallman, 190 acres in cultivation balance oak grub and most of which has been cut off and is excellent pasture. Water in pasture the year through. Fair house and barn, good orchard of apples, peaches, cherries etc. This is an excellent grain farm or would be first class for a dairy. Rail road station one mile to the north or 1 1/2 miles to the south. Title good, abstract unimpaired price $10,000. Inquire at this office.

Mrs. G. H. HARRARD