EXTENDING WINTER RATES.

To Yaquina Bay. Which to People Wishing to Enjoy Nature's Beauties Proves So Popular.

The low rates in effect from points on the S. P. to Yaquina Bay during the winter, which proven so popular with the people wishing to view the beauties of nature at that magnificent seaside resort, have been extended during the month of April, and tickets will be sold on Wednesdays and Saturdays until the last of April, good for return at any time up to May 31, 1905.

The month of April should be a favorite one for visiting the seaside, where "Smiling Spring her earliest visit pays," and where the health-giving breezes of the Pacific will banish "Spring Fever" and other ills to which flesh is heir.

Through Ticket Arrangements.

Tickets from all East side points to all West side points, and vice versa, via the C. & E. are also on sale; and on April 1st tickets to all West side points will be on sale by the C. & E. at Albany; and to all East side points on the S. P. by the C. & E. at Corvallis on which baggage can be checked through to destination, thus avoiding delay and annoyance to passengers traveling between East and West side points.

Full information in regard to rates, etc., can be obtained from any S. P. or C. & E. agent or from W. E. Coman, G. P. A., S. P. Co., Portland, or T. H. Curtis, Acting Manager, C. & E. R. R. Company, Albany, Oregon. 40-

LOCAL

Fine growing weather.

Jack Bilyeu is preparing to erect a new barn.

The flax mill commenced business Monday morning.

The new Pacific States telephone directory is just out.

Colonel Jeff Myres, of Portland, spent Sunday with home folks.

Ira Richardson shipped a carload of stock hogs from West Scio Wednesday.

R. B. Miller and wife drove over to Albany Saturday, returning the next day.

Several wagon loads of hogs were delivered to Ira Richardson in this city Monday.

A Seattle jury has decided that a dog has the right to bite a man if the man provokes the dog.

The population of Albany, as reported recently by the assessor, is 3528, without the suburbs.

Mrs. May Jones and little son Mason came over Saturday for an over Sunday visit with home folks.

It is reported that the portage railway at The Dalles will be ready for business in two weeks.

Rev. J. W. Mount will occupy the pulpit of the Baptist church here next Sunday morning and evening.

Albany has a sort of wholesale dog poisoner. Somewhere between thirty and forty dogs have eaten his baits.

C. W. Dobbins, of Wardner, Idaho, was visiting at the residence of J. S. Morris from last Saturday to Tuesday.

Sergeant Paul Bond and John H. Reed have been named as Lewis and Clark guards, detailed from Troop A, Lebanon.

Joseph Young, the shooter of Kaspar Van Dran of Portland, has been held without bonds pending the result of the shooting.

The Independent Telephone Co. has been erecting poles in the city during the past few days and will soon be ready for business.

The burial of the late Hon. Allen Parker occurred at Albany Tuesday, being conducted by the Masonic order, of which he was a member.

One of the pet bears that have been used to train the Scio pack of hounds is dead. One of the dogs bit him a little too severely and blood poisoning did the rest.

A little son of Mr. Furnish, who lives in the neighborhood of Crabtree, was kicked by a horse a few days ago. Part of the jawbone had to be removed in consequence.

The Portland ball team is now playing with the tail enders, the Seattle team. If Portland fails to win this series, it had better tackle some of the country amateur teams.

Andrew Jennings, a Lebanon saloon man, formerly of this city, has been fined $50 for violating the local option law. This is the first fine for violation of this law in Linn county, so far as we have learned.

Kaspar Vandrandt, former proprietor of Depot hotel, Albany, was shot by a business opponent in Portland on Tuesday morning. He was shot twice, one taking effect in his groin, ranging upward. His condition is said to be critical.

There are now in the asylum for the insane at Salem 1,355 inmates. To take care of these crazy people 173 officers and employes are necessary. The payroll for the month of April amounted to $6,634, and the entire cost of the institution for the same period was $8,847.

Lebanon saloon men are thinking of erecting buildings in the residence district (North Lebanon) for saloon purposes. It will be remembered that South Lebanon, where all the business houses are located, went "dry" at the election last fall, while North Lebanon voted "wet."

Little Miss Birdie Brenner has prepared a number of May baskets, one for each of her little girl friends. The baskets were filled with flowers and showed remarkable artistic skill for one so young. They were distributed as a surprise among the little ladies Monday evening.

A petition signed by subscribers of the Pacific States Telephone Co. at Shedd, Halsey, Brownsville, Lebanon, Scio, Crabtree and Jefferson, asking for a reduction in the rate between these points and Albany has resulted in the company making a rate of 15 cents to subscribers. This also applies to Albany subscribers switching to any of these points.

Tuesday the Jordan freight team loaded up with iron piping, to be used at that place in the erection of a skimming station which the Hazelwood Creamery Co. of Portland is erecting. A better location for a skimming station could not be found in the county, and the section of country thereabouts can not be surpassed in the valley for dairy purposes.

Portland's "North End" is to be moved to the vicinity of the entrance gates of the Lewis and Clark fair. At least some 15 to 20 saloon licenses have been issued for saloons in that neighborhood. Now a mighty roar is being made about the matter by the decently disposed Portlanders. It is a pretty safe opinion to state that every calculation is being made by everybody down there to allow no one to take any money in their pockets to their homes if it can be prevented in any way.

Dr. Prill was in Albany Tuesday night.

W. H. Stone is in Albany for a brief visit.—Herald, May 3.

Everybody who desires work need not be idle about Scio now.

The Norris & Rowe circus is billed to appear in Albany next Tuesday.

Wesely Bros., this week, shipped a carload of flax seed to Portland.

A Corvallis man recently shipped two settings of hen eggs to Honolulu.

Eugene Bosse, the flax man, came up Tuesday to start the flax ball rolling properly here.

L. W. Brown of The Dalles was on our streets yesterday shaking hands with his friends.

Scio has an excellent orchestra. Under the leadership of Joe Wesely, some very sweet music is discoursed.

Frank and Art Shelton returned from Albany Tuesday, where they had been engaged several days on a contract for painting.

If the Lewis and Clark fair is the cause of the remarkable fine spring we have had, we ought to have such fairs frequently.

George Phillips, of tonsorial fame, came up from Woodburn Wednesday for a day or two's visit with relatives and friends.

Miss Stella M. Turnidge of Scio came up from Salem Sunday and left for her home yesterday morning.—Tuesday's Albany Herald.

Thirty-five Italians, who have been at work on the Mill City logging railway, struck for higher wages and were discharged in consequence.

Variety is one of the spices of the gardener's life. Plant and cultivate with the intention of having fresh vegetables as many months in the year as possible.

The seven o'clock whistles of the numerous sawmills in this vicinity would indicate to the stranger that business is going on somewhere about this illahe.

In the feeding of calves a safe rule is to give just what they will lick up clean. This, however, doesn't necessarily mean a tablespoonful, but there shouldn't be any food left after the calves have satisfied their appetites.

If any of our readers can produce a particularly fine specimen of anything produced on the farm, garden or orchard, the Linn county commissioners would be glad to place it with the county exhibit at the fair.

Hon. Allen Parker of Yaquina is dead. Mr. Parker was at one time prominent in Linn county politics, having been elected sheriff for one term. He leaves a wife and several grown sons and daughters to mourn his loss.

The Stayton Mail reports with confidence that a woolen mill will soon be erected in that city. This, if true, is another evidence that an electric railroad will soon be built from Salem through that city and Scio on to Lebanon and south.

Our business men all report that business is looking up. With the good price for wool now being offered, with the price of stock improving and with the splendid crop prospect ahead, Lewis and Clark year promises now to be prosperous for every one.

An Albany man recently sold his pet bear to a Chicago party (the home of bulls and bears) for twenty dollars. Scio's remaining bear might be sold for a like amount. If sold at this figure he would be more remunerative than his mate, of which mention is made elsewhere.

Dr. E. L. Irvine of Portland, an old-time Linn county boy, because of the use of cocaine went on the warpath a few days ago. He was suppressed with some difficulty and danger to the arresting officers. Upon the promise to be good and to leave the city, he was released without punishment.

Caleb Powers, at one time secretary of state for Kentucky, is now being tried for the fourth time for complicity in the murder of Gov. Goebel. In each of the former trials he was convicted, but was given a new trial in each instance by the supreme court of that state because of failure to comply with some technical point of law.

Oregon merchants will have a good remedy against many of their bad debtors after May 18, when the law passed by the last legislature regarding the exemption of wages from execution will go into effect. This act amends the law by making one-half the earnings of the debtor subject to execution proceedings if the debt be for family expenses.

If you contemplate visiting any place away from home worthy of note, or if you have relatives or friends visiting you, call us up by telephone or drop us a note and tell us about it. We do not wish to slight any one in noting the comings and goings of the people of this vicinity. If anything transpires out of the ordinary at your homes or in your neighborhood, kindly tell us about it. We want all the local news we can get. We want to make the News interesting to all. If you will help us, we can do so.

One of our citizens, Wednesday, purchased some potatoes at Wesely Bros. and placed them in a wagon that he supposed would pass near his house. The man who was driving the team evidently misunderstood the destination of the potatoes and did not drive out the road that our citizen expected he would. The result of the matter was, the potatoes went to the country. Now our citizen is kept busy explaining matters. We promised to say nothing about the matter, so will refer the inquisitive to an ex sheriff of our town for particulars.

A. J. Layton of Lebanon was visiting friends in this city this week.

Wool is quoted at 25 cents per pound. A pool at Dallas was sold this week at 25½c.

J. S. Morris and daughters, Misses Bessie and Ollie, went over to Albany yesterday.

A California legislator has been sentenced to the penitentiary for five years for accepting a bribe.

Mrs. M. C. Gill went down to Portland last Saturday to visit her sister, Mrs. Dr. Cole, for a few days.

It is rumored that a wedding is soon to occur, in which two of Scio's popular young people will play star parts.

Jeffries, world champion of the prize ring, will quit both ring and stage on May 15 and go into business with his brother.

Jack Jones went to McMinnville yesterday, called there by the illness of his daughter Gladys, who was visiting her aunt at that place.

Our baseball boys have commenced daily practice and will round themselves into shape in a short time. We may then expect some good games.

When you sell your wool, don't forget to call in and settle any arrears you may have with the News. We need the money or we would not ask for it.

Guglielmo, the Italian, who murdered a girl in Portland because she would not marry him, will be executed at the penitentiary at noon today.

Sixty-two years ago a provisional government was organized at Champoeg, Marion county. The anniversary was appropriately observed at that place Tuesday.

Henry E. Burmester, Jr.'s picture appeared in Wednesday's Oregonian as a member of a class of 41 which graduated from the dental college in Portland Tuesday night.

A war of words occurred at the post office Tuesday over a trivial matter between two young ladies that was neither creditable nor ladylike to the participants. Don't do so any more, girls.

Otto C. Clelan, son of John Clelan, Albany, died Wednesday night. He was taken sick about four months ago with typhoid fever. He partially recovered from this sickness when he was attacked with peritonitis. On Monday last it was decided that an operation was necessary as an only chance for recovery. In his weakened condition he could not withstand the effects of the operation, and passed away as stated. He leaves a wife and two or three small children to mourn his loss.

Bagged a Cougar.

Last week the 13-year-old daughter of C. T. Craft, of near Lacomb, while out hunting turkey nests, discovered a large cougar under a log. When discovered, the cougar leaped upon the log but soon moved off slowly into the brush. Miss Craft at once reported the presence of the huge cat and soon all the men and dogs in the neighborhood were on hand with blood in their eyes. The dogs soon struck the trail and put Mr. Cougar up a tree. Charley Craft with his favorite 44-calibre Winchester, did the rest. The cougar measured from tip to tip 9 feet, and in height 2 feet 8 inches. Those present at the death were: John A. White, C. H. Rockwell, Lauson Craft, C. P. Hassler, H. J. Craft, A. Rockwell, Lee Gaines, Orin Hassler, Dick Craft, H. R. Hassler, John Rockwell, W. T. Hassler, Holt Craft and C. T. Craft.

Woodburn Bank Robbed.

Wednesday afternoon two masked men entered the Woodburn bank and held up the cashier and stenographer, who were present, raked into a sack all the coin and currency in sight ($3,000) and at once departed, soon making the brush. The alarm was at once given and men in a few minutes were after the outlaws, and for a short distance a running fight was had, though without result, except injuring a horse of the pursuing party. Bloodhounds under the control of Deputy Sheriff Minto and posse took up the hunt yesterday morning.

New Firm.

Fred Jones and Guy McKnight have associated themselves together as a business firm to engage in the butcher business. They have leased the building formerly occupied by Ben Neal as a saloon and have fitted it up in a very neat, tasty manner. The new firm opened the shop for business on Tuesday. It is their purpose to at once put a wagon on the road to supply farmers, sawmills, etc., with meat. They solicit a fair share of the patronage of the public.

New Ball Grounds.

A new baseball diamond is being prepared in John Wesely's pasture, just at the edge of town. It will be more convenient than the old grounds, because closer in and also sidewalks reach nearly to them. A ball team is being organized, which the boys say will be a winner. Scio has always been noted as having a winning ball team among amateurs, and there is no reason why she should not continue to sustain the name.

WESELY BROS.

Died.

PROPST—At the residence of his mother, after an illness of two months, Archie Propst, aged a little more than 20 years.

Archie was a model boy, well liked by all who knew him. He bore his long sickness with patience. He was getting along nicely and well on the road to recovery, when he took cold and pneumonia was the result. In his debilitated condition he was unable to withstand the attack, and in a short time laid down the burden of life that had proven too heavy. The interment took place at Providence cemetery and was well attended by all his friends and neighbors.

May 24 Selected.

All persons who are interested, or who are willing to donate a day's work, are requested to meet at Franklin Butte cemetery on May 24, at 8 a. m. sharp. Bring tools with you, such as grubbing hoes, mowing scythes, etc.
