

HOUSEKEEPING LINENS

We offer for the week beginning May 15th great values in Linens of our own importation from Belfast. The qualities usually sold at from 65c to 90c we will sell during this sale for 50c per yard. The 12x18s and 12x20s Damask, usually sold from $1 to $1.50, we will sell for 85c per yard. We want you to see the values we are offering and we want you to get acquainted with the Housekeeping Linens we are importing.

FAIRBANKS' GOLD DUST WASHING POWDER

Three-ounce package of Fairbanks' Gold Dust Washing Powder for 15 cents this week.

S. E. YOUNG & SON,

Albany, Oregon.

Pure Prepared Paint

Now is the time to brighten the appearance of your home with a fresh coat of paint. Drop in and let us present you with one of our new color cards. Prices and quality guaranteed by

PEERY, THE DRUGGIST

Hats-Hats-Hats

Mens and Boys Hats.

We have 'em, of the latest styles and at prices that will suit all. Also a nice New Line of

SHOES

OF ALL KINDS AND

Dress Goods

Galore. We have the Goods: You have de mon. Call and inspect our stock.

Hibler & Gill Co.

CENTENNIAL NOTES.

Hit the Trail at the Lewis and Clark Exposition, opening in Portland June 1. Saturday, August 12, has been selected as Aeronautic Day at the Lewis and Clark Exposition.

Missouri Day at the Lewis and Clark Exposition has been changed from August 12 to September 13. Gov. Joseph W. Folk of the "Show Me" state will attend.

Colorado will have a building at the Lewis and Clark Exposition. The structure is now well under way and will be completed by June 1. While small, it is one of the most attractive of the state buildings.

Two new concessions are announced for the Trail—the Old Southern Plantation and the Major Maze. Work upon this amusing thoroughfare is progressing favorably and all the concessions will be ready to receive the public before opening day.

Nearly all of the exhibits for the Palace of Manufactures, Liberal Arts and Varied Industries at the Lewis and Clark Exposition are installed. The installation in other buildings is progressing rapidly.

Fourteen organ recitals will be held in the Auditorium at the Lewis and Clark Exposition between June 10 and September 30. All recitals will be given at night and will be arranged by Professor H. W. Goodrich, organist of St. David's Episcopal church. Prominent organists will participate.

Delegates to the convention of the Order of Redway, Condules, two thousand strong, with wives and families, were in attendance at the Lewis and Clark Exposition grounds, Sunday, May 14. A social concert occurred during the noon hour, after which the delegates retired to the American Inn, where they were the guests of the Exposition. Royal Chinook salmon, fresh from the streams of Oregon, was served. The remainder of the menu consisted of salads, cold meats, sandwiches of various sorts, coffee, milk, ice cream and assorted cakes.

Wool is worth 27 cents per pound in the open market.

The Referendum Wins

Seven thousand signatures to the referendum petitions have been secured, which have been certified to by the county clerks. Of this number, Multnomah furnished 1640, Linn 1300, Yamhill 1175, Polk 963, Marion 480, Union 400, Clackamas 382, and from other counties lesser numbers, nearly every county in the state being represented. The Multnomah county clerk did not certify to the petitions from that county in the way directed by law, so that they had to be returned for correction. The referendum managers made calculations so that some such error might be made, so were on hand at Salem two or three days prior to the date of expiration of the ninety days as required by the law. As the margin is quite safe even without Multnomah's defective petitions, it is an assured fact that the big appropriation bill will be held up until the first of June of next year, when, let us hope, a large majority of the voters will ratify the action of the petitioners.

Baseball Season Opens

Last Sunday, at the invitation of the Scio baseball club, the Barrett ball team of near Tallman was present, and the two teams played a closely contested practice match game. Several of Scio's best players were absent, and their places were supplied with players that necessarily weakened the team. The Barrett were also short their usual pitcher. Taken altogether, the teams were evenly matched, the score standing 16 to 16. In error honors were about even. The Scio boys seemed the most skillful in fielding. The following are the names of the Barrett, all of whom seemed to be gentlemen: Ed, Fred and James McDaniel, Lawrence Perry, Ray Miller, Cleve Kowler, Chester Myers, Leighton Davis, Walter Woods and Jack and Frank Barrett. Following is the score by innings: Barrett—0 3 2 0 2 4 5—16. Scio—3 0 0 6 3 0 0 4—16.

Evans, the optician, passed through Scio Wednesday on his way to Mill City.

LOCAL

Johny Gill reached home from Portland on Monday.

Evans, the optician, 16 years' practice, will visit Scio soon.

The building of a new brick bank building has been commenced in Jefferson.

W. V. Merrill, of P. S. telephone Co., has been doing business in Scio this week.

Dr. A. G. Prill went over to Albany on Wednesday evening's C. & E. train on business visit.

Jas. A. Tucker and wife went to Portland last Friday for a few days' visit with relatives.

We are told that the Jefferson creamery is now manufacturing 1000 pounds of butter daily.

Considerable improvement is contemplated upon the Scio-Jefferson road near the Greene bridge.

The Albany local passenger train will extend its run as far south as Eugene, commencing June 1.

J. M. Morrison, the Shelburn merchant, has sold his mercantile establishment to a Mr. Hunt.

As will be observed elsewhere, our public schools will close for the summer vacation next week.

Wood commands the best price for the past 30 years. The flock masters are in luck this year, surely.

Our men have quit making the slab ties, as too many were called out to make their manufacture profitable.

Scio is improving. Jack Hilyen is building a new barn and W. A. Ewing is erecting a woodshed addition to his home.

Uncle Bill Hilyen of Albany came over Saturday to make some improvements upon his lot in Franklin Butte cemetery.

The fine tract for the Linn county both at the Lewis and Clark fair was shipped last Monday. It is said to be a fine piece of work.

If you ship cream to the Silvertown creamery, it will arrive in a sweeter and better condition. The result is higher test and higher price.

Rev. Mount has accepted a call to be the regular minister of the Baptist church in this city and is moving into the Baptist parsonage.

The K. V. Hall lumber company are engaged in running tie down Thompson creek. Several thousand are now in the boom just above the dam.

John Wesely drove over to Jefferson early Sunday morning in time to catch the Albany local for Portland for a two or three days' business trip.

Wm. Brenner is embarking in the poultry business. He has now hatched out about 300 little white Leghorn chicks, pure bloods, that are beautiful, most of them from prize winners.

Mrs. Dora Davis, formerly a resident of Albany, died in Portland last Saturday night. The remains were taken to Harrisburg for interment. Quite a number of Albany people accompanied the corpse to the cemetery.

Buggies and Wagons—Yes I have them, of the best quality and at prices that will suit everybody. If you want anything in this line, see Chas. Wesely, the horsefancier, and he will fit you out in short order.

The Hancockmen wooden mill wants Albany to subscribe for $12,000 in stock before the company will agree to rebuild the mill at that place. In other words, the company wants Albany to put up the building and it will do the rest.

The Multnomah Jeffersonians are now supplied with liquid refreshments at gaiton houses located just outside the corporate limits of the city, one just at the west end of the bridge in Linn and the other just north of the town in Marion.

The S. P. R. R. is about to commence bridging the river at Springfield and laying the track necessary to connect the two lines from Springfield to Henderson. When completed, it is thought a part of the freight traffic will be diverted from the main line to the Woodburn-Natron line.

Tuesday morning Johny Gill's dog managed to get a dose of strychnine. For a short time it looked as though he was bound for the bourne to which all good dogs are supposed to go, but prompt administering of antidotes saved him to wag his tail for a while longer.

Tuesday we visited the fax breaking mill in this city, now being operated by Eugene Basse. There we found six or seven men engaged in converting fax straw into tow, of which several tons are on hand ready for shipment. There is enough straw on hand to keep the mill in operation for several weeks.

Sheep raisers within and near Scio made up a pool of about 2000 fleeces. Last Friday it was offered for sale. M. Senders of Albany was the successful bidder, his bid being 27 1/2 cents per pound. This, we believe, is the highest price paid for wool in the past twenty years. The wool is to be delivered at West Scio on June 15.

Mrs. Elizabeth Blain, one of the most respected pioneer women of Linn county, died at her home in Albany on the evening of the 19th instant at the advanced age of 85 years. She came to Oregon as the wife of a missionary (Rev. Wilson Blain) in 1848, and has resided in Linn county since 1850. She leaves a family of six children, who are of our most respected citizens. L. E., of Albany, being the eldest.

An Albany Sign

The Albany Commercial Club recently had a very pretty three-cornered sign painted by E. C. Danneke and placed at the depot, where it is being changed around preparatory to the selection of a permanent place, over which there seems to be some dispute. It reads as follows:

Albany, population 5,000, at the top of Linn county, rich farm, dairy country, fruit lands, extensive water power, great timber and mining resources, on the left.

Albany, a railroad center, open river to the sea, a manufacturing point, superior second advantages. Address Albany Commercial Club, E. C. Roberts, secretary. In the center is a hub with radii as follows: to six points—Portland, Yagumo, San Francisco, Brownsville, Lebanon and Mill City—Albany Democrat.

Prof. H. M. Crooks of Lisbon, O., has been elected president of Albany college, to succeed late President Wallace Howe Lee.

Jas. A. Tucker has become weary of handling house life, so he has rented the Geo. Phillips cottage and is fitting it up for housekeeping.

If glasses are correct, they will make your sight strong, sharp and perfect. Our glasses are always correct. Evans Optical Co. of Portland, Oregon.

J. A. Hilyen, a penitentiary guard, escaped for a few days' liberty last Wednesday. He came up Wednesday evening for a few days' visit among old Scio friends and relatives.

Rev. Father Metzger, the Catholic priest in charge of the Albany church, died at his home in that city on Wednesday morning. Father Metzger was very popular and well liked by Protestants as well as Catholics.

From all reports, Judge De Haven is a man noted for his sterling honesty and integrity and with a mind rich in legal knowledge. The land fraud investigations will probably be as safely conducted by him as by the late Judge Bellinger.

It is now legal for a court to sentence the wife beater to be tied up to the whipping post and receive no more than twenty lashes administered by the authorized officers. All brutes, at times, need correction with the lash, and wife beater are no exception to the rule.

The portage railroad is reported to now be completed and ready for business. This, so far as we know, is the first instance of a state embarking in the railroad business. Let us hope that it will be managed in a way that will be profitable to both the state and those who patronize it.

It didn't get the Potatoes. It will be remembered that an item was in the News of last week giving an account of how a bucket of potatoes went to the wrong destination. It now transpires that the potatoes belonged to L. C. Dickey. Monday, L. W. Pomeroy was going to live out to the mill, where the potatoes were taken by mistake, and invited Mr. Dickey to go along and get them. When they had cleverly got started, the horse they were driving became frightened, and despite all that Mr. Pomeroy could do, run the buggy into and collided with a wagon they were passing. Mr. Dickey was thrown out of the seat and fell to the ground, but in doing so one of his feet was caught in some way, and he was dragged several yards before he was able to free himself. Mr. Dickey states that it was about as close a call to being badly hurt as he has ever had. As it is, he states it may be necessary to do some skin grafting to replace the tissue that he lost.

It will be remembered that an item was in the News of last week giving an account of how a bucket of potatoes went to the wrong destination. It now transpires that the potatoes belonged to L. C. Dickey. Monday, L. W. Pomeroy was going to live out to the mill, where the potatoes were taken by mistake, and invited Mr. Dickey to go along and get them. When they had cleverly got started, the horse they were driving became frightened, and despite all that Mr. Pomeroy could do, run the buggy into and collided with a wagon they were passing. Mr. Dickey was thrown out of the seat and fell to the ground, but in doing so one of his feet was caught in some way, and he was dragged several yards before he was able to free himself. Mr. Dickey states that it was about as close a call to being badly hurt as he has ever had. As it is, he states it may be necessary to do some skin grafting to replace the tissue that he lost.

It will be remembered that an item was in the News of last week giving an account of how a bucket of potatoes went to the wrong destination. It now transpires that the potatoes belonged to L. C. Dickey. Monday, L. W. Pomeroy was going to live out to the mill, where the potatoes were taken by mistake, and invited Mr. Dickey to go along and get them. When they had cleverly got started, the horse they were driving became frightened, and despite all that Mr. Pomeroy could do, run the buggy into and collided with a wagon they were passing. Mr. Dickey was thrown out of the seat and fell to the ground, but in doing so one of his feet was caught in some way, and he was dragged several yards before he was able to free himself. Mr. Dickey states that it was about as close a call to being badly hurt as he has ever had. As it is, he states it may be necessary to do some skin grafting to replace the tissue that he lost.

It will be remembered that an item was in the News of last week giving an account of how a bucket of potatoes went to the wrong destination. It now transpires that the potatoes belonged to L. C. Dickey. Monday, L. W. Pomeroy was going to live out to the mill, where the potatoes were taken by mistake, and invited Mr. Dickey to go along and get them. When they had cleverly got started, the horse they were driving became frightened, and despite all that Mr. Pomeroy could do, run the buggy into and collided with a wagon they were passing. Mr. Dickey was thrown out of the seat and fell to the ground, but in doing so one of his feet was caught in some way, and he was dragged several yards before he was able to free himself. Mr. Dickey states that it was about as close a call to being badly hurt as he has ever had. As it is, he states it may be necessary to do some skin grafting to replace the tissue that he lost.

It will be remembered that an item was in the News of last week giving an account of how a bucket of potatoes went to the wrong destination. It now transpires that the potatoes belonged to L. C. Dickey. Monday, L. W. Pomeroy was going to live out to the mill, where the potatoes were taken by mistake, and invited Mr. Dickey to go along and get them. When they had cleverly got started, the horse they were driving became frightened, and despite all that Mr. Pomeroy could do, run the buggy into and collided with a wagon they were passing. Mr. Dickey was thrown out of the seat and fell to the ground, but in doing so one of his feet was caught in some way, and he was dragged several yards before he was able to free himself. Mr. Dickey states that it was about as close a call to being badly hurt as he has ever had. As it is, he states it may be necessary to do some skin grafting to replace the tissue that he lost.

It will be remembered that an item was in the News of last week giving an account of how a bucket of potatoes went to the wrong destination. It now transpires that the potatoes belonged to L. C. Dickey. Monday, L. W. Pomeroy was going to live out to the mill, where the potatoes were taken by mistake, and invited Mr. Dickey to go along and get them. When they had cleverly got started, the horse they were driving became frightened, and despite all that Mr. Pomeroy could do, run the buggy into and collided with a wagon they were passing. Mr. Dickey was thrown out of the seat and fell to the ground, but in doing so one of his feet was caught in some way, and he was dragged several yards before he was able to free himself. Mr. Dickey states that it was about as close a call to being badly hurt as he has ever had. As it is, he states it may be necessary to do some skin grafting to replace the tissue that he lost.

It will be remembered that an item was in the News of last week giving an account of how a bucket of potatoes went to the wrong destination. It now transpires that the potatoes belonged to L. C. Dickey. Monday, L. W. Pomeroy was going to live out to the mill, where the potatoes were taken by mistake, and invited Mr. Dickey to go along and get them. When they had cleverly got started, the horse they were driving became frightened, and despite all that Mr. Pomeroy could do, run the buggy into and collided with a wagon they were passing. Mr. Dickey was thrown out of the seat and fell to the ground, but in doing so one of his feet was caught in some way, and he was dragged several yards before he was able to free himself. Mr. Dickey states that it was about as close a call to being badly hurt as he has ever had. As it is, he states it may be necessary to do some skin grafting to replace the tissue that he lost.

It will be remembered that an item was in the News of last week giving an account of how a bucket of potatoes went to the wrong destination. It now transpires that the potatoes belonged to L. C. Dickey. Monday, L. W. Pomeroy was going to live out to the mill, where the potatoes were taken by mistake, and invited Mr. Dickey to go along and get them. When they had cleverly got started, the horse they were driving became frightened, and despite all that Mr. Pomeroy could do, run the buggy into and collided with a wagon they were passing. Mr. Dickey was thrown out of the seat and fell to the ground, but in doing so one of his feet was caught in some way, and he was dragged several yards before he was able to free himself. Mr. Dickey states that it was about as close a call to being badly hurt as he has ever had. As it is, he states it may be necessary to do some skin grafting to replace the tissue that he lost.

It will be remembered that an item was in the News of last week giving an account of how a bucket of potatoes went to the wrong destination. It now transpires that the potatoes belonged to L. C. Dickey. Monday, L. W. Pomeroy was going to live out to the mill, where the potatoes were taken by mistake, and invited Mr. Dickey to go along and get them. When they had cleverly got started, the horse they were driving became frightened, and despite all that Mr. Pomeroy could do, run the buggy into and collided with a wagon they were passing. Mr. Dickey was thrown out of the seat and fell to the ground, but in doing so one of his feet was caught in some way, and he was dragged several yards before he was able to free himself. Mr. Dickey states that it was about as close a call to being badly hurt as he has ever had. As it is, he states it may be necessary to do some skin grafting to replace the tissue that he lost.

It will be remembered that an item was in the News of last week giving an account of how a bucket of potatoes went to the wrong destination. It now transpires that the potatoes belonged to L. C. Dickey. Monday, L. W. Pomeroy was going to live out to the mill, where the potatoes were taken by mistake, and invited Mr. Dickey to go along and get them. When they had cleverly got started, the horse they were driving became frightened, and despite all that Mr. Pomeroy could do, run the buggy into and collided with a wagon they were passing. Mr. Dickey was thrown out of the seat and fell to the ground, but in doing so one of his feet was caught in some way, and he was dragged several yards before he was able to free himself. Mr. Dickey states that it was about as close a call to being badly hurt as he has ever had. As it is, he states it may be necessary to do some skin grafting to replace the tissue that he lost.

It will be remembered that an item was in the News of last week giving an account of how a bucket of potatoes went to the wrong destination. It now transpires that the potatoes belonged to L. C. Dickey. Monday, L. W. Pomeroy was going to live out to the mill, where the potatoes were taken by mistake, and invited Mr. Dickey to go along and get them. When they had cleverly got started, the horse they were driving became frightened, and despite all that Mr. Pomeroy could do, run the buggy into and collided with a wagon they were passing. Mr. Dickey was thrown out of the seat and fell to the ground, but in doing so one of his feet was caught in some way, and he was dragged several yards before he was able to free himself. Mr. Dickey states that it was about as close a call to being badly hurt as he has ever had. As it is, he states it may be necessary to do some skin grafting to replace the tissue that he lost.

It will be remembered that an item was in the News of last week giving an account of how a bucket of potatoes went to the wrong destination. It now transpires that the potatoes belonged to L. C. Dickey. Monday, L. W. Pomeroy was going to live out to the mill, where the potatoes were taken by mistake, and invited Mr. Dickey to go along and get them. When they had cleverly got started, the horse they were driving became frightened, and despite all that Mr. Pomeroy could do, run the buggy into and collided with a wagon they were passing. Mr. Dickey was thrown out of the seat and fell to the ground, but in doing so one of his feet was caught in some way, and he was dragged several yards before he was able to free himself. Mr. Dickey states that it was about as close a call to being badly hurt as he has ever had. As it is, he states it may be necessary to do some skin grafting to replace the tissue that he lost.

It will be remembered that an item was in the News of last week giving an account of how a bucket of potatoes went to the wrong destination. It now transpires that the potatoes belonged to L. C. Dickey. Monday, L. W. Pomeroy was going to live out to the mill, where the potatoes were taken by mistake, and invited Mr. Dickey to go along and get them. When they had cleverly got started, the horse they were driving became frightened, and despite all that Mr. Pomeroy could do, run the buggy into and collided with a wagon they were passing. Mr. Dickey was thrown out of the seat and fell to the ground, but in doing so one of his feet was caught in some way, and he was dragged several yards before he was able to free himself. Mr. Dickey states that it was about as close a call to being badly hurt as he has ever had. As it is, he states it may be necessary to do some skin grafting to replace the tissue that he lost.

It will be remembered that an item was in the News of last week giving an account of how a bucket of potatoes went to the wrong destination. It now transpires that the potatoes belonged to L. C. Dickey. Monday, L. W. Pomeroy was going to live out to the mill, where the potatoes were taken by mistake, and invited Mr. Dickey to go along and get them. When they had cleverly got started, the horse they were driving became frightened, and despite all that Mr. Pomeroy could do, run the buggy into and collided with a wagon they were passing. Mr. Dickey was thrown out of the seat and fell to the ground, but in doing so one of his feet was caught in some way, and he was dragged several yards before he was able to free himself. Mr. Dickey states that it was about as close a call to being badly hurt as he has ever had. As it is, he states it may be necessary to do some skin grafting to replace the tissue that he lost.

It will be remembered that an item was in the News of last week giving an account of how a bucket of potatoes went to the wrong destination. It now transpires that the potatoes belonged to L. C. Dickey. Monday, L. W. Pomeroy was going to live out to the mill, where the potatoes were taken by mistake, and invited Mr. Dickey to go along and get them. When they had cleverly got started, the horse they were driving became frightened, and despite all that Mr. Pomeroy could do, run the buggy into and collided with a wagon they were passing. Mr. Dickey was thrown out of the seat and fell to the ground, but in doing so one of his feet was caught in some way, and he was dragged several yards before he was able to free himself. Mr. Dickey states that it was about as close a call to being badly hurt as he has ever had. As it is, he states it may be necessary to do some skin grafting to replace the tissue that he lost.

It will be remembered that an item was in the News of last week giving an account of how a bucket of potatoes went to the wrong destination. It now transpires that the potatoes belonged to L. C. Dickey. Monday, L. W. Pomeroy was going to live out to the mill, where the potatoes were taken by mistake, and invited Mr. Dickey to go along and get them. When they had cleverly got started, the horse they were driving became frightened, and despite all that Mr. Pomeroy could do, run the buggy into and collided with a wagon they were passing. Mr. Dickey was thrown out of the seat and fell to the ground, but in doing so one of his feet was caught in some way, and he was dragged several yards before he was able to free himself. Mr. Dickey states that it was about as close a call to being badly hurt as he has ever had. As it is, he states it may be necessary to do some skin grafting to replace the tissue that he lost.

It will be remembered that an item was in the News of last week giving an account of how a bucket of potatoes went to the wrong destination. It now transpires that the potatoes belonged to L. C. Dickey. Monday, L. W. Pomeroy was going to live out to the mill, where the potatoes were taken by mistake, and invited Mr. Dickey to go along and get them. When they had cleverly got started, the horse they were driving became frightened, and despite all that Mr. Pomeroy could do, run the buggy into and collided with a wagon they were passing. Mr. Dickey was thrown out of the seat and fell to the ground, but in doing so one of his feet was caught in some way, and he was dragged several yards before he was able to free himself. Mr. Dickey states that it was about as close a call to being badly hurt as he has ever had. As it is, he states it may be necessary to do some skin grafting to replace the tissue that he lost.

It will be remembered that an item was in the News of last week giving an account of how a bucket of potatoes went to the wrong destination. It now transpires that the potatoes belonged to L. C. Dickey. Monday, L. W. Pomeroy was going to live out to the mill, where the potatoes were taken by mistake, and invited Mr. Dickey to go along and get them. When they had cleverly got started, the horse they were driving became frightened, and despite all that Mr. Pomeroy could do, run the buggy into and collided with a wagon they were passing. Mr. Dickey was thrown out of the seat and fell to the ground, but in doing so one of his feet was caught in some way, and he was dragged several yards before he was able to free himself. Mr. Dickey states that it was about as close a call to being badly hurt as he has ever had. As it is, he states it may be necessary to do some skin grafting to replace the tissue that he lost.

It will be remembered that an item was in the News of last week giving an account of how a bucket of potatoes went to the wrong destination. It now transpires that the potatoes belonged to L. C. Dickey. Monday, L. W. Pomeroy was going to live out to the mill, where the potatoes were taken by mistake, and invited Mr. Dickey to go along and get them. When they had cleverly got started, the horse they were driving became frightened, and despite all that Mr. Pomeroy could do, run the buggy into and collided with a wagon they were passing. Mr. Dickey was thrown out of the seat and fell to the ground, but in doing so one of his feet was caught in some way, and he was dragged several yards before he was able to free himself. Mr. Dickey states that it was about as close a call to being badly hurt as he has ever had. As it is, he states it may be necessary to do some skin grafting to replace the tissue that he lost.

It will be remembered that an item was in the News of last week giving an account of how a bucket of potatoes went to the wrong destination. It now transpires that the potatoes belonged to L. C. Dickey. Monday, L. W. Pomeroy was going to live out to the mill, where the potatoes were taken by mistake, and invited Mr. Dickey to go along and get them. When they had cleverly got started, the horse they were driving became frightened, and despite all that Mr. Pomeroy could do, run the buggy into and collided with a wagon they were passing. Mr. Dickey was thrown out of the seat and fell to the ground, but in doing so one of his feet was caught in some way, and he was dragged several yards before he was able to free himself. Mr. Dickey states that it was about as close a call to being badly hurt as he has ever had. As it is, he states it may be necessary to do some skin grafting to replace the tissue that he lost.

It will be remembered that an item was in the News of last week giving an account of how a bucket of potatoes went to the wrong destination. It now transpires that the potatoes belonged to L. C. Dickey. Monday, L. W. Pomeroy was going to live out to the mill, where the potatoes were taken by mistake, and invited Mr. Dickey to go along and get them. When they had cleverly got started, the horse they were driving became frightened, and despite all that Mr. Pomeroy could do, run the buggy into and collided with a wagon they were passing. Mr. Dickey was thrown out of the seat and fell to the ground, but in doing so one of his feet was caught in some way, and he was dragged several yards before he was able to free himself. Mr. Dickey states that it was about as close a call to being badly hurt as he has ever had. As it is, he states it may be necessary to do some skin grafting to replace the tissue that he lost.

It will be remembered that an item was in the News of last week giving an account of how a bucket of potatoes went to the wrong destination. It now transpires that the potatoes belonged to L. C. Dickey. Monday, L. W. Pomeroy was going to live out to the mill, where the potatoes were taken by mistake, and invited Mr. Dickey to go along and get them. When they had cleverly got started, the horse they were driving became frightened, and despite all that Mr. Pomeroy could do, run the buggy into and collided with a wagon they were passing. Mr. Dickey was thrown out of the seat and fell to the ground, but in doing so one of his feet was caught in some way, and he was dragged several yards before he was able to free himself. Mr. Dickey states that it was about as close a call to being badly hurt as he has ever had. As it is, he states it may be necessary to do some skin grafting to replace the tissue that he lost.

It will be remembered that an item was in the News of last week giving an account of how a bucket of potatoes went to the wrong destination. It now transpires that the potatoes belonged to L. C. Dickey. Monday, L. W. Pomeroy was going to live out to the mill, where the potatoes were taken by mistake, and invited Mr. Dickey to go along and get them. When they had cleverly got started, the horse they were driving became frightened, and despite all that Mr. Pomeroy could do, run the buggy into and collided with a wagon they were passing. Mr. Dickey was thrown out of the seat and fell to the ground, but in doing so one of his feet was caught in some way, and he was dragged several yards before he was able to free himself. Mr. Dickey states that it was about as close a call to being badly hurt as he has ever had. As it is, he states it may be necessary to do some skin grafting to replace the tissue that he lost.

It will be remembered that an item was in the News of last week giving an account of how a bucket of potatoes went to the wrong destination. It now transpires that the potatoes belonged to L. C. Dickey. Monday, L. W. Pomeroy was going to live out to the mill, where the potatoes were taken by mistake, and invited Mr. Dickey to go along and get them. When they had cleverly got started, the horse they were driving became frightened, and despite all that Mr. Pomeroy could do, run the buggy into and collided with a wagon they were passing. Mr. Dickey was thrown out of the seat and fell to the ground, but in doing so one of his feet was caught in some way, and he was dragged several yards before he was able to free himself. Mr. Dickey states that it was about as close a call to being badly hurt as he has ever had. As it is, he states it may be necessary to do some skin grafting to replace the tissue that he lost.

It will be remembered that an item was in the News of last week giving an account of how a bucket of potatoes went to the wrong destination. It now transpires that the potatoes belonged to L. C. Dickey. Monday, L. W. Pomeroy was going to live out to the mill, where the potatoes were taken by mistake, and invited Mr. Dickey to go along and get them. When they had cleverly got started, the horse they were driving became frightened, and despite all that Mr. Pomeroy could do, run the buggy into and collided with a wagon they were passing. Mr. Dickey was thrown out of the seat and fell to the ground, but in doing so one of his feet was caught in some way, and he was dragged several yards before he was able to free himself. Mr. Dickey states that it was about as close a call to being badly hurt as he has ever had. As it is, he states it may be necessary to do some skin grafting to replace the tissue that he lost.

It will be remembered that an item was in the News of last week giving an account of how a bucket of potatoes went to the wrong destination. It now transpires that the potatoes belonged to L. C. Dickey. Monday, L. W. Pomeroy was going to live out to the mill, where the potatoes were taken by mistake, and invited Mr. Dickey to go along and get them. When they had cleverly got started, the horse they were driving became frightened, and despite all that Mr. Pomeroy could do, run the buggy into and collided with a wagon they were passing. Mr. Dickey was thrown out of the seat and fell to the ground, but in doing so one of his feet was caught in some way, and he was dragged several yards before he was able to free himself. Mr. Dickey states that it was about as close a call to being badly hurt as he has ever had. As it is, he states it may be necessary to do some skin grafting to replace the tissue that he lost.

It will be remembered that an item was in the News of last week giving an account of how a bucket of potatoes went to the wrong destination. It now transpires that the potatoes belonged to L. C. Dickey. Monday, L. W. Pomeroy was going to live out to the mill, where the potatoes were taken by mistake, and invited Mr. Dickey to go along and get them. When they had cleverly got started, the horse they were driving became frightened, and despite all that Mr. Pomeroy could do, run the buggy into and collided with a wagon they were passing. Mr. Dickey was thrown out of the seat and fell to the ground, but in doing so one of his feet was caught in some way, and he was dragged several yards before he was able to free himself. Mr. Dickey states that it was about as close a call to being badly hurt as he has ever had. As it is, he states it may be necessary to do some skin grafting to replace the tissue that he lost.

It will be remembered that an item was in the News of last week giving an account of how a bucket of potatoes went to the wrong destination. It now transpires that the potatoes belonged to L. C. Dickey. Monday, L. W. Pomeroy was going to live out to the mill, where the potatoes were taken by mistake, and invited Mr. Dickey to go along and get them. When they had cleverly got started, the horse they were driving became frightened, and despite all that Mr. Pomeroy could do, run the buggy into and collided with a wagon they were passing. Mr. Dickey was thrown out of the seat and fell to the ground, but in doing so one of his feet was caught in some way, and he was dragged several yards before he was able to free himself. Mr. Dickey states that it was about as close a call to being badly hurt as he has ever had. As it is, he states it may be necessary to do some skin grafting to replace the tissue that he lost.

It will be remembered that an item was in the News of last week giving an account of how a bucket of potatoes went to the wrong destination. It now transpires that the potatoes belonged to L. C. Dickey. Monday, L. W. Pomeroy was going to live out to the mill, where the potatoes were taken by mistake, and invited Mr. Dickey to go along and get them. When they had cleverly got started, the horse they were driving became frightened, and despite all that Mr. Pomeroy could do, run the buggy into and collided with a