LOCAL

Dr. Pintler, dentist, Stayton, Oregon.

Mrs. Nellie Gunsauls, of St. Johns is visiting at the parental home.

Miss Grace Gill visited her many Salem friends, the first of this week.

Miss Ida Williams, of Oak Creek, is visiting Miss Ollis Morris this week.

Mrs. G. C. Johnston and baby, of Lacomb, were guests of Mr, and Mrs. H. S. Johnston, this week.

Haying is now on hand, that is to say, the early varieties such as clover, redtop, vetches, and mosquit grasses.

J. S. Morris has commenced harvesting his crop of loganberries. He shipped some of them to the Portland market.

W. C. Miller and family, of near Amity, Polk county, have been visating relatives in this city and Springfield, this week.

R. Shelton and wife went to Brownsville last Thursday evening to attend the Baptist Association that convened in that city.

George Daley, who went to Crook Co. last fall, arrived home, this week. He brought down a bunch of bunch grass horses with him.

John Goins, a former resident of Scio, but at present one of the R. F. D. carriers out of Albany, came over last Friday for a short visit.

Rolla Morris, who has been spending several months over on Coos bay, returned to this city, Friday. He speaks favorably of the Coos bay country.

Rev. Elmore, Brownsville's mayor-banker-preacher is conducting a series of meetings at Providence, this week. He was in Scio a short time, Tuesday.

A number of new buildings are being erected in Jefferson this summer and everything seems quite prosperous at the city on the banks of the Santiam.

The News family makes its politest bow to Miss Ollie Morris for a pail of delicious loganberries; also to N. Young, for some of his premium cowhorn turnips.

Mrs. Judge Huff, of Iola, Kansas, arrived on a thee-months viset to Mrs. H. Phillips, of this city, her daughter, last Sunday. This is their first meeting for 16 years.

Alonzo Young, who is miller in Tygh Valley, arrived in Scio last Friday, for a short visit with relatives. Lon states that he is prospering and likes it well over there.

Wm Brenner has about the nicest lot of 3-year-old steers that we have seen. He moved them to their summer range in the mountains on Tuesday. He expects to market them next fall.

M. E. Bilyeu, Linn county's janitor, rode over from Albany on a bike Saturday. He had been absent from Scio for three months. He likes the work of taking care of the court house well.

Mayor Weaver, of Philadelphia, seems to be stirring things with a sharp stick. It seems to be becoming customary to presocute and convict boodlers, bribers, land fraud thieves, etc. Good custom.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Morrow and several attended the ratification of the I. O. O. F., at Stayton, last Saturday night, on account of the election of W. H. Hobson as Grand Noble Grand of the order.

Hassler a Coffey, painters of this city, have secured the contract to paint the Christian Church at McMinnville, also a dwelling house there. They went down Saturday to commence the work. When these jobs are completed, they will return to this city to tulfill other contracts

L. W. Pomeroy informs us that he is serving his last year as road supervisor, as he expects to devote his entire time to dealing in real estate. He has done fine work on the roads this year. He is just finishing up work in the Holt neighborhood, where they have about the best gravel roads in the county. This will wind up road work till next fall.

Passed Over.

Last Sunday morning one of the reliable and substantial farmers of the Forks of the Santiem, passed to his reward. We have no better citizens then was Allen Gilkey. Honest and upright in his bealings among men, he enjoyed the confidence of everyone, both old and young.

His illness extended over a period of several weeks, which he bore with patience and fortitude. At one time he recovered sufficiently to come to Scio; but he relapsed in a short time when it soon appeared that there was no hope for recovery and that the end was not distant and that his life was gradually passing away.

The funeral occurred on Monday, at the home, being conducted by Rev. Mount; the burrial transpiring just at noon and was largely attended.

Joseph Allen Gilkey was born December 7, 1833, near Frankfort Ky. At two years of age, his parents with their children removed to Adams county Ills. In 1852 Allen crossed the plains to Oregon, soon after which he went to the California gold fields where he met with some success. Several years later he returned to Illinois via. the isthmus of Panama where in 1862 he met and married Miss Melissa E. Titus. In the fall of 1865 he moved to Kansas, remaining there to 1881 when the final move to Linn county, Oregon, was made. He selected the present home, near Scio where he lived continuously to his death which occurred on the morning of June 18, 1905. His wife preceded him to the Great Beyond, 17 years ago. He was the father of 8 children, 5 of whom 3 sons and 2 daughters survive him.

...ute.

... 2 o'clock this ... suicide at his home on Madison street by shooting himself with a 32 calibre revolver, which he had had in his home for several years. Going up stairs in his home he sat down on his bed attempting to shoot himself through the heart but missed it, the ball going under the ribs and then shot himself a glancing shot in the right temple, falling over on the bed. He was alive at press time but evidently dying.

Mrs. Birks died about a year ago, a sister about the same time and a daughter five years ago. Coming to Albany from Yamhill county he worked at the depot awhile, then bought out the dray business of Knapp Bros., which he recently sold to Elliff a Snow. He was negotiating for another business, the Snyder a Walker store today, but was undecided whether to take the proposition or go back to the farm in Yamhill county. He consulted with his cousin J. A. Howard about it, went directly home, spoke kindly to his three daughters and two little sons, went up stairs and committed the fatal act.

His oldest son, Elmer, was at S. N. Steele a Co's when notafied and the next son went to Yamhill county this morning. The girls with the aid of their brother had been keeping house.

He had had the blues some, worried a good deal and seems to have been easily discouraged.

He was a member of the W. O. W. and Circle—Democrat Tuesday.

The Bohemian Picnic.

Last Sunday we drove out to the Bohemian picnic grounds, two miles east of Scio and spent a couple of hours very pleasantly. Some hundreds of our Bohemian fellow citizens were there assembled for the purpose of social enjoyment and general visiting. And they appeared to be enjoying themselves too, both old and young. There did not appear to be any program for the morning further then some very good music by the Bohemian band and social intercourse. We noticed "Old glory" waving over a building a short distance from the grounds and upon investigation found it to be a very neat and commodious hall, erected for social and theatrical purposes. A neat stage with drop curtain is in one end of the building and gallery at the opposite end, indicated that there is many evenings of enjoyment ahead for our Bohemian friends.

The exercises of the afternoon embraced a program of literary and musical selections and legerdemain, by V. Cladek, all of which, we are told, was excellent. We understand that these picnics are to be held annually, after the crops are in and before harvest begins.

Mrs. Olive L. Kendall, of Riverside, Wash., a daughter of Newton Thomas, who formerly resided in this vicinity, was visiting relatives in Scio, the first of this week. She was accompanied by Miss Lella L. Westfall, of the same city. They came down to see the big fair in Portland. They returned to their home the last of this week.
