LOCAL

Dr. Puntler, dentist, Stayton, Oregon. Now the rush for the sea shore will commence.

Mrs. O. Sexton, of Lacombe, is quite seriously ill.

H. C. Miller was doing business in Albany last Saturday.

A number of accidents lately, but none of a serious nature however.

Today is the day for the Albany race meet, at the old fair grounds.

Quite a large number of Scioans attended the Brown camp meeting last Sunday.

Com. Brown of Shelburne, is on the sick list, due to a severe strain received while lifting.

Rev. Gill and family arrived from Spokane for a visit with home folks, in his city on Thursday.

Indications now are that women suffrage will be submitted to the voters at the next June election.

A two and half year old son of Porter Plate, of near Tangent, fell into the Colipewa, on Monday and was drowned.

Dr. and Mrs. Prill entertained the little boys of Scio, on the evening of the fourth with firecrackers, Roman candles and rockets.

Manager W. V. Merrill, of the P. S. Telephone Co., visited the Scio office last Friday on business connected with the company.

The very pleasant features of the fourth was, nearly every residence either in city or country was decorated with one or more "Old glories."

Mr. Campbell, of Leam, Ill., a relative of the Blyens, arrived in this city last Saturday and purposes spending the summer in Oregon.

Found-On July 4th near Bohemian Hall a good overcoat. The owner can have the same by describing property and paying for this notice.

Several of the Scioans are working on the Mill City logging railway and more are talking of going. The road is reported to be progressing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Richardson made a business visit to Albany on Monday. During their absence Mrs. Wm. Young did the honors of the Richardson hotel.

The Mitchell jury stood 11 to 1 on 1st ballot, when the agreement was made with the defendant to the mercy of the court, was reached, then the verdict agreed upon.

Miss Helen V. Crawford teacher of education at O. A. C., Corvallis, arrived in this city Tuesday morning to spend a part of her vacation with her sister Mrs. T. L. Dugger.

The hop crop all over the state is reported to be injured with locust. Spraying is the only remedy that will give the growers a marketable product this year, it is said.

Last Sunday night some miscreant entered Dr. W. H. Booth's buggy shed, in Lebanon and rained a few bricks and some rubber tires by cutting and slashing portions of them with a jack knife.

G. W. Dennis, of Pleasant Green, Kan., is visiting his nephew, E. Fleming, of near this city. Mr. Dennis will spend most of the summer visiting relatives in this vicinity and attending the Lewis and Clark fair.

From personal observation the News editor thinks the yield of spring grain over in the vicinity of Tillamook will be more than from one-half to two-thirds of an average crop. Cold rainy weather and the aphid is thought to be the cause.

The convicts at the penitentiary gave a musical show in the dining room of the pen., on the evening of July 4, which was attended by 5000 Salem citizens. The entertainment was said to be meritorious.

A collection of $12 was taken from the audience which will be used to purchase instruments for the prison orchestra.

Many citizens celebrated the fourth at Stayton. There are a few lonesome business men, standing or sitting in front of their places of business left. In case a stray quarter might wander into town they wanted to be on hand to receive it, but nearly every one that remained at home gave up the day to rest and enjoyment.

Mr. Churehill, an employe at Goch's sawmill met with a painful accident last Saturday. He was holding a block with his left hand and using the ax with his right. By some means a mislaid axe head and the ax struck the hand, nearly severing the thumb. He was brought to town and Dr. Browne dressed the wound.

Linn county has captured the first prize for county exhibits at the Lewis and Clark fair. Awards are to be made monthly upon these county exhibits, and at the close of the fair the county making the largest number of points will be awarded the $1000 prize, so it is important that every one should help maintain the standard of our exhibit if we maintain the lead. Anything that you raise of especially superior quality, you should select a sample, to add to old Linn's fine display.

Accidents seem to have been quite plentiful lately. With the utmost caution they cannot seemingly be avoided. While accidents usually are attributable to carelessness, one that occurred over near Lawson's will hardly have been avoided. The victim rode a gentle horse to a neighbor's. When he had completed his errand and was approaching his home, a long beam the horse and caused him to kick. The horse's feet landed in the side of ribs of the owner, resulting in broken ribs and possibly internal injuries. Seemingly never know when we are safe.

The harvesting of fall wheat will soon be on hand.

Mrs. Mae Gill of near Mohama came to Scio for a short time Thursday.

There were 55,708 admissions to the Lewis and Clark Fair on July 4th.

The assessors census shows a population in Brownsville of 888 people.

Wm. Brunker reports trout fishing remarkably good, ten to twelve miles up Crabtree creek from here.

Petitions from all along the line will be forwarded to managers of the S. P. railroad for a better train service.

Everyone will feel relieved somewhat now that the fourth is past and the small boy with the firecracker has subsided.

The Scio Independent Telephone Co. held a business meeting Saturday afternoon. The company is thinking of erecting a toll line to Albany.

Farmers are quite busy in the hay fields just now. The hay crop is reported to be good. New hay is selling in Scio at $4 per ton delivered.

A party of Albanyites illuminated Petersons lute on the evening of the fourth, with fireworks, red fire etc. The butte is 14 miles from Albany.

Some business men claim they are too poor to advertise their business. A business that will not pay to a certain, is probably on its last legs, and the sooner it is closed out, the better for the owner.

If the News is somewhat late this week it is attributable to two much fourth of July on the part of the force. But fortunately the fourth only occurs once a year.

C. A. Warner went to Portland yesterday (Thursday) in obedience to the command of the U. S. district court. Chas. hopes to get excused as he has no one to run the mill during his absence.

Weekly Bros. contemplate erecting a large store building sometime in the near future. The foundation stones have been placed on the building site, next door to Chas. Wesley's agricultural depot.

Herman Hecker and family, of near Crabtree and B. J. Hecker and family, of Albany, attended the Lewis and Clark fair last week. This week Herman had to return to the metropolis as a U. S. juror.

George F. Coffey, of the firm of Coffey & Coffey, McMinnville, arrived up Saturday and was doing business in Scio for a day or so. He reports the business of his firm in a prosperous condition.

On the fourth a horse and buggy was stolen at Scioville, by a man who was accompanied by a little boy. The man went east, up the mountain wagon road and, therefore it is supposed that he was endeavoring to cross the mountains, the telephone was used to intercept him.

John Calavan was kicked by one of his horses last Sunday and received severe injury about the head. By some means he became mixed up with his team and one of the horses kicked with both feet striking Mr. Calavan as before stated about the head. The team ran away and passed by discovered Mr. Calavan lying insensible. He was taken to M. V. Blyens's room by Dr. Brown and called. When the doctor arrived Mr. Calavan was vomiting considerable blood. He was unconscious until the next day and did not remember a thing that occurred.

Business Change

On July 1st Guy McKnight purchased the interest of his partner, Fred Jones, in the butcher business and will hereafter conduct the "Farmers Meat Market" alone. We say alone but there is some talk that Guy will take another partner in the near future. Guy is a rooster too, and will make the "Farmers Meat Market" go if there is any go in it.

When we say "rooster" we do not wish it understood that he notices the cattle that he butchers. Oh, no! He says for the cattle he believe; but he sells his beef so cheap that well you can't help but buy if you visit his shop, at the south end of the bridge.

Narrow Escape From Drowning

Last Sunday Henry Hasser with his little children were walking on the sidewalk along the ditch leading to the fax mill. A little son two or three years old desiring to return home started back alone. When but a short distance from his father the little one fell and tumbled into the swiftly flowing mill race.

The child in falling must have struck his head against something as he at once sank after striking the water. Mr. Hasser at once rushed to the rescue. The little fellow could not have been in the water more than two or three minutes, yet long enough to take in water enough to enfeeble him. Dr. Prill was soon brought to the scene of the accident and by prompt and vigorous treatment brought the little fellow back to life, for he was dead apparently when taken from the water.

The Fourth at Stayton

Stayton had a celebration yesterday that was far from being "out of sight" for it was visible everywhere from the night before until the day after. Hon. B. F. Mulkey was orator of the day, and addressed, as he put it, an acre of enthusiastic citizens. There was a brass band and a good one too, with music galore and patriotic songs and a decided departure made by Miss Gordon, who was called upon to read the Declaration of Independence, and who instead of reading repeated it from memory, and that too, in a manner that emphasized and drew out the nationality of its magnificent sentences. Stayton surely had a Fourth that anybody in that section will remember as a record breaker.—Capital Journal.

BELOW COST

We have over 250 Men's and Boys' Suits that we will sell out below cost. Sale will commence Saturday, July 1, and will close July 15

This will not be a reduction sale, but a sale where you will have a chance to buy a suit below the wholesale price. We mean just what we say, and to convince you of the fact we invite you to come and look over the suits and the prices. The suits will all be hung up and marked in good, plain figures, so that it will be no trouble for you to examine them.

Remember that we are going to close the suits out regardless of prices. Now, if you are thinking of getting a suit this summer, this is your chance to get a good suit for little money.

The following prices are for cash and produce only:

MEN'S SUITS	BOYS' SUITS
$18.00 Suit for $13.85 cash	$9.00 Suit for $7.35 cash

9.50 " 6.95 "
8.00 " 6.70 "

WESELY BROS.

Deserves the Penitentiary.

Last Sunday Mrs. Chas. De Wall of Thomas was run over by a horseman, resulting in a broken arm at the wrist. Sometimes accidents will happen in spite of all carefulness. In this case, however, no carefulness entered into the matter. This young man, or hoodlum, came rushing along the road calling out, "Get out of the way." De Wall was unable to get out of the way or, perhaps, knowing that she had as much right on the highway as this young brute, did not attempt to get out of the way. Such young hoodlums are out of place when they are not in the reform school or in the penitentiary. Dr. Prill was called and adjusted the fracture.

Rooms at the Lewis and Clark Fair.

S. A. Madge, J. O. B. Seebay and F. W. Mackay, of Olympia, Wash., and M. G. Royal, of Salem, Oregon, have secured the Hotel Palmer, of Portland, and put it under competent management for the fair trade. It is a 15-room hotel situated on Alder street, between Seventh and Eighth, just one block west of the Oregonian building, only one block from the car line running directly to the fair grounds. For one dollar a day the very best accommodations can be secured. The above gentlemen are well known all over the state of Washington and to a large extent in Oregon, and their names give assurance that the guests of the hotel will be properly cared for. Take the Morrison street car at the Union Depot and ask the conductor to let you off at Park street, then walk one block north to the hotel. Write at once for particulars and for reservation of a room. Address Hotel Palmer, 250 Alder street, Portland, Oregon.—From Morning Olympian, Olympia, Washington.
