It is evident from the land fraud investigations now going on at Portland, there are several grades of honesty among men. The defendants in the suits are of various degrees of honesty.

Our Oregon constitutional law where in the advice of an official may be required, but not less than during the term of the incumbent, should be changed. If it is possible to raise an officer's salary while he is in office, it ought to be possible to lower it as well.

THE WAR UPON GRAFT. The conviction of United States Senator John H. Mitchell of Oregon shows that on station, however high, can save a person from punishment for violation of law in the country.

There is evidence on every side that the "Reign of Graft" is speedily drawing to a close. The glorious revival of civic spirit in this city is not an isolated phenomenon.

Among the great attractions which the Lewis and Clark Exposition will afford the visitors to Portland during this month will be the opening of the fair meeting given by the Multnomah Race Association at Irvington Park track.

THE SUCCESS OF PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S efforts to promote peace between Russia and Japan is a triumph for that so-called "shirt-sleeve democracy."

When a man accepts public office from the people, he implicitly enters into a contract with the people to perform certain specified duties for a stated term or term of years.

These methods and ways have given birth to the modern term of "graft" and the recipient of financial benefits thus obtained is called a "graftee."

THE CHINESE QUESTION. The question of Chinese exclusion will be a permanent issue before the next session of congress.

FROM GALLOWES TO GLORY. According to Reverend Mr. St. Pierre, the Oregon penitentiary chaplain, murderer Lauth, who was executed Thursday, died a sincere, happy and complete Christian.
