LOCAL

Hay hauling seems to be the occupation of Scioans this week.

L. W. Pomeroy is an orphan now and thinks home is no home without a mother.

Joseph Barnes and niece, Miss Nellie were Albany visitors on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Comstock, of Minnesota, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Knoff, of Scio.

On the trail to the Farmers Meat Market. Drop in and help swell the procession.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Russell, and Mr. Tompson of Hailey, Idaho, arrived here Monday, on a visit to Miss Grace Gill.

James Venters, of Scio (should be Shelburn we believe—News) spent Monday in Albany—Democrat.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Tucker went to Portland Wednesday for a ten day visit at the fair and the races.

The way customers fall over each other in getting to the Farmer's Meat Market, is not slow.

For Sale—A good tent, poles and stakes, as good as new. See Rev. J. W. Mount.

Frank Shores, of Munkers, Frank Miller and a number of other young men of Sheiburn were on the excursion over to the bay last Sunday.

Miss Bessie Morris went to Portland Tuesday for a few days visit with her sister Miss Annie and for a look at the Lewis and Clark show.

Mr. Charles Gilky and son, of Idaho are visiting relatives in this city and vicinity. Mr. Gilkey is one of the Idaho pencil pushers, and came to Portland on the Idaho editorial excursion, last week.

Eugene Pomeroy, Mrs. L. W. Pomeroy, Mrs. Oscar Pomeroy and children and John Miller have gone on a camping trip over to the bay going by the wagon route.

The butcher firm of Leffler & Foren has been disolved, Mr. Foren retiring; and the business will hereafter be carried on by Mr. Leffler. See his add elsewhere.

For Sale—One of the best dairy and stock ranches in Linn county, containing 200 acres. Only $4,000, one-half cash. V. Cladek, Scio, Oregon.

A daughter of C. T. Craft of near Lacomb was committed to the insane asylum last week. Her dementia is of two-years duration. It is to be hoped that, with proper treatment, her malady may be eradicated and her mind restored to a normal condition.

Ed. C. Peery, Scio's pill autocrat, is taking a vacation this week. On Monday he went to McMinnville, to visit his parents for two or three days; after which he goes to Portland for a "look in" at the Lewis and Clark. Pending his absence J. S. Morris is the pill expert.

Willis Foren entertained Scioans, last Friday morning, by riding a bucking horse on Main street. At one time the horse came onto the side walk and against the door of Lickenbach's shoe shop, probably thinking that either he or his rider needed a new pair of shoes. Willis stayed in the saddle, however, and the horse finally gave up the battle.

J. J. Barnes and wife, James Barnes, Miss Ida Miles, J. L. Barnes and daughter Miss Grace, H. Phillips and daughter Miss Iva and mother-in-law, Mrs. Hough, of Kansas, Fred Bilyue, Lester Holt, Miss Vivian McKnigh, Chas. McDonald and Miss Nellie McDonald of Scio, participated in the Newport excursion, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas Greenlie, of Kirkwood Ills., and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Drain, of near Lincoln, Neb. cousins of Mrs. T. L. Dugger, who are making Oregon relatives a visit, came over from Albany on Tuesday for a short visit with the News family. Mr. and Mrs. Greenlie were in Oregon 21 years ago, and find great improvements in the Oregon cities towns and country since their former visit.

River Distances.

Considerable inquiry has been made as to the distances between points on the Willamette by water. The following table is according to the government survey.

Eugene to Harrisburg	20 miles
Harrisburg to Peoria	20 3-4 "
Peoria to Corvallis	12 1-4 "
Corvallis to Albany	12 1-2 "
Albany to Salem	34 "
Salem to Portland	72 "

This makes the distance from Eugene to Albany 65 1-2 miles, Harrisburg to Albany 45 1-2 miles, Peoria to Albany 24 3-4 miles.

This is a good thing to cut out for reference.

Death of Sam Goin.

Sam Goin died at North Yakima, Wash., Sunday at the home of his father, Mr. Ed Goin, at the age of about thirty years. He was born in this county, residing at Scio for a number of years and then at Albany for several years. He was deaf and dumb. The cause of his death was asthma and consumption. John Goin, carrier of R. F. D. 4 was a brother.—Albany Democrat.

A Dog Item.

Perhaps there is no other town in Oregon that has no larger population than has Scio, that has as great a number and variety of dogs as we have. In our town are bulldogs, shepherddogs, birddogs, pugdogs, hounddogs, poodledogs, fatdogs, poordogs, dogs with tails and dogs without tails, large dogs small dogs and dogs of every color and discription from a Russian wolf dog down to a plain, everyday currdog. We have dogs that bark, dogs that howl, but we do not have noiseless dogs, or if we have they have failed to show up and be counted. We can also show a dog, said to be a year old that weighs just three pounds and no more, is about six or seven inches high but is still dog enough to bark.

Serious Accident.

Mr. Luke, recently of Oklahoma territory, who purchased the Hanshaw farm, some three or four miles south of town, on Tuesday met with a very painful and mayhap serious accident. He was assisting in hauling hay and was pitching off the load. The hayrack had sharpened stakes in it to prevent the load from slipping. When the load was about off, by some means Mr. Luke fell upon one of the stakes and rolled off the wagon yet remained hung up on the stake. The stake penetrated the body just under the left arm and made a wound some three inches deep and large enough to thrust ones fist into. Dr. Brown was called and dressed the wound. The doctor does not anticipate any serious trouble providing blood poisoning does not follow.

Circuit Court.

Circuit court, department No. 2. met on Monday with Judge Galloway on the bench. The following cases have been heard and disposed of: In Nelson Cochran agt. J. M. and J. O. Garrett an amended complaint was filed.

William Coy agt. C. H. Landreth et ux, to set aside a deed was tried and submitted. Weatherford & Wyatt appearing for the plaintiff and J. J. Whitney for the defendants.

In John E. Needham agt. Linn county, up on a writ of review a motion to dismiss was argued.

Default in Jos. E. Craft agt. Kate Craft, for divorce.

Louise Zuhlsdorf agt. Robert Earl et al. Decre nunc protunc.

In J. H. McNary agt. J. A. Crossley et al to establish the ownership of the money found on Crossley after the Lebanon bank robbery, the court ordered the parties to interplead, Crossley to file his first pleading.

Nonsuit ordered in P. H. Marley agt. H. F. W. Kriesel et. al, to quiet title.

Locks Dilapidated.

Last Sunday the editor of the News was over to Yaquina bay. While there appeared to be small improvements to the town of Newport underway, upon the whole one gathers an idea of dilapidation and decay over there. This idea is generated by the rapid decay of the government trestle work, buildings, etc. If there ever is any more work done by the government in the way of improving the harbor by extending the jetties, the plant will have to be entirely rebuilt. A walk from Newport over to Nye creek will afford one a view of many handsome summer cottages, most of which are now occupied by their owners, or tenants for the summer. Newport without doubt, will become one of the leading seaside resorts of the Oregon coast and Yaquina bay may in the course of years become a harbor of some commercial importance. The bar is now said to have a depth of 15 feet at extreme low water and from 22 to 24 feet at medium high tide. This depth is sufficient to admit all coasting vessels and medium deep sea craft. Hence there is nothing to prevent a shipping point here for a coasting, or even a limited foreign trade, unless the powerful Southern Pacific railroad continues to control shipping matters as now. Undoubtedly the harbor is in better condition now than ever before. There is no reason why a [illegible] industry equal to that [illegible] [illegible]

WESELY BROS.

Golden Wedding and Birtaday Anniversary.

One of the most pleasant events of the season took place at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Smith Wednesday July 12th, the occasion being their golden wedding anniversary and also the birthday of the groom.

The social which was prepared by the ladies of Shelburn was a total surprise to them of which their countenances clearly gave vent.

The afternoon was pleasantly spent, refreshments consisting of ice-cream and cake were served, and many presents were given them as tokens of the high esteem in which they are held by their neighbors. The guests departed at 5 p. m. all wishing them many years of added pleasure. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. E. Piatt, Mr. and Mrs. W. Eu. Chrchill, Mrs. D. H. Thoms, Mrs. A. P. Hirons, Mrs. R. W. Swink, Mrs. Com Osborn, Mrs. A. F. Gooch, Mrs. Wm Hull, Mrs. Marion Tindall, Mrs. Trollinger, Mr. G. Miller, Delmer Churchill and Kenneth Hirons, Misses Helen Thomas, Kate and Nora Miller, Inus Hirons, Mable Swink, Emma Washburn and Lena Miller.
