John Cyrus went to Portland Tuesday, to look up a location down there. He thinks work in his line carpentering, sawmilling, etc is more plentiful there than here.

We inadvertently stated last week that Harry Beard was sick at the residence of his father A. F. Beard of this city. It should have read Will Beard instead of Harry.

Mr. A. J. Caldwell, of Price precinct, was in this city Wednesday. Mr. Caldwell aspires for the nomination for county treasurer. His announcement will be found in another column.

The Oregon Endeavores convention that was slated to occur at Eugene, has been changed to meet at Corvallis on Februry 22 to 25. The change was made on account of the prevalence of typhoid at Eugene.

Dry roads, something somewhat unusual for an Oregon Winter. Teams are now being employed in hauling ties, and farming operations in full progress. Even some of our citizens are making early garden.

On account of the wreck on the main line of the S. P. the Eugene Local train passed over the Woodburn-Natron line from Tallman to Woodburn. The train passed West Scio between 9 and 10 A. M. Wednesday.

J. G. Hout.

Francis M. Smith, of near Lebanon, died on February 10; aged 74 years 4 months and 7 days. He crossed the plains with a mule team in 1847 and came to Linn county in 1857. He leaves a wife and two sons to mourn his loss.

H. S. Johnston went to Jefferson last Friday from whence he went to Salem on the following morning to be present at the sale of the homestead farm up near Mehama which occurred at public outcry at the courthouse door on that day.

Among the teachers being examined for certificates are J. Benham, Mrs. Nellie Compton, Scio; Imogene B. Hart, Victoria Sanders, Santiam; Ethel Henderson, Fox Valley; Lillie M. Bodeker, Lacomb; G. A. Weaver, Thomas; W. J. Green.

After two weeks of ideal winter during which time the roads became dry and dusty, the welcome rainy season is again on. Unless unfavorable weather prevents, Oregon will, this year, have a bumper crop in every line. Well the country needs it.

Our newly organized band is thinking of putting on the boards a comedy, in the near future; probably in about three weeks. The proceeds of the entertainment will be expended for the purchase of instruments and deserves a liberal patronage.

H. S. Johnston reports that the sale of his fathers farm was held up, last Saturday, because of some supposed defect in the abstract of title. Harry thinks the matter can be arranged, but he will have to go to the expense of re-advertising the property.

Mr. Jonas Bushell, of Seattle national lecturer for the Independent Order of Good Templars, lectured in the interest of the order, at the Baptist church on Tuesday and Wednesday. Enough names were secured with which to organize a lodge of the order in this city.

Governor Chamberlain has remanded a paroled prisoner back to the penitentiary. When LeBarre, the prisoner, was paroled, he promised to be good. He has been detected in stealing since his parole and back to the pen he goes, where he probably ought to remain the rest of his life.

Wilbur Funk had a very narrow escape from being badly and perhaps fatally hurt on Wednesday, by a limb from a tree falling upon and striking his left shoulder. He came into town and had Dr. Prill look him over. No bones were broken though he is badly bruised and his lip mashed.

The Seventh session of the Willamette Development League is now in session at Silverton. Of course political possible candidates will be in evidence numerously. A good plan would be to postpone these meetings of the League and Shippers Congress until the political game has been played to a finish.

Wm. Brenner is erecting a large enclosure out in his field. Many of us were undecided as to whether it was a base ball park or a private race track. But later development goes to show that the structure is to have a roof and upon inquiry we ascertained that the purpose of the building is for a feed shed and protection for chickens in stormy weather.

Frank Wicks, a sandwich boy of Albany whose face was familiar about the depot at train time, was ground to death by a freight train at Millersburg Tuesday afternoon. He and a companion attempted to get on the train as it passed through Millersburg, while it was moving at a speed of 18 miles per hour. Young Wicks was thrown under the wheels and his body ground to peices.

Albert Cole (Coley) one of the first proprietors of the Santiam News, who was for many years a resident of Scio, was on our streets Thursday and Friday with his usual supply of Munchausen stories. He reports that a fine coal mine has been discovered near Elkton which gives fine promise and in which he holds considerable stock.

It is now definitely decided by Superintendent DeVarney and a representative of the Bell Rural Telephone Co. of Kansas, to install a first class telephone system in Albany and other towns. To this system all of the independent farmer lines will be permitted to connect for a very moderate charge. Eventually the system will be extended to connections all over the valley and with Portland.

C. H. Logsdon, one of the Southern Pacific bridge gang when working on the Jefferson Rail Road bridge, fell from the bridge to the rocks below on Monday morning resulting in the breaking of both arms below the elbow, a serious cut over the eye and another on the chin and nearly complete amputation of the left ear. Dr. Hawk, the company physician attended to the injuries. The railroad wooden bridge is being dismantled preparatory to the erection of a steel structure.

"The Spokesman" Vol., 1, No. 1, of Roseburg is the latest in new newspaperdom, edited and published by Strange & Son. "The Spokesman" is a bright news 6-column folio and editorially, locally and mechanically, exhibits the fact that Strange & Son are not strangers to the newspaper business. The new paper starts out with a good advertising patronage and with the purpose of filling a long felt want. The News extends editorial courtesies and wishes "The Spokesman" success.

Elsewhere in this paper will be noticed a call for sealed bids by the Scio Mutual Telephone Company, for the construction of a modern up to date telephone line connecting this city with Albany. The line is to be placed on poles now standing from Scio to Sanderson Bridge, from thence on to Albany poles are to be supplied. This office is now getting out Constitution and By Laws and directory for the company, so that it will soon be in first class shape for business commercial or other wise.

Stinson, G. K. of R. & S., of Salem, is expected to be present and deliver an address; Also Hon. W. R. Bilyeu, of Albany, has been invited to deliver an address. Considerable interest has been manifested in the order lately and seven new members are now being inducted into the mysteries of the order.

Nearly A Fire.

Last Sunday Henry Hassler's house was observed to be on fire in the roof where a stove pipe was used for a flew. Help was at once summoned and Dr. Prill, W. A. Ewing and W. P. Lund responded, Mr. Hassler not being at home at the time. By prompt work in the application of water with buckets, the blaze was subdued, without the necessity of calling out the fire department. The damage is slight.

The alarm that was rung last week, we are informed was not a general fire alarm call but was simply a fire drill call for the purpose of seeing how the department handled the apparatus and to see in what condition hose, hydrants, etc was in. On the run to the supposed fire, the nozzle was lost and the hydrant to which the hose should be attached, was out of order. If it serves the purpose of calling the attention of the city council to these conditions the call, even if it had been a general alarm, was all right.

I. O. G. T. Organized.

Mr. Jonas Bushell, of Seattle, National Lecturer International Order of Good Templars, under the auspices of the National Grand Lodge of the United States of America, has organized a lodge of the order in this city, with 23 charter members. The following list of officers of Scio Lodge No. 7, I. O. G. T., organized Februry 14, 1906, were elected: Chief Templar, Chas. M. Anderson; Vice Templar, Miss Rebecca Crooks; Chaplain, Mrs. N. E. Gill; Secretary E. C. Peery; Assistant Secretary, Miss Britta Powell; Financial Secretary C. C. Peery; Treasurer, Mrs. Iva Abbott; Marshal, Harry Ritchey; Deputy Marshal, Miss Lottie Landon; Guard, Mrs. Dixie Hagey; Sentinel, Will M. Abbott; Lodge Deputy, J. S. Morris; Superintendent Juvenile Work, Mrs. V. Cyrus; Past Chief Templar, Mrs. Anna Calavan; Organist, Miss Eulela Cyrus.

Should Be Restrained.

Last fall during hop picking time a young man by the name of McKillop, who lives near town became mentally wrong. His trouble was thought to be temporary and that he would be all right in a short time. This seems not to have been the case for at times the trouble would recur. Last Saturday the attact was more severe than usual and approched the violent stage. He came into the barber shop having in his hand a stone which if he had used upon anyone of the three or four persons present, might have resulted in injury. The unfortunate young man should be properly cared for before his violence results in perhaps a tragedy. We are informed that the mother is now being cared for at the hospital for the insane at Salem.

A "Swell" Affair.

The Grand Ball given at the Wesely-Cain Hall is reported to have been very successful, and in the language of a Scio young lady, was a "swell" affair. The attendance was quite liberal and the music extra good. Those attending from a distance were: From Stayton—Miss Geeters, Miss Beauchamp, Messrs. Clyde Hill, Victor Davey, Marble Crabtree, Dub Hobson, Gilbert Stayton, George Brewer, Dr. Pintler, Dr. Beauchamp; from Lebanon, Captain Elkins, Winny Jordan, and Harry Bode; from Walla Walla, Miss Tyler; from Portland, Miss Edith Watkins; from near Stayton, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gill; from Roseburg, Albert Cole.

BABE.

To Experiment in Alfalfa-Growing.

The Southern Pacific Railroad Company is making preparations to experiment in a scientific manner in alfalfa growing in various places in the Willamette Valley, along the Harriman lines. Pall Shoup Assistant General Freight Agent of the Southern Pacific, has the matter in charge. He designs locating a number of 20-acre tracts at various points in the valley upon which to experiment. It goes without saying that success is the object aimed at end therefore, no expense necessary to contribute to a successful result will be spared. Innoculated soil from the Oregon Agricultural college will be applied, and a successful termination to the experiment is expected. Anyone who is interested in Alfalfa culture can have the bulletins of Mr. Shoup's progress in the effort, by making the request to Mr. Shoup, Worcester Building, Portland. One good point for making the experiment would be in the vicinity of Scio. Anyone having land conveniently situated and who would be interested in having the fact demonstrated would probably confer a favor, not only to Mr. Shoup, but to the entire central valley by co-operating to the extent of furnishing the land. If so, he should at once correspond with Mr. Shoup.

A Portland Holocaust.

A most disastrous fire occured in Portland on Monday morning early, at the East end of the Morrison Street Bridge, Four people were burned to death and eight severely injured, twenty four horses were also consumed. Young, aged 35, Edward Dailey aged 8, Woman supposed to be Mrs. Cochran aged 65 and an unidentified man.

GINSENG

Information Relating to the Richest Product of the Soil

Professor Howard, of the Missouri State Agricultural College, Says: "I advise American farmers to cultivate Ginseng. Big profits are realized. It is easily grown." A bulletin by the Pennsylvania State College says: "The supply of native Ginseng Root is rapidly diminishing and the price per pound is correspondingly increasing, while the constant demand for the drug in China stands as a guarantee of a steady market for ginseng in the future." American Consul General Wildman, at Hong Kong, writes: "There will be little difficulty in disposing on this coast of all the ginseng that is grown in America."

Ginseng is a staple on the market the same as corn, wheat and cotton. The present market price varies from $6.00 to $8.00 per pound, while the cost of production is less than $1.50. There is room in one's garden to grow several hundred dollars worth each year. The plant can be grown throughout the United States and Canada in any soil or climate that will grow ordinary vegetables. There are two planting seasons, Spring and Fall.

We are buyers and exporters of the dried product, and grow root and seeds for planting purposes. Let us show you how to make money growing ginseng. You can get a practical start in the business for a small outlay and soon have a nice income. Send a two-cent stamp today for our illustrated literature, telling all about it. Write at once, you may not see this adv. again.
