 The rain of Tuesday is a cause of gratification among our farmers.
 A. J. Johnson won out in the contest for State Senator for Benton.
 John Leffer went to Portland, Tuesday, with a car load of cattle.
 The Pioneer picnic at Brownsville will be held on June 20, 21 and 22.
 Jack Jones started on a business trip to Prineville Tuesday evening.
 All of the sick at Alex Montgomery's are reported to be on the mend.
 Scio is a dry town, but we thirst for a settlement at the Farmers' Meat Market.
 Guy McKnight went to Albany Wednesday evening on a business trip.
 Even though the rain is a cause of gratification among our farmers, it is not so for the office of governor, if they can get votes enough.
 "Seven Up" is a gambling game, but "Square Up" is a honest game; play it at the Farmers' Meat Market.
 Relief freight now takes precedence over all other freight. Even passenger trains are side tracked for fast freights.
 Let everyone contribute to the California undergarment. Be absent but a trifle, it all helps and our carload will be easily made up.
 It is proposed that Scio ladies meet together and manufacture of towels, bed coverlets to send in the car of supplies, next week.
 Insure with the Oregon Fire Relief Association, of McMinnville. A general mutual association. J. G. Bryant, agent, Albany, Oregon.
 J. A. Blyden was the messenger to carry election returns for Scio, to Portland to Albany last Saturday and T. L. Dugger for South Scio.
 There will be services at the Baptist church next Sunday at 11 o'clock, a. m. and 7:30 p. m. A cordial invitation to all. J. O. Richardson, Pastor.
 Joe Young is very proud of the way in which his German teacher cuts are showing up. Most all of them are great big fellows and of splendid form.
 The Probi party will fail to get its candidates names printed on the official ballot for the June election. The party managers were just one day late in filing nominations.
 A basket social was held at the Red School house just east of town, last Sunday night, for the purpose of raising money to repair the building. We did not learn the result.
 Our citizens should be more careful about throwing paper and other litter into the streets and alleys. Strangers coming to our town would not commend our cleanliness.
 Hon. M. A. Miller carried every precinct in the county in the primary election. He may have a vigorous contest on June 4. We will have to watch Wright man as a competitor.
 Scio is raising a carload of stuff for the San Francisco sufferers. Every body is invited to contribute. Mr. G. C. called upon. Whatever you are disposed to give, bring it in at once.
 E. M. Carpenter, of near Prineville, in getting kindling wood, last Sunday by some means put the ax into his right knuckle making a cut two inches long, which may result in a gangrene. The town physician Chamberlain has appointed Mon. Jeff Myers, as one of the committee of two to go to San Francisco to have charge of and represent Oregon in the relief work down there. A splendid appointment.
 Charley Compton, who is engaged in moving Fred Ely's house, broken legs resulted in a cut to the bone, five inches long on the left leg below the knee. Five stitches were necessary to bring the severed parts together.
 The editor of the News left Wednesday evening on a business trip to Portland. The News therefore every day during our absence, it is chargeable to our Republican foreman.
 The molar pulp which was sold in this city a short time ago at 25c per pound was delivered last Saturday. It totaled a weight of 1,500 pounds, 1250 pieces and placed about $3500 of the molar in circulation.
 Latest reports give the nomination for State Treasurer on the Republican ticket to George A. Steele, of Clatsop County. Withcombe for Governor and Benson for Secretary of State, won the nomination, having a safe lead.
 Mrs. A. B. Woodin received word from her son, Harry E. Woodin, of San Francisco, that he was all right, but that he was burned out, both his home and his place of business, and would leave as soon as possible for Albany.—Democrat.
 Related returns from the Eastern Oregon counties give Jonathan Bourne, Jr., the nomination for the United States Senate, with a lead of probably 500 votes. Previous to the receipt of these returns Calkins plurality was just over the margin.
 Bert Ely's family, of whom we heard last week had moved to the Landon sawmills, on account of severe illness of their child, have returned to Scio. Bert has accepted the position of chamberlain at the lively stable of Myers & Richardson.
 We would be glad to give a full account of the San Francisco sufferers, but our limited space and ability forbids. When the entire losses are figured up, we like other small newspapers, can give the summary, but to attempt the detail is beyond our power. It is estimated that the burned area is fully three-fourths the total area of the city and includes all of the business section.

WANTED FOR SAN FRANCISCO SUFFERERS

Scio has decided to send a carload of supplies for our unfortunate San Francisco friends. It is unnecessary for me to urge the people of Scio and vicinity to come to the rescue. In such cases you have never been found wanting, therefore state that we want contributions of Cash, Potatoes, Bacon, Beans, Flour, Oats and Feed Hay. Bedding is also greatly needed. All supplies to be delivered to Wesley & Cain, and each to the Bank of Scio. All should be delivered on or before Wednesday, May 2. Ladies are invited to supply anything in the way of bedding or clothing that they may see proper. Permanent lists will be found at all business houses.
 L. E. MILLER, Mayor.

An Earthquake Experience.
 Miss Hazel Pfeiffer, of Albany, who was at Oakland, California, during the quake, writes her parents as follows: "The American earthquake is a disaster in-lieu of Mrs. T. L. Dugger, of this city: 'At 11:48 I awoke with the most awful start, to discover my bedstead and boards coming down everywhere. I was too frightened to get out of bed. Everything was falling down all around the house. The piano was moving across the room. Outside everything was on the street. We dressed in three seconds and went out. There was not a chimney left standing. Everything was broken to pieces. The gas and water pipes, and things split over the floor. We tried to go to San Francisco, but they would not let us. The train was to Oakland. The large stores are all to pieces, one bank has the whole front out, most of them will have to be taken down and rebuilt. The injured people are reported killed in San Francisco. The damage in Oakland is said to be $10,000,000. If you could see the ruins you would never want to live here. The earth opened in places three feet. Every one eats lunch. The chimneys are always bad, no fire can be built, and the water is not running.'

Mrs. Mary Williams Safe.
 Every town and city in Oregon probably had some of her citizens in San Francisco, either there temporarily, or during the permanent residence, during the earthquake and fire. Scio is no exception. Mrs. Mary Williams, formerly Miss Mary Myers, who was in Oakland during the earthquake, being among the number. Mrs. Williams and her husband, directly after their escape from San Francisco, were engaged in business. Their business and home was destroyed. All that they were able to save was what was contained in their trunk. The trunk was damaged and they were unable to get it. They were moving from place to place until they found lodgment in a cemetery. Fortunately the party had a tent which sheltered them without food and water for two days.
 Ed. Cyrus, son of J. E. Cyrus, of this city, was in San Francisco. He has written his parents of his safety. But we have not heard what his experience was.

Death of William A. Paul.
 William A. Paul, a prominent Lincon county pioneer, died during last night in medical treatment. Mrs. G. C. called upon. A very large funeral will be held on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. He was born in Missouri, November 10, 1824, and died in Oregon, August 1, 1905. He was a member of the Christian church, and of the A. F. and A. M., including the Royal Arch Chapter of that order. He was a member of the legislature. He was a man of exceptional character. His children, George Paul, residing in Eastern Oregon, Samuel Paul in the Southern part of the state and William Paul and Mrs. Elliot, in Albany, Oregon.

Trouble at Sweet Home.
 Mrs. Mary McCoy, residing near Sweet Home, who has had trouble with Road Supervisor Thompson for some time, on account of his efforts to improve a new Albany road across her land, has again broken out, and on Monday, when Mr. Thompson came to work on the road, she met him with a gun, and shot him in the head. When he attempted to begin work, she lashed him with the lead with the whip, put him to flight, and he was obliged to retreat. The woman is determined to prevent the construction of the road over her land, and it is likely that a warrant will be issued by the authorities and that she will be prosecuted for her interference with the road supervisor, who is acting under the orders of the county court.—Herald.

Cassius Cooper Heard From.
 T. H. Cooper yesterday received a letter from his brother, Cassius, who recently left for Manhattan, Nevada. He and his father were in San Francisco when the earthquake came. Mr. Cooper jumped out of bed, looked out of the window, and his head was just missed by a ton of brick. They got out of doors over the ferry to Oakland, and took the first train the next day for Sacramento, getting there on the morning of the 2nd. The Cooper killed was another man.—Monday Democrat.

FOR SAN FRANCISCO SUFFERERS.

ALL AGENTS:
 Mr. Harriman wires me this morning as follows:
 Oakland, Pier April 25th, 1906, to J. P. O'Brien, Portland—Having gone over the situation in San Francisco, I am deeply impressed with the necessity of uninterrupted forwarding of food stuff with which to feed the two hundred thousand homeless people. The situation is well organized and the County Quartermaster Department is receiving and distributing through its channels, and through the various local relief associations, all supplies as fast as they arrive, but the fact should be made public in all quarters that it will require continued effort on the part of everyone to keep supplies coming. The railroads are, of course, handling all such supplies without charge and the people must respond to calls for relief. (Signed)
 E. H. HARRIMAN.

LETTER FROM ALASKA.

Mr. N. Young lately received a letter from his son Charles, who is at Glacier Creek, Alaska. Charles reports excellent weather during March and that he has 25,000 bushels of hay and 100,000 lbs. of wool. He expects good results, which will be stored as soon as the water starts. He also reports that Ed Gilley, who was running a saloon in Dawson, was burned out. Charles expects to return to Scio as soon as the mining season closes, which will be when the water ceases to flow. He further states that news is somewhat high up in that country; the Oregonian is $1.25 each; the Statesman and magazines $1.25 each.

RADER-CRAWFORD.
 A Popular Young Court Wedded Last Evening.
 At the home of the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Crawford, corner of Fifth and Ellsworth streets at 8 o'clock last evening Miss Lillian Crawford was married to William E. Rader in the presence of a company of about 50 invited guests. Rev. G. M. Nelson performing the ceremony. Miss Bena Snelling played the wedding march. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served, to which all did full justice. The bride is a daughter of J. G. Crawford, the photographer and is popular in a wide circle in this city, while the groom, a cigar maker at the Eagles factory, has many friends. The newly wedded couple will reside in a new cottage on Sixth street near Ellsworth.—Sunday Herald.

Met With a Peculiar Death.

Joy Christensen, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Christensen, residing near the Baptist Church, met with a peculiar death last night. Mr. Christensen, upon going home, went out to the shed, a short distance from the house to look for his horse when he found him dead, with a rope around his neck, fastened only by a half-hitch, that dropped off as he was touched. The rope was tied to a beam above, with a stick of oak grubbed at the proper distance for swinging the rope hanging about two feet below. The indications were that in getting up on a board to swing off the end of the rope had swung around his neck, catching in a half-hitch and strangling him as he fell to the ground. The rope was not tied, as it would have been in anything but an accident. Dr. Wallace was sent for and everything possible was done to resuscitate him, but the body had evidently been in the position found for a couple of hours, and it was too late. Coroner Fortmiller did not think a Coroner's jury was necessary.—Democrat.

Died on the Cars.

Mrs. Carrie Hamilton died on the cars this morning near Astoria, probably of heart trouble, while on her way to Spokane with her daughter, Mrs. Miller. The remains were taken care of by M. B. Case, the undertaker, of Astoria. The deceased was a sister of J. M. Ralston, of this city, and formerly resided at Corvallis and Portland, her husband being accidentally killed several years ago at the latter city. Besides Mrs. Miller, she leaves a daughter, Miss Joe, of Seattle.—Monday Democrat.

Hook and Ladder Co., Reorganized.

Wednesday evening the Hook and Ladder Company of Scio Fire Department was reorganized and the following officers were elected: President, E. C. Peery; Vice-President, C. C. Peery; Secretary, Chas. M. Anderson; Treasurer, J. B. Barnes; Foreman, R. M. Cain; Assistant Foreman, W. E. Hecker. With a good membership the company has every prospect for the future and gives promise of becoming a very energetic company.

A Nice Purse Made Up.

Among the people giving for the relief of the San Francisco sufferers the crew of the Home Telephone Company in this city yesterday made up a purse of $13 to be turned over to the general relief committee this morning. Every one of the employees of the company donated his or her mite, and the example set by them is a good one.—Tuesday's Herald.

BORN.

GAINES—On April 20, to the wife of J. F. Gaines a daughter.

DIED.

HALL—On Wednesday evening, April 25, 1906, at her home at Hall's Mills, Ella Esther Hall, wife of D. D. Hall, aged 34 years 1 month and 28 days. Mrs. Hall's death was very sudden and unexpected. She had been afflicted with the measles for some days, but was considered to be improved and Mr. Hall, being called to Lakeview, Oregon, on urgent business, and having no apprehension of a turn for the worse, departed Wednesday morning for that place. At 5:30 that evening Mrs. Hall suddenly expired. Her three children, the eldest of whom is 16 years, were alone with their mother at the time. They immediately telephoned Dr. Brill and he hastened to their home, finding that Mrs. Hall had died of heart failure and measles. Every effort was being made to reach Mr. Hall by wire and notify him of the death of his wife, but up to press time, all had proved fruitless. Ella Esther Hall was born February 29, 1872. She was a daughter of Benjamin Shepherd, of Mill City, and leaves a husband and three children to mourn her demise.
