LUMBER FOR SALE

We are prepared to fill any and all kinds of ordinary building lumber bills at prices ranging from $6.50 for the best grade of fencing to $14 per thousand for the best quality of clear lumber. All of this lumber is in the rough, as we have no planer, but we can make prices that will justify you to haul to the planer. If you want lumber for any purpose, give us a call and obtain our figures.

Slab wood, 16-inch, 50c per load or 75c per cord at the mill.

Hellol Vetch Seed.

I still have a fine lot of vetch seed, clean and nice to mix one bushel with two of Spring oats, of which mixture now two bushels to the acre, any time up to the first of June, and a good crop is assured. Clean seed is worth $2.50 per 100 lbs. This amount is sufficient, mixed as above, to seed three acres. Per measured bushel, $1.25, clear of all foul seeds. Sample of seed at Wesely & Cain's store. S. Good time to put out cabbage plants the first of the week.

Salem is preparing to give a rousing Fourth of July celebration.

Charles Wesely went to Portland Wednesday on a business trip.

S. V. Hall, the lumber man, made Albany a business visit Monday.

Grandma King was visiting among Scio friends the first of the week.

Hon. Chas. V. Galloway will speak in Albany on the evening of May 26.

The rains of this week have swelled Thomas creek something near two feet.

The political campaign is now in full blast and the County candidates on the wing.

Notice the prices quoted in F. C. Peery's ad. They make his competitors squirm.

Mrs. M. E. Richardson returned Wednesday from a visit with relatives at Sublimity.

We have the Sharples Cream Separator and all kinds of dairy supplies. Charles Wesely.

Bill Brenner has declared war on the rats. They are catching a great many of his little chicks.

J. T. Downing, of near Lacomb, has sold his farm expects to move to Salem in the near future.

Deputy Sheriff Q. E. Propst was in this city Wednesday, posting Local Option election notices.

Linn County registration is over 1000 short. This means plenty of work for the clerks on election day.

Strawberries are getting ripe. Sunshine after the rains of this week will bring on the crop with a rush.

Wednesday the mud on Main and Mill streets, in this city, was scraped together, to be hauled off later.

A fund is being raised in Corvallis to defray the expenses of the defense of George Mitchell, the slayer of Creffield.

The rains of the fore part of the week were welcomed by everybody. Late sown Spring grain will be greatly benefitted.

Go to Charles Wesely for buggies, wagons and all kinds of farm implements. He has the largest stock in the valley.

John Cyrus, who has been absent from Scio at Portland, and Echo, Morrow County, returned to his home Monday evening.

Miss Jessie Daley, an employe at the Oregon Insane Asylum, at Salem, came up on Tuesday for a few days' visit with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. William May returned from a visit to their daughter, Mrs. W. T. McBride, at Aberdeen, Washington, on Tuesday.

Bills are out announcing the 34th annual reunion of the Oregon Pioneer Association, which will begin in Portland on June 11.

In addition to the political candidates Monday evening, a Filipino juggler and slack rope performer, entertained the people for a short time.

Insure with the Oregon Fire Relief Association, of McMinnville. A purely mutual association. J. G. Bryant, agent, Albany, Oregon.

Harry Johnston returned Wednesday from Bilyeu Den, where he had been engaged in overhauling the machinery of the Monks' sawmill at that place.

Paul Rader will speak at the Baptist Church, Saturday, May 19, at 1 P. M. Subject: Amendments and Proposed Laws to Be Voted Upon on June 4.

Scio shipped her carload of potatoes, hay, flour, beans, oats, bedding, etc., to the San Francisco sufferers yesterday. There was about 15 tons altogether.

Ira A. Phelps, former proprietor of the NEWS, would make a competent Recorder. There is no reason why he should not receive every vote of his party for the place.

William P. Swope, editor of the Portland Mercury, has been arrested for criminal libel. The complaint was sworn to by Mrs. M. Senders, a prominent Albany society woman.

You can see a pleasant smile on the face of every farmer you meet now-a-day. The copious showers of the first of the week insure the best crops Linn County has had for several years.

Elber May got into a mix-up with a cow while leading her on Monday and carries his right ear in a sling in consequence. The wound required some stitching by Dr. Prill when he dressed it.

Circuit Court convened at Caldwell, Idaho, on Monday. The session will be noted because of the trial of Moyer, Haywood and others, accused of complicity in the murder of Ex-Governor Steunenberg.

We can match all colors of Wall Paper, Carpets and Paints, because we carry all this in stock, and plenty of it. If you need anything in this line come and see what we have before you buy. Charley Wesely.

The Teachers' Summer Normal School of the Eclectic Business University, of Albany, will open a six weeks' term on June 26. Quite a number of inquiries have already been received by the president, I. E. Richardson.

Judge Stewart has visited the Sweet Home widow who was holding the County up in its endeavor to open up a new road. By some means the Judge pacified the irate lady, who has consented to allow the road to be built.

George W. Wright has introduced a new feature in political campaigning. In addition to the customary cigar, Mr. Wright carries a bag of plug tobacco, cut into convenient pieces for chewers; also bags of candy for the little folks.

John J. Collins, of Albany, has been sentenced to four months in the Multnomah County jail by Federal Judge Wolverton for refusing to produce the books of E. Dorgan & Company, timber cruisers, before the Federal grand jury.

Prof. V. L. Calavan closed his third consecutive year as teacher of the school in the Shelton district on Tuesday. The long time that Prof. Calavan has had charge of this school pays him a high compliment for efficiency as a teacher.

Carl Schurz, the versatile German-American citizen, who has held many high offices in the land of his adoption, is dead. During the Civil War he acquired the rank of Major-General. After the war Missouri elected him United States Senator.

We had the pleasure of riding behind Jack Jones' splendid road horse, "Dell," last Sunday. He was clever enough to drive us over from Albany. We doubt if there is another horse in the County that can do the trip in better time, nor with more comfort to himself and driver.

A farmer near Harrisburg has put his fence out four feet into the road, a sufficient gain of territory to permit of an additional row of hops, and declares that he will keep it there or there will be trouble. The road supervisor wants the County Court to settle the matter.—Democrat.

Rev. Anna Shaw, probably the most eloquent orator among American women will deliver an address upon Equal Suffrage at the Congregational Church in Albany on this (Friday) afternoon, and also at the Court House in the evening. She is an orator of national repute and is well worth hearing.

William Coy, a bachelor, who lived alone on his homestead in Fox Valley, was so badly burned, when his house was burned last week, that he died a few hours later. Parties who searched the premises after his death found a pot of money buried, and more is expected to be found. He had relatives in the Eastern states.

H. A. Hinshaw, Traveling Freight Agent for the Southern Pacific Company, was in town Wednesday securing flax samples for exhibition purposes at the Portland "Made in Oregon" fair. When flax samples are wanted, people go to the only place in Oregon, Scio, where flax can be grown to the greatest degree of perfection, to get it.

Five women and a tiny little babe, followers of Holy Roller Creffield, were found last Saturday near Heceta Head in a starving condition. They refuse to believe that Creffield is dead, saying that he is the "Second Messiah," and that they would rather starve than to disobey him. They had been subsisting for days upon such shellfish as they could get along the coast.

The Federal government will in a short time demonstrate, in a practical way, how scientific good roads can be built, by building and completing two miles of road in Oregon in the near future. One mile is to be built in Eastern Oregon, and the other will be constructed near Salem. When the last-named mile is building it is urged that all who are connected in any with road building in the Willamette Valley and Western Oregon, shall be present and witness the exhibition.

We are in receipt of a somewhat unique invitation to attend a session of the Farmers' and Shippers' Congress, to be held on May 23-24, 1906, at North Bend, Coos County. The invitation is printed on a fine sample of Port Orford cedar. The border is formed by representations of seashells. In the center is represented a huge sea crab, on the back of which is printed the invitation. As a novel and handsome invitation card our Coos County friends have certainly taken the whole bakeshop.

Scio was pretty well filled with political candidates Monday night. Democratic candidates who had visited Shelburn in the afternoon, spent the night here. Among the number were Hon. M. A. Miller, State Senate; H. M. Payne, County Clerk; D. S. Smith, Sheriff; Ira A. Phelps, Recorder; Hi. Powell, Commissioner, and Republican Candidate George W. Wright, State Senator, and Mr. Bailey, of Brownsville. All were quite busy hobnobbing with our citizens and we presume went on their various ways believing that they had persuaded about every one to vote for them. The Democrats were billed for Kingston Tuesday morning, Rock Creek, Fox Valley, Jordan, and returning to Scio Thursday evening; thence to Lacomb, finishing up the week at Lebanon.

Public Speaking.

The Honorable C. V. Galloway, the Democratic candidate for Congress, will address citizens of Linn County, at Scio, on Monday, May 28th, at 2 o'clock P. M. All voters that can should attend this meeting, for those who do will be more than pleased to hear the eloquent speaker. Ladies are especially invited to attend.

Charles Wesely! Wesely Charles!!

He sells the Phoenix Paint and when he tells you the price you don't have to faint. He will give you a guarantee, and that is the way he has his competitors quarantined. He also has Wall Paper that is surely the caper for the kitchen, parlor or dining room. You can use his wall paper and that will make it room. He has lots of other things to mention, but it would cost too much for extended mention. AMEN.

Mr. J. Mon Foo,

An experienced compounder of Chinese medicines, successor to the late Hong Wo Tong, of Albany, Oregon, is now prepared to furnish Chinese medicine to all. The undersigned recommends him and guarantees satisfaction. Call or write him at No. 117 West Second Street, Albany, Oregon.

THE STATE GRANGE.

The 33d annual session of the Oregon State Grange, P. of H., will be held in Albany commencing May 22d, 1906; first session opening at 10 o'clock A. M., in the A. O. U. W. Hall. The committee of general arrangements appointed at the beginning of the year by the President of the Linn County Council, to look after the entertainment of those attending this session, consisting of W. W. Francis, C. L. Shaw, L. B. Luper, F. D. Cornett, and George W. Wright met soon after their appointment, organized and appointed subcommittees with chairmen as follows: Finance, F. D. Cornett; Music, L. B. Luper; Exemplification of the Work, C. L. Shaw; Hall and Reception, W. W. Francis; Decorations and Banquet for Fifth and Sixth Degrees, Mrs. Clara Swank; Hotels, George W. Wright.

These committees have been diligently at work and at their committee meeting the other day reported that everything will be in readiness to meet and greet all attending the State Grange. At this latter meeting a Reception Committee was appointed consisting of S. A. Dawsen, Chairman; H. C. Powell, H. M. Palmer, J. W. Swank, D. H. Bodine, J. H. Scott, T. Froman, F. D. Cornett, C. L. Shaw, L. B. Luper, Mrs. N. E. Olin, Clara Swank, Eugene Palmer, B. M. Shanon, S. S. Train, and G. W. Wright.

Tuesday evening, May 22d, there will be a public welcome reception to the officers and members. Wednesday evening, May 23d, the Fourth Degree will be exemplified, and on Thursday evening the Fifth and Sixth degrees will be conferred. Those intending taking the Fifth and Sixth degrees should bear in mind that these degrees are to be given only on Thursday evening, May 24th. All these meetings will be held in the A. O. U. W. Hall.

There will probably be about 150 visitors in the city from the outside counties. Each member will be provided with a badge so you will know them. Extend the hand of glad fellowship to these visitors so when they return to their homes they will speak words of praise for Albany's friendship, beauty and hospitality.—Democrat.

McCall-Huber Wedding.

A very pretty home wedding occurred at the residence of Mr. Jacob Huber, six miles Northeast of Scio, on Wednesday, May 16, when Mr. A. R. McCall and Mrs. Stacy Huber were united in marriage, by Rev. J. O. Richmond. Only the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties witnessed the ceremony. After congratulations, the company was invited to the dining room where a sumptuous repast had been spread. Mr. and Mrs. McCall are highly-esteemed residents of Linn County, and their many friends join in wishing them a happy voyage through life.

Sawmill for Sale—A Snap.

We have for sale a first class-saw mill that is worthy of the attention of any lumberman who is looking for such property.

The mill is capable of cutting 25,000 feet of lumber in ten hours; has splendid engine power, cut off and edging saws; the latest up-to-date planer; turning lathe; has logging engine with 600 feet of cable etc.

With the mill is included 360 acres of fine timber. Logs can be put into the pond at a cost of 50 cents per thousand. The price for the whole business is $10,000. For particulars inquire of the SANTIAM NEWS.

Republican Dates.

The Republican County candidates will be on the campaign canvass next week. The following are the dates set: Mill City, May 21; Scio, May 22; Lacomb and Lebanon, May 23; Brownsville, May 24; Sprenger's Grove, May 25; Peoria, May 26; Harrisburg, May 31; Shedd, June 1; Albany, June 2.

Threshed Oats, Sheaf Oats, Vetch Hay

I have a quantity of threshed oats, sheaf oats, and vetch hay for sale at my farm, three miles South of Scio. All first-class and reasonable.

S. W. GAINES.

How Old Is Ann?

If it takes a column and a half of space in the Oregonian for Pete D'Arcy to tell the reasons why Dr. Withycombe should be elected, how long would it have taken him to count out Judge Boise if he had not been caught?

Wood Wanted.

All parties who have contracted with the NEWS to pay subscription in wood, will please deliver the same at once. We will then know how much to buy.

PROVIDENCE ITEMS.

The farmers are enjoying the fine rain.

Mrs. Ed Young called on Mrs. Lee last Wednesday.

Alois Vana visited Mr. Groulik and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Garland went over to Albany on business last Wednesday.

Jason Barnes, wife and daughter, Cora, came over from the Albany prairie Saturday to visit with relatives. They returned home Monday.

There will be a school picnic at Lacomb next Friday. Four schools expect to be in attendance and each with a fine program.

F. A. Stacy and family and Jason Barnes and family Sundayed with Elmer Barnes and family, near Lacomb.

Harry Freeman and F. A. Stacy each had an extra large colony of bees swarm last Wednesday, but Mr. Freeman was not fortunate enough to save his bees.

Mr. and Mrs. John Garland attended the two sermons Sunday, preached by Rev. George L. Sutherland, at the school house at the second bridge crossing Thomas Creek, East of Scio. There was a large crowd in attendance.

Crabtree's merchant, Mr. Turnidge, who has been trying to get a charter on the Crabtree Creek, and has failed, now wants to compromise with the people; but when they wanted to compromise with him, he would not. Now it is very doubtful if he gets to float his ties and wood down the stream at all.

The Neal brothers have been very busy for the past week sorting and sacking potatoes. With the taking of two other men they now have several hundred bushels ready for market.
