The handsomest baby in Oregon or Washington. Whose is it? Sheriff White, Commissioner Russell, and Candidate for Representative Upmeyer, of the Republican ticket, arrived in this city Tuesday morning, and Geo. W. Wright, for the State Senate, Grant Froman, for Recorder, and T. J. Cleeton, of Portland, representing Jonathan Bourne, came down from Mill City in the evening.

Commissioner Russell proved to be the most entertaining speaker at the late Republican rally. By the way, it is becoming pretty generally known that Commissioner Russell is the brake that is endeavoring to hold back the extravagance of the present County Court. He opposed the building of the Brownsville-Blue River wagon road, an extravagance that will cost the County, all told, more than $20,000.

The Republican Rally.

Quite a good audience, composed principally of ladies and Democrats, greeted the Republican candidates in this city last Tuesday evening. The Band rendered several selections of music upon the streets, when the candidates and people repaired to the Wesely-Cain Hall. The hall had been nicely decorated by the ladies and should have enabled the speakers to work the audience up to an enthusiastic humor. But the audience wouldn't work. We guess there were too many Democrats present. A reference to President Roosevelt, by Jonathan Bourne's spellbinder, brought a feeble applause. Aside from this the audience was as still as the grave, except when a speaker retired. We could not say whether the applause at this time was in honor to the speaker, or was an evidence that the audience was glad the speaker had taken his seat. The Republican candidates are very pleasant gentlemen. The Democrats paid them the compliment of going out to hear them. But few Republicans attended the Democratic meeting last week. In the future let us all go out and hear a speaker, no matter what party he represents. We are none of us too old to learn; besides, it makes a speaker feel better and he will speak better of our town.

For Equal Suffrage.

Miss Gail Laughlin, A. B., L.L. B., of Boston, Mass., and who is now campaigning Oregon in the interests of equal suffrage, will address the citizens of Scio and vicinity at the Baptist Church at 7:30 P. M., Saturday. Miss Laughlin is an eloquent speaker, of national renown, and will deliver a very entertaining and instructive lecture. She merits a good audience.

Republican Dates.

The Republican County candidates will be on the campaign canvass next week. The following are the dates set: Mill City, May 21; Scio, May 22; Lacomb and Lebanon, May 23; Brownsville, May 24; Sprenger's Grove, May 25; Peoria, May 26; Harrisburg, May 31; Shedd, June 1; Albany, June 2.

All parties who have contracted with the NEWS to pay subscription in wood, will please deliver the same at once. We will then know how much to buy.

DEATH OF MRS. FRANK CRABTREE

On Sunday the sad intelligence of the death of Mrs. Christine Crabtree, wife of Frank Crabtree, reached this city. As both Mr. and Mrs. Crabtree were born, raised and married near this city, and lived in and near here until their removal to Lane County, they are well and most favorably known by all of the older residents of the Northern and Eastern part of Linn County.

The family of Mr. Crabtree were of the very first pioneers that came to Linn County, and the parents of Mrs. Crabtree came to the County shortly thereafter. Hon. William Cyrus, Mrs. Crabtree's father, was one of Linn County's most prominent farmers. Having been a member of the Legislature and Master of the State Grange when it was first organized, his acquaintanceship extended over the greater part of the Willamette Valley. The Cyrus donation homestead lies on Crabtree Creek, some five or six miles Southeast of Scio. Here Mrs. Crabtree was born. She was the tenth child of the family of eleven children born to Mr. Cyrus by his first wife. By a second wife he had three children. These fourteen children, with step-children and grand-children, making a total of twenty-five, was the family reared by him.

Mrs. Crabtree was born on the old homestead, January 13, 1854. Here her girlhood days were passed. Her education was obtained, principally, in the district schools and, reaching womanhood, she was married to Frank Crabtree, at her father's home, on October 29, 1876.

To this union eight children were born, five sons and three daughters, of whom five are now living, four sons and one daughter. Ora, the eldest child, and Ava, the fourth child, passed away several years a o and, with their mother, lie buried in Franklin Butte Cemetery. Otto, the eldest son, met his death by drowning while bathing, when on a visit to California relatives, and occupies a California grave. The living children live with or near their father, at the farm near Cottage Grove.

In the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Crabtree, two of the oldest, most respected and numerous families in the Forks of the Santiam, were united. The number of relatives is large and, being exemplary citizens, their friends are legion. Mr. Crabtree's high standing among his neighbors was evidenced by their electing him to serve one term as County Clerk.

Mrs. Crabtree possessed an unexceptionably lovable character and amiable disposition. Ever ready to tender a word of sympathy to a neighbor in time of trouble, or to give substantial aid in time of need, she was loved by all as being a most womanly woman.

The cause of her death, which occurred on May 19, 1906, was pronounced by her physician to be a cancerous affection of the liver. Her sickness covered a period of six months. During the last five weeks her sister, Mrs. Dorris, of California, was at her bedside. The sister, the husband, and children were anxiously willing to minister to the wants and alleviate the pain of the loved sister, wife and mother. But their tears and their anxious care were of no avail. They could but stand by the bedside and witness the life of the loved one pass away. Mrs. Crabtree thankfully surrendered to the Pale Messenger, for to her, death was gain. Mr. Crabtree, children, and sister brought the remains of the loved one to Crabtree Station, reaching there on the morning train Monday. Here they were met by a large number of relatives and friends, who accompanied them upon the last stage of their sad journey. At the cemetery the sorrowing family and friends were met by a large number of relatives and friends from this city and vicinity, to witness the laying away of their loved relative and friend, and to extend the hand of sympathy to the living. Rev. Elmore, of Brownsville, conducted the burial service.

Death, most generally, is an unwelcome guest. But to the sufferer, whose disease is incurable, it should be a welcome messenger. And when we look upon death as simply opening the door to wider spheres of usefulness, and as the enfoldment of greater opportunities, we can well say, "Oh Death, where is thy sting? Oh Grave, where is thy victory?"

[Albany and Cottage Grove papers are requested to copy.]

A. M. HOLT,

Republican candidate for the House of Representatives, was born at Jefferson, Marion County, 37 years ago. He is one of the bright, up-to-date business men of Albany, and if elected, will represent the true interests of the people of Linn County. The day is at hand when some of the younger class of our fellow-citizens must take hold of the Ship of State. Mr. Holt is one of these. Bright, honest, true to the people's interest, he will not be found wanting when any question comes up affecting the people's interests. You will not make a mistake if you vote for him.

An Enthusiastic Meeting.

The County Democratic candidates visited Scio last Thursday evening. They were given a cordial and enthusiastic reception by our citizens. The meeting of the evening was held at the City Hall, which was filled to overflowing after some musical selections by the Scio Band. The leading speaker of the evening was Hon. M. A. Miller, candidate for the State Senate. He was followed by Candidates for Representative F. J. Denney and L. C. Stratton. For some reason V. W. Robinett, the third candidate for the Legislature, was unable to be present. These were followed by short gingery talks by County Clerk Payne, Candidate for Sheriff D. S. Smith, Candidate for Treasurer Caldwell and Candidate for County Commissioner H. R. Powell. Quite a number of Republicans were in attendance. The prevailing opinion as expressed since the visit is that the ticket as a whole is an exceptionally good one and one that commends itself.

Paul Rader Speaking.

Paul Rader, who is delivering addresses throughout the valley in the interests of prohibition, delivered a very entertaining lecture at the Baptist Church, in this city, last Saturday afternoon. Mr. Rader is a very pleasing, forceful, and at the same time reasonable speaker. He had a good audience and his lecture was enjoyed by those who heard him.

AN OPEN LETTER.

TO THE VOTERS OF OREGON, GREETING:

The undersigned submit to you a few of our reasons for asking to ratify, by your affirmative votes, the amendment granting equal rights to women, which has been placed before the voters through a petition numerously signed by the men of Oregon under the Initiative and Referendum.

This movement has grown under your management from the small beginning, known as the Married Woman's Sole Trader Bill, enacted by your Legislative Assembly in 1872, until it has reached such vast proportions as to attract the attention of the civilized world. A Constitutional amendment proposing women's enfranchisement, submitted to you in 1884, brought us an affirmative vote of 11,223. This amendment was again submitted to your suffrage by Legislative initiative in 1900, bringing us a vote of 26,265. Although the population of the commercial centers had more than doubled in sixteen years, the "No" vote was only increased by 226, while the "Yes" vote was augmented by 15,042. This, to us, is a palpable augury of the triumph which we confidently look to you to consummate for us on the 4th day of June by placing "X" between "302" and "Yes" on your ballots. Do this and you will honor our flag of truce, the only power we can offer in our defense against the balloted forces of the opposition. Do this, and you will honor Oregon, your mothers and yourselves.

And your petitioners will ever pray:

ABIGAIL SCOTT DUNIWAY,
Honorary President Oregon Equal Suffrage Association and State Federation of Woman's Clubs.

MRS. HENRY WALDO COE,
President Oregon Equal Suffrage Association.

CHARLOTTE MOFFOTT CARTWRIGHT,
President Woman's Pioneer Auxiliary Association.

SARAH N. EVANS,
President Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs.

ESTHER C. POHL, M. D.
President Woman's Medical Association.

Public Speaking.

The Honorable C. V. Galloway, the Democratic candidate for Congress, will address citizens of Linn County, at Scio, on Monday, May 28th, at 2 o'clock P. M. All voters that can should attend this meeting, for those who do will be more than pleased to hear the eloquent speaker. Ladies are especially invited to attend.

Pleasant Birthday Gathering.

A very pleasant social affair took place at the farm home of E. Piatt, near Shelburn May 20th, 1906, this being Mr. Piatt's 64th birthday. After spending a social hour, the friends repaired to the dining room where the table was laden with delicacies, which the ladies had brought with them, to which all did ample justice. Late in the afternoon the people returned to their homes wishing Mr. Piatt many more happy birthdays. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. Piatt, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Churchill, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wolf, Mrs. Helen Churchill, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Leffler, Mr. and Mrs. Isaiah Piatt, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Piatt, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hull, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Miller, Mrs. C. D. Osborn, Miss Nona Miller, Miss Bertha Wolf, Delmer Churchill, Hiram Wolf, Will H Leffler, Erell Osborn, J. William Miller, Prof. J. R. Geddes, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Smith.

Notice.

If you want any repairs for your binder, mower, or rake, now is the time to order. Leave the orders here and we will get them for you in time. Don't wait till harvest. CHARLES WESELY.

PROVIDENCE ITEMS.

George Garland was at Scio Wednesday on business.

William Neal was at Lebanon Monday on business.

Mrs. Harry Freeman called on Mrs. Ed Young Thursday.

John Garland and Cecil Crumes were at Scio Monday on business.

Mrs. Julia Clark visited Mrs. George Soule last week.

Mrs. Lee, who is suffering with a rose cancer, has not been feeling so well since last Friday.

Mr. Thibado went down to Joe Munkers' last Friday to help repair a cream separator.

Mrs. Charles Tate and children, of Lebanon, visited Mr. and Mrs. Lee a few days last week.

Mrs. Beals is at Astoria at the bedside of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Henry Julian, who was not expected to live, but is now improving.

Two weeks ago we stated that we would have only two weeks more of school; but the directors have decided to have another month yet, as there is plenty of money in the treasury. This will give us nine months of school this year.

Mrs. Freeman received word Saturday that her mother, Mrs. Birchard, who has been sick for a long time, is worse and not expected to live many days.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Lee entertained Mrs. Freeman and daughter, Olive, Mrs. Propst and daughter, Grace, Mrs. Geo. Compton and daughters, Ada and Lora, this week.

There was preaching at Providence Church Sunday and the usual number attended.

MADE FROM NATIVE ROOTS.

SAFE AND RELIABLE.

That the roots of many native plants, growing wild in our American forests, possess remarkable properties for the cure of human maladies is well proven. Even the untutored Indian had learned the curative value of some of these and taught the early settlers their uses. The Indian never liked work so he wanted his squaw to get well as soon as possible that she might do the work and let him hunt. Therefore, he dug "papoose root" for her, for that was their great remedy for female weaknesses. Dr. Pierce uses the same root—called Blue Cohosh—in his "Favorite Prescription," skillfully combined with other agents that make it more effective than any other medicine in curing all the various weaknesses and painful derangements peculiar to women.

Many afflicted women have been saved from the operating table and the surgeon's knife by the timely use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Tenderness over the lower pelvic region, with backache, spells of dizziness, faintness, bearing down pains or distress should not go unheeded. A course of "Favorite Prescription" will work marvelous benefit in all such cases, and generally effect a permanent cure if persisted in for a reasonable length of time. The "Favorite Prescription" is a harmless agent, being wholly prepared from native medicinal roots, without a drop of alcohol in its make up, whereas all other medicines, put up for sale through druggists for woman's peculiar ailments, contain large quantities of spirituous liquors, which are very harmful, especially to delicate women. "Favorite Prescription" contains neither alcohol nor harmful habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients are printed on each bottle wrapper. It is a powerful invigorating tonic, imparting health and strength in particular to the organs distinctly feminine. For weak and sickly women, who are "worn-out," or debilitated, especially for women who work in store, office, or school-room, who sit at the typewriter or sewing machine, or bear heavy household burdens, and for nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will prove a priceless benefit because of its health-restoring and strength-giving power.

For constipation, the true, scientific cure is Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Mild, harmless, yet sure.
