PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, There was submitted to the electors of the State at the last general election as required by law an initiative petition for

"A law to provide additional revenue for State purposes; to levy a license on the gross earnings of sleeping car companies, refrigerator car companies, and oil companies; defining a sleeping car company, a refrigerator car company, and an oil company within the meaning of this act; defining the manner of ascertaining the amount of such gross receipts; providing a penalty for violating the provisions of this act;" and

WHEREAS, On the 26th day of June, 1906, the Secretary of State in my presence as Governor of the State of Oregon did canvass the votes given for and against said law, and

WHEREAS, It was ascertained and determined upon such canvass that there were 69,635 votes cast for said proposed law, and 6,441 votes against the same, and that said law received an affirmative majority of the total number of effective votes cast thereon and entitled to be counted under the provisions of law,

Now, therefore, I, George E. Chamberlain, as Governor of the State of Oregon, in obedience to and by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by law, do hereby make and issue this proclamation to the people of the State of Oregon, and do announce and declare that the whole number of votes cast in the State of Oregon at said election for and against said proposed law was as hereinbefore stated, and that said proposed law received an affirmative majority of the total number of votes cast thereon and entitled to be counted under the provisions of law, and that said law hereinbefore mentioned shall be and is in full force and effect as the law of the State of Oregon from the date of this proclamation.

Done at the Capitol at Salem this 25th day of June, A. D. 1906.

GEORGE E. CHAMBERLAIN.
Governor of Oregon.

By the Governor:
F. I. DUNBAR, Secretary of State.

Our late spell of hot weather, coupled with hot winds, did great damage to Eastern Oregon grain crops, estimated to be nearly fifty per cent of the crop. The damage to Linn County crops will be much less, though the yield will undoubtedly be cut to some extent.

We are told a pretty good story of a lady in town whose health has not been good for some time. In gathering berries she came in contact with a yellow-jacket's nest. The activity she displayed convinced her husband that he was in no danger of having to attend her funeral for some time yet.

A strike of all the Portland electric car line operators seems imminent. The operators demand a small increase in pay and a recognition of their union. This request, especially the latter, is flatly refused by the electric car companies. The final decision was made yesterday.

Judge Frazer, of the Juvenile Court, Portland, requires boys who steal money for the first offense to earn the money by work and make good the amount stolen. Judge Frazer certainly the right man in the right place. He understands small boy nature and how to inflict punishment that hurts.

From a patch of ground 21 by 60 feet square a Medford man has so far this year gathered and sold berries to the value of $65. An acre of ground planted to strawberries and producing the same proportionate amount of berries and sold at the same price would yield an income of over $2200.

A Kansas City iceman testified under oath that he started in the business of making ice with a capital of $400 and the following year succeeded in making a clear profit of $45,000, and five years later owned a plant valued at $40,000. It might be supposed that such opportunities in high finance were confined to Kansas City, but this view is corrected by testimony of this particular iceman that ice could be manufactured at from $1.75 to $1.85 per ton.

Robt. L. Dorris, who resided in this city many years ago with his parents, died at the home of his mother in Albany last Saturday. His mother, Mrs. Mary E. Governor Chamberlain is in possession of a number of original letters written by the statesmen of the Revolutionary period. The letters were received by an ancestor of the Governor and are in an excellent state of preservation. There are letters from the pen of Washington, Jefferson, Franklin, Jay, and others. The chirography of the letters is infinitely superior to that of any of our present day statesmen. They are models in diction as well. The Governor is as careful of his treasures as it is possible to be.

Reliable information from Canada shows that the Dominion Government is in fear that its Western provinces may break away from the Canadian federation. There is said to be much unrest in the Northwest, where the population is largely American. When the James J. Hill chain of roads is finished, it is said, the whole Canadian West from Vancouver to Winnepeg will cease to use the Canadian Pacific or the Grand Trunk Pacific. Duluth will become the chief lake port in place of Fort William for Manitoba wheat, and New York and Boston instead of Montreal, Quebec and St. John.

Telephone Girl Suicides.

Ethel Rooker, telephone operator for the Independent Telephone Company, committed suicide at Plainview on Friday morning of last week by blowing the top of her head off with a shotgun. The supposed cause of the rash act was despondency because of a love affair. She had had some words with a sister-in-law with whom she boarded, when at the breakfast table. Retiring to her room a few minutes thereafter, the report of the gun alarmed the household. Investigation showed that she had accomplished her purpose in a manner most ghastly. Miss Rooker had been annoyed for some time by someone tapping on her window at night and she had the gun in her chamber as a means of protection. Coroner Fortmiller was notified and visited the scene of the tragedy. After making a sufficient investigation, he concluded that evidences of suicide were so conclusive that the services of a jury were not necessary. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Rooker, of eight miles East of Crabtree, was 18 years old, and usually of a cheerful, happy disposition.

Too New.

For two days this week the principal part of the mail went up to the Front before it was turned over to the messenger at Munkers. Just why the C. & E. agent should wish to retain the mail we are unable to say. We are told that the agent is a new man. He must be. In fact he must be too new, or he would not attempt to read the larger portion of the eastbound mail. We will excuse him this time, but it would be wise for him to get down to business. Just why any man, no matter how raw he might be, should make the same mistake two or three times in succession, is difficult to understand.

Went to the Bay.

The C. & E. excursion from Detroit to the Bay last Sunday was participated in by quite a number of SCIOANS. Those who went were: Messrs. Charles and Joe Wesely, A. C. Cornelius, Ed. Myers, and Mr. Roy, of Stayton, and Misses Rosa Sticha, Agnes Cain, Agnes Wesely, Ida Miles, Grace and Imogene Gill, and Eva Bilyeu. All reported a splendid time.

PROPOSED OREGON TAX LAWS.

The changes in the Oregon Tax Laws, proposed by the State Tax Commission for enactment by the next Legislature, are as follows:

Taxation of railroads, steam and electric, and of power companies operating in more than one county, on basis of net earnings, capitalized at a fair interest rate.

Taxation of banks, National, State, and private, on capital stock, surplus and undivided profits.

Reduction of the household exemption from $300 to $200.

County Treasurer, instead of Sheriff, to be tax collector.

Washington system of certificates of tax delinquency, in the interest of better tax titles.

State to receive 10 per cent of liquor licenses.

Tax Commission of five members, to be created for the purpose of assessing public utility corporations and supervising all assessments in the State.

Franchises not to be directly taxed, but to be taken into consideration by the board in determining the taxable valuation of a public service corporation, according to the systems in Michigan and Wisconsin.

First assessment under new method to be made in 1908, and first levy and collection in 1909.

The new code will not touch express, telephone, telegraph, sleeping car, and oil companies, which are to be taxed by the Initiative laws enacted June 4.

Active Railroad Construction.

A Prineville paper states: Central and Southern Oregon has suddenly become the storm center of interest in railroad construction. The Oregon Trunk Line is building with speed up the Des Chutes River to Madras, the Harriman from Natron to Klamath County is nearly ready for the grading gangs, the road from Northern California into Klamath County is well under way, the Oregon Short Line is projecting a road rapidly from the Snake River westward to meet the line from Natron, the Medford & Crater Lake Railroad has been sold to Michigan capitalists, who have paid down an advance of $5000 and are perfecting arrangements for continuing construction of the road to Prospect, and the Southern Pacific is clearing right of way for its road from Drain to Coos Bay. According to Wallis Nash, representative of the Christian Federation, it is practically certain also that the Corvallis & Eastern will be extended from Idanha eastward through the State.

Pay up at Once.

My former customers from whom accounts for beef are due, are hereby notified that I have sold the Farmers Meat Market, to Mr. George Koeneke who is now in charge of the same. I desire to close up all book accounts, which I retained, at once. Therefore all persons knowing themselves indebted to me for beef furnished, are urgently requested to call on me and settle the same at once.

GUY MCKNIGHT.

Bids Wanted.

BUTTER CREEK ITEMS.

We are still killing rattlesnakes.

Wanted—Any information concerning Gilbert McDonald.

Erma Irvine entertained some young friends Tuesday evening.

George Daley went to Ione the 8th to work in a butcher shop.

Frank Irvine and Bud Bilyeu are haying down at Mr. Barker's.

Claud Calavan came over from Scio Saturday and will work during haying.

We were glad to meet Glenn Ferguson and Mac Vaughn in Echo a few days ago.

A. C. Davis, of Spokane, spent the week of the Fourth with L. L. Calavan's family.

Perry Bilyeu and wife have returned to Antone Veys to cook for the men who are putting up their second crop of alfalfa.

Mrs. B. W. Redman and son, George, of Freeman, Wash., have been visiting the former's neices, Miss Cora Vincent and Mrs. L. L. Calavan.

Al. Moore and family went over to Heppner July 9th. His family returned home the 13th, but Al. will remain in Heppner until after haying.

We miss the shade trees we left in the valley these warm days, but the breeze which blows every day from the Columbia makes the weather seem much cooler.

Most of the Scio people and some Butter Creek people gathered at the Calavan Ranch on the Fourth. They had a regular country dinner, ice cream and lemonade in the afternoon, and fireworks at night.

We are glad to state that little Bruce Munkers is much improved in health and can see more distinctly. He says he does not want to leave the "Monkey wrench" (ranch), which is the name he has given his home.

JUST AN ECHO.

PROVIDENCE ITEMS.

Hay harvest is progressing nicely in this vicinity.

Harvest hands are very scarce and wages high.

Mrs. Lee's cancer is getting along as well as could be expected. The heat the past week has caused her to suffer more.

Mrs. Ed. Young's sister, Anna Claypool, of Lebanon, who fell 15 feet out of a cherry tree, is reported getting along nicely.

Mrs. Emma Tate, of Lebanon, came down to C. C. Lee's Saturday evening and returned home Sunday evening.

Mrs. John Garland went over to Albany last Wednesday, returning Thursday.

Judge Barnes, son James, and daughter, Nellie, of Scio, visited at the home of F. A. Stacy Sunday evening.

Charles Cawres purchased a new hay loader this season. It works to perfection, putting on a load of cheat hay in three minutes.

"PRUDENCE."

MUNKERS ITEMS.

(Delayed from last week.)

Ed Smith was at Albany on business last week.

Mrs. I. A. Munkers and daughter, of Albany, were the guests of the former's sister, Mrs. Joe Munkers, last week.

Mrs. J. Shilling is visiting relatives in Benton County this week.

Mrs. S. Hornback, of Albany, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Chas. Shelley, last week.

Rev. Father Lane, of Albany, was a guest at the home of D. Donahue last week.

J. T. Funk, Virgil Shilling, Steve Jones, and Guy Funk were fishing over by Albany last Saturday and Sunday. Guy reports a good time and says they got a few bites, but suckers will bite most any time of the year.

BIDS US A LONG FAREWELL.

ALBANY, OR., July 16, 1906.

T. L. Dugger, Esq., Scio, Oregon.

MY DEAR SIR AND FRIEND:—

I write to say farewell, as I take my leave forever of Albany and the legions of friends I leave behind me. I regret more than I can express that I must go, but I am growing old and feeble, and I feel impelled to return to China to spend the remainder of my days among my kindred in the land of my birth, but before doing so I wish to express, in a few brief words, the feeling of gratitude for the many friends I have found in Oregon. I have experienced nothing but kindness from this people, this American people. I cannot see and say good bye to all, but you may convey to them my adieus, and thank them for the numberless acts of kindness shown me in the past thirty-four years.

My son remains behind and succeeds me in the business with Dr. J. Mon Foo in the Chinese drug store in Albany, and I trust he will not only receive, but merit the kindness and trust the people have ever accorded me.

Very truly, &c,
JIM WESTFALL,
(In Chinese, LEE GIN.)
