ECONOMY SHOULD BE THE WATCHWORD

In less than three months the Oregon Legislature will convene down at Salem. A few years ago the meeting of this body was eagerly looked forward to by the people. The people then expected legislation along lines of wisdom that would contribute to their prosperity and happiness. Laws that were mischievous and susceptible of construction not intended by the framers were amended or repealed. New laws, that development of the State and good government required, were enacted.

A different feeling for the legislative body has grown up among the people in recent years. A feeling akin to dread has supplanted the old-time confidence. People now wonder just how deeply they will be required to dig down into their pockets to foot the bill of appropriations that our lawmakers will agree upon, for whatever the Legislature appropriates the people seem determined to pay. The effort to veto the extravagant appropriations of last session was severely sat upon by the people, so whatever appropriations the Legislature sees proper to make, no matter for what purpose, will be paid.

So, as we seem to be at the mercy of our lawmakers—that is to say our pocketbooks are—let us urge and hope that the deliberations at the coming session will be guided by a wise economy.

No doubt lobbies will be on hand from special sections of the State, urging the importance of their particular graft. The Normal School lobby is sure to be on hand and instead of simply asking for an appropriation of money, will demand it. The State will also be asked to build a few miles more of railway at The Dalles and possibly an appropriation will be asked to carry on the jetty work at the mouth of the Columbia. Portland legislators will say that as Portland pays about one-fifth of the taxes of the State she is entitled to whatever she asks, and which she will probably get.

This session will also make a new apportionment of Senators and Representatives. Let us hope that in making the apportionment our legislators will be guided by exact justice and not give us a political gerrymander, as was done ten years ago.

The people hope that economy will be the watchword at the coming session, but they are fearful that it will not be. A great many persons think that as the people sustained the extravagance of last session legislators will look upon the vote of last June as an indorsement of big appropriations and will give us an increased dose of the same medicine next Winter. This interpretation of the people's action last June is probably correct. The people practically said we enjoy paying heavy taxes for in our prosperous condition a few dollars more annually amounts to but little and besides our ability to pay a heavy tax is a proof that we are prosperous. Some day the people will awaken to the fact that they are being buncoed and will give the party responsible a rebuke most pointed. They will conclude that for the taxes they pay they are entitled to a full return in good, economical government, and not the job lot of extravagance that late legislatures have been serving up to the State. About the limit in taxation has been reached. Retrenchment and reform should sometime have an inning.

THE COMING FARMERS' INSTITUTE.

Every farmer in the locality of Scio should be present on the evening of the 26th and during the day of the 27th insts., at our Farmers' Institute. The meeting is entirely and exclusively for the benefit of the farmer and stockbreeder. Even if your work is pressing and you can illy spare the day, it will doubly repay you to take the day off and attend.

Every intelligent farmer and stockbreeder desires to obtain the very best results from his particular efforts. If he has not been as successful heretofore as he desired, there is some reason why he made a failure in whole or in part. Come to the Institute and Dr. Withycombe and others, who have been successful, will show you why you were not entirely successful and point out to you the road to success.

Dr. Withycombe, and other gentlemen who will be with him, are men who have given scientific investigation and experiment to the breeding of stock and to the production of grains, grasses, vegetables, and everything that may be grown with profit on the farm. Hence their lectures will be replete with the things the progressive farmer and stockbreeder wants to and ought to know.

At the Institute it is intended to complete the preliminary steps for the organization of the Santiam Stockbreeders' and Agricultural Fair Society, another enterprise that is for the exclusive benefit of the farmer. Our farmers can well afford to lay aside work for one day to attend the Institute. Ideas may and probably will be developed which, if carried out, would be worth thousands of dollars to Eastern Linn County. Progress should be the watchword of all and we should make use of every opportunity to obtain knowledge, and our efforts in this respect should be along lines of the least resistance.

HE MAY, OR HE MAY NOT!

Probably the most peculiar political campaign that has ever occurred in the Empire State is now on. Just what the result will be is somewhat of a conundrum.

William R. Hearst, who is the nominee of the Independent League and of the Democratic party, is attracting an unusual amount of attention. After having been nominated by the Independent League people, of which party he was the recognized leader and instigator, he succeeded in having himself indorsed by the Democratic party in spite of the opposition of a majority of the Democratic leaders. Quite a large number of prominent Democrats refuse point blank to support Mr. Hearst and are now actively supporting his Republican opponent, Mr. Charles E. Hughes.

Mr. Hearst's defeat would be a foregone conclusion were it not the case that there are many Republicans who will give him their support. From a political viewpoint the situation is quite unique. Mr. Hearst will be supported by a large majority of the Democrats and a minority of the Republicans. Mr. Hughes will be supported by a large majority of the Republicans a minority of the Democrats. At the present time Mr. Hughes looks the winner by a handsome majority. In addition to his having the active support of some leading Democrats, President Roosevelt is giving him all the assistance in the fight he can.

But then Mr. Hearst has shown himself to be a politician of the first order and an organizer of immense ability. Prior to the meeting of the Democratic State Convention Democratic leaders scoffed the idea of Mr. Hearst's indorsement by the Buffalo Convention, yet when the convention met it was soon ascertained that Mr. Hearst was in complete control of it. He was nominated for Governor on the first ballot and had many votes to spare. It is conceded by unprejudiced judges that Mr. Hearst is decidedly in the race. He is conducting a whirlwind campaign, regardless of cost. He carries a first-class brass band, vocalists and vaudeville artists with him, and consequently is attracting enormous crowds at every appointment. Being a newspaper man, Mr. Hearst knows well the power of judicious advertising. He has bought pages of space in many newspapers that oppose his candidacy, and at points that he cannot visit he has graphophone records of his speeches circulated.

If the Republican party was harmoniously united Mr. Hughes would be an easy winner. But that party is badly split into factions, Both United States Senators Platt and Depew are in disgrace. If the Democrats were at all harmonious and united they would win, hands down.

So with both parties disunited the present campaign is conducted on almost personal grounds exclusively. It is not a fight of Republicans vs. Democrats, but a contest between Mr. Hughes and Mr. Hearst. Gamblers are now offering odds in the betting in favor of Hughes, but we have noticed in the past that bettors are often mistaken.

We may therefore look for most any kind of result in New York when the vote is counted. Mr. Hearst may be overwhelmingly defeated, or he may be elected. If he is elected in spite of the opposition of the Republican and a part of the Democratic parties and of that of President Roosevelt, he will be very nearly the biggest man, politically, in the Nation, and a dangerous aspirant for the nomination for president.

San Francisco seems to be in a deplorable condition. The city police department seems wholly incapable to protect the citizens against thugs, highwaymen, hold-up men and fiends who attack women. So bold and regardless of law officers have the law-breakers become that there is strong talk of organizing a vigilance committee, similar to that of the early days. Unless Mayor Schmitz can maintain a police system that can and will rid the city of the lawless element, his administration will go down in disgrace. A city government that fails to govern, yet accepts salaries for doing so, is but little removed from the ordinary highway robber. Attorney Heney openly states that the San Francisco courts are largely to blame for allowing legal technicalities to protect the lawbreakers. It was just such work that caused the formation of the vigilantes in the '50s.

Hon. M. A. Miller, who was elected last June to succeed himself in the State Senate, will have considerable to say on the school book question during the next session. He has data to show that Oregon pays nearly double the price paid in any other state for the same textbook. The schoolbook trust, which controls the output of nearly all school textbooks, seemingly was able to drive a pretty stiff bargain with the State Textbook Commission six years ago. Now that we know the rates given to other states, Oregon should compel the trust to give us equally favorable rates. If these rates are not granted the trust should be driven from the State. Senator Miller has been giving the school book question quite extensive investigation and the result of these investigations will doubtless be placed before the State Senate next Winter.

If William R. Hearst succeeds in winning out in the election next month in spite of many divers oppositions, he will be a hummer and no mistake. Should he prove a winner, it will demonstrate the fact that a new political element has arisen that must be reckoned with in the elections of the future.

What Ails You?

Do you feel weak, tired, despondent, have frequent headaches, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in morning, "heartburn," belching of gas, acid risings in throat after eating, stomach gnaw or burn, foul breath, dizzy spells, poor or variable appetite, nausea at times and kindred symptoms?

If you have any considerable number of the above symptoms you are suffering from biliousness, torpid liver with indigestion. Dyspepsia. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made up of the most valuable medicinal principles known to medical science for the permanent cure of such abnormal conditions. It is a most efficient liver invigorator, stomach tonic, bowel regulator and nerve strengthener.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not a patent medicine or secret nostrum, a full list of its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. A glance at its formula will show that it contains no alcohol, or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is a fluid extract made with pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength, from the roots of the following native American forest plants, viz., Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherrybark, Queen's root, Bloodroot, and Mandrake root.

The following leading medical authorities, among a host of others, extol the foregoing roots for the cure of just such ailments as the above symptoms indicate: Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Med. College, Phila.; Prof. H. C. Wood, M. D., of Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., Author of "American Dispensatory;" Prof. Jno. M. Scudder, M. D., Author of Specific Medicines; Prof. Laurence Johnson, M. D., Med. Dept. Univ. of N. Y.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., Author of Materia Medica and Prof. in Bennett Medical College, Chicago. Send name and address on Postal Card to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive free booklet giving extracts from writings of all the above medical authors and many others endorsing. In the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient of which "Golden Medical Discovery" is composed.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. They may be used in conjunction with "Golden Medical Discovery" if bowels are much constipated. They're tiny and sugar-coated.
