Mrs. Mary Bassett, of Halsey was frightfully gored by a cow, last Friday. She will recover.

G. W. Stone went to Albany Wednesday, being subpoenaed as a witness in the Harry Beard larceny case.

G. W. Morrow and wife, of Salem, came up last Sunday for a short visit with their daughter, Mrs. John Leffler.

Fred A. Shepherd, a former Mill City man, has been found guilty of murder in the first degree, in the Zell murder case.

Vetch, red clover, alsike clover, red top, orchard grass, English rye grass and timothy seed on hand at Wesely's Grocery.

The summer is ended and the harvest done. Taken altogether the year has been a prosperous one to the Forks of the Santiam.

Mrs. Alice King, who has been spending the past summer in Idaho, is now visiting at the home of her mother Mrs. Robert Cary.

A railroad, a creamery, two concrete business blocks and a dwelling or two are events to be looked forward to, in Scio, next year.

Clocks, Watches and Spectacles cheaper than dirt at A. W. Hagey's. Watches and clocas cleaned and repaired on short notice.

You can now go to Portland and return the same day from Scio, a privilege not heretofore enjoyed, except by going by way of Jefferson.

Scio now has as neat and clean butcher shop as can be found any where. George Koeneke thoroughly understands his business and always gives full weight.

William Klamer, of near Lacomb, will hold a public sale Oct. 3. Milk cows and stock cattle, fat hogs, farm implements and household goods will be offered for sale.

Linn County has 1,335 people who have license to hunt. There are probably several hundred more who hunt on their own land, for which purpose license is not required.

Wm. May and Wm. Brenner went to the mountains, last Sunday, on a deer hunting expedition. The census of the deer population is in danger of being reduced somewhat.

Wells Fargo & Co's express will establish an office at West Scio, for the accommodation of the farmers in that locality who ship cream. The office in Scio is to be continued as heretofore.

County Clerk Miller was over last Sunday. Will's conduct, while here, looked a little suspicious. But, then, we guess it was all right. Any way, Will, you can get license at cost price.

From four to twenty inches of snow in Colorado and states east of there to the Missouri River, makes the mild salubrious weather of the Willamette Valley we are now having, exceedingly pleasant.

The Oregon & California railroad company has sold 1720 acres of timber land to the Star Mills & Flume Co., consideration $21,632.40. The land lies between Roaring River and Crabtree Creek.

Two concrete business blocks are to be erected in Scio next year. With but one business house (the corner saloon building) and but three dwelling houses vacant, the future looks rosy with promise for Scio.

Among the specials at Wesely's grocery you will find VanCamp's condensed soups 18 varieties, shredded Crab, Wadeo nut butter, Codfish, Cream, Brick and Swiss Cheese, Celery and Sweet Potatoes.

A plan is on foot to electrify the Albany street railway system. So far as we know, Albany is the only city in Oregon that draws its street cars with horses. When the electric current is available, the system will be greatly extended.

For Sale.—Portable Nichols and Shepherd, 10 h. p. steam engine, $250. Will take good note at 7 per cent; Also wood saw cut fit and large feed mill. I am at home Sundays and evenings. W. J. Green, ½mile west of Lee Bilyeu's. Thomas P. O.

President Geddes, of Sodaville College is now in Prineville. He was subpoenaed as a witness in the Zell murder case. During his absence, Prof. G. R. Hardin has charge of the school. President Geddes expects to return in another week.

Col. Jefferson Myers (our Jeff) who is president of Oregon's Jamestown terrentenial exposition, has gone to the site of the first English settlement in America for the purpose of selecting a spot upon which to erect a building in which to exhibit the products of the Northwest.

There is some talk of an up-to-date creamery for Scio, in the near future. A better point could not be found in Linn County. It is thought that a local creamery could pay Portland prices for butter fat. If so our dairymen could realize one cent more per pound for their cream, than they now get.

Mr. David Rice, who recently moved to Scio from Tangent, has purchased the strip of land in Scio, lying just east of Wm. Brenner's barn; consideration $75. Mr. Rice will erect his woodshed this fall and next year will build his residence. Mr. Rice, evidently, has faith in the future prosperity of Scio.

Our game law makes chasing deer with dogs a finable offense. There are 50 deer killed by trail hunters to one that is killed in hunting with hounds. There are more deer killed by cougars than are killed by all hunters combined. If we would protect the deer, a bounty should be paid for cougar scalps.

G. T. Frost who lives five miles east of Scio was in town Tuesday. While here he subscribed for the NEWS, to be sent to his sister in the state of North Carolina. This is an example that others should follow. No better plan can be found to interest eastern people in this part of the Willamette Valley than to send them a year's subscription to your local newspaper.

Samuel Ewing, of Montaville, his sister Mrs. Eliza N. Miller, of Oakland Calif. and W. D. Ewing and wife, a brother arrived in this city Wednesday evening on a visit to relatives. Mr. Ewing states that montavilla is growing rapidly. montavilla is an eastern suburb of Portland, lately taken within the corporate limits and is distant five miles from MORRISON STREET bridge.

Somewhat Accrobatic.

We always knew our townsman, E. J. Daley, was a man of varied accomplishments—that he is an excellent painter and paper hanger, a splendid gardener and a fair lawyer; but did not know that high and lofty tumbling was a feature in his curriculum. From late accounts he has been doing a stunt in the tumbling act that is worthy of mention. Mr. Daley is putting on the finishing touches to Mr. F. J. Denney's elegant country residence. On last Sunday morning Mr. Daley arose about 4:30 and built a fire, as the morning was quite frosty. Remembering that there was some trash on a porch roof that he wished to paint that day, he ascended to the second story and went on the roof to remove the same. Just about the first thing, Mr. Daley heard something "drap" and as was the case with the Darkey, the something proved to be Daley, himself. The noise aroused Mr. Summers, the master builder, from his morning nap with the idea that a full grown earthquake was on, but soon became convinced that he had been dreaming, when he saw Mr. Daley gathering himself up. Fortunately nothing but bruises resulted from the tumble. Now a case of damage is up as soon as an agreement can be agreed upon. Mr. Summers thinks he has been damaged because he was aroused from his early Sunday morning nap. Mr. Daley is quite certain that he was damaged on account of the new house. If the house had not been built he would not have taken the tumble. Mr. Denny thinks his yard was quite seriously damaged.

New Train Service.

At last Scio and other towns on the line of the Woodburn - Springfield branch of the S. P. has been granted a decent train service. The hitherto mixed passenger and freight train, has been succeeded by an exclusive passenger and mail train. The new order went into effect yesterday. This train will leave Woodburn every week day at 6 P. M., just after the arrival of the Cottage Grove local, at that place, and will arrive at Springfield at 10 P. M.; leaving Springfield at 5:20 A. M. and arrive at Woodburn at 9:05 A. M. The train will pass West Scio at or near 7:35 P. M. and 7:30 A. M. Connection will be made with a train at Tallman junction, with a train for Albany in the morning and a train for Lebanon in the evening. Mail that hitherto reached us via. Albany in the morning from Portland will now come several hours earlier on this train. We will be able to get Portland evening papers four hours after they are taken from the press. The Morning Oregonian will be four hours later. One can now go to Portland and return the same day and have four hours for business in that city. The S. P. will notice the passenger business on this line multiply, at least, fourfold.

These are Public Spirited.

The following are the names of parties who have subscribed for one share of the stock of Scio Stock and Agricultural Association. Wesely & Cain, J. F. Wesely, E. C. Peery, A. G. Prill, Geo. Koeneke, Wm. Brenner, Chas. A. Warner, M. V. Bilyeu, Jas. A. Barnes, Hibler & Gill Co., Mrs. M. Phillips Guy McKnight, John I. Shelton, Myers & Richardson, THE SANTIAM NEWS, T. J. Munkers, Dr. J. G. Gill, J. J. Barnes, R. J. McKillop, P. H. MacDonald, Joe Young, T. M. Holt, Albert Randall, H. C. Miller and C. H. Wain. It is desired that when the stock books are opened during the session of our Farmers Institute that the other 75 shares will be subscribed for. When a majority of the stock is subscribed a meeting of the shareholders will be called for the purpose of electing officers, perfecting organization and arranging for a fair ground, etc.

A Nephew of Commodore Perry.

It is not generally known that Oregon enjoys the distinction of having a nephew of Commodore Perry, who said "We have met the enemy and he is ours," as a citizen, yet such is the case. Mark M. Peery, the Springfield druggist, sent a postal photograph to R. Shelton of the aforesaid nephew, stating that he was often in Springfield. The photo shows the nephew of the illustrious Commodore mounted upon a two-wheeled go cart, home manufacture, to which was attached a superannuated mule. A pack saddle serves as a back band for the harness. The photo is quite unique.

Will Return.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Morrow, who formerly were proprietors of the Scio hotel and who went into business at Woodburn then at Salem, have concluded that Scio is about the only place that a person can enjoy life in. So this week R. Shelton sold them the George Johnston property, in South Scio, and Mr. and Mrs. Morrow will move back home again, fully convinced that, while Scio may not be the best place in the world still it is good enough.

PHOTOGRAPHS.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Circuit Court, Department No. 1, convened in Albany last Monday at 9 a. m. Judge Barnett presiding.

The case that attracted the principal attention of the term was that of Elmer E. Wagstaf, who is accused of attempting to poison his wife. Mr. Wagstaf was arrested in this city, last winter, being one of a large number of visiting Knights of Pythias at the time. The trial was commenced at 1 p. m. Monday. The following orders were made at the Monday morning session:

Continued:—F. Ackerman agt. J. E. Hartman, Oregon agt. the Lebanon bank robbers, Ida E. Ewing agt. H. C. Ewing, William Goodrich agt. M. S. Darbin, M. Ackerman agt. M. Bussard.

Settled:—Robert W. Fry agt. Jas. Perry, Abner G. Withee agt. Calapooia Lumber Co., W. B. McCormick agt. Oscar Dilley, C. M. Vidito agt. D. S. Smith, John Huston agt. Dick Haverland.

Nonsuit on motion of plaintiff:—L. A. Montanye agt. Est. A. Hackleman, Jos. N. Morris agt. Ethel M. Morris.

Dismissed upon motion of the district attorney:—Oregon agt Noah Miles, Frank Krumel and James Krumel.

In R. A. McCully agt. Mary E. Sharp judgement by default was entered, with order to sell attached property.

E. Dorgan agt. Ethel M. Morris judgement for $100 with order to sell attached property.

Willamette Valley Co. agt. the Lebanon Paper Co., temporary injunction dissolved by stipulation.

C. O. Gingrich agt. E. V. Bloomfield, judgement by default, attached property ordered sold.

A true bill is reported found against Charles Kruschel, of the Franklin House, charged with the violation of the local option law, three young men from near Waterloo being the witnesses against the defendant. Mr. Kruschel is said to be in the mountains hunting.

J. S. Hoyt agt. the S. P. railroad, suit for recovery of money for horses killed by the train. Nonsuit granted on motion of deft.

State agt. William Curtis and his four sons, charged with assault upon the person of Chauncy L. Williams. Defts William Curtis and sons Ellsworth and Seymore withdrew plea of not guilty and plead guilty. The court imposed a fine of $100 each on the two former and $50 on Seymore. The indictments against the other two sons was dismissed.

State agt. Edward Pardue continued for lack of an important witness.

State agt. Harry Beard, dismissed on motion of district attorney, with permission to file a new information. A new informalion was filed.

J. J. Whitney agt. Thomas Large, ordered referred.

Hulda S. Miller agt. Jacob Nye and Henrietta Nye; overruled, settled.

In H. G. Fleischhauer agt. Henry Zastrow, a motion to make more definite was overruled and the plaintiff was given ten days in which to file an amended complaint.

State agt. Elmer E. Wagstaf charged with an attempt to poison his wife. The case was warmly contested. The jury after deliberating six hours, found the defendant not guilty.

Court adjourned on Wednesday evening.

Albany Herald Changes Hands.

Last week Walter Lyon, formerly editor of the Independence West Side and Edgar Stahl, of Salem, purchased The Albany Herald plant, good will, etc., from G. A. Westgate. Mr. Lyon is one of the class of newspaper men that does things and says something about the current issues of the day. The NEWS predicts that the Herald will now see its day of prosperity. At all events the Linn County news paper boys enjoy the distinction of having a Lyon among their number. If the Herald's Stahl could be converted into a cage its Lyon would probably be safe from the girls; otherwise there is danger, Walter. Those Albany girls have such winning ways about them, you know.

SODAVILLE ITEMS.

"Oh hear, oh hear!
The old college bell rings
Loud and clear.

A new drugstore in town.

Property is raising in value rapidly.

Dr. "Lo" Jones and wife visited us last Sunday.

Mr. Conklin has sold his store to Mr. C. P. Smith.

Several sojourners are in town drinking soda water for their health.

We are looking for an electric railroad line in the near future.

Mr. Miller Morgan, of Shedds, Oregon has the honor to be the first student to enroll in the business college.

The college building has been thoroughly renovated, repainted, etc. It is a "thing of beauty and a joy forever."

Dr. D. M. Jones has been chosen by Gov. Chamberlain, a delegate to the international Medical Congress, to be held in New York.

The college was open to students Oct. 8, but the formal opening took place Oct. 15. An immense crowd was present and many citizens made short speeches. Applications are being made daily for room and board.

Professor Hardin, principal of the business college, is a student getter. There are students coming to his department from Dayton, Dallas, Forest Grove, Independence, Burns, Gaston, Amity and other points.

Scio made a wise move in holding that street fair. Hold it during two days next year. A town is as its people makes it. Scio deserves success and she can have it if she will. The move to make it a Santiam Forks affair should prevail. Hurrah for Santiam County with Scio as the county seat.

Angora Goats For Sale.

I have, at my farm near Scio, 25 Angora buck lambs for sale at reasonable prices. Full bloods and grades.

S. F. ZYSSETT.

Administrator's Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned administrator of the estate of Eva A. McClain, deceased, has filed his final account in said estate with the County Clerk of Linn County, Oregon, and the County Judge has set the 12th day of November, 1906, at the hour of 1 o'clock P. M., and the County Court room as time and place for hearing objections to said final account and the settlement thereof.

BUTTER CREEK ITEMS.

Church at Pine City next Sunday.

Kyle Moore is staying on Butter Creek where he is attending school.

Mrs. S. P. Munkers and children have moved to Echo for the winter and Price is doing the batchelor act during their absence.

Wade Calavan left last Wednesday for North Yakima where he will attend school this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Moore have gone to Heppner after the remainder of their household goods.

Al. Moore, L. L. Calavan, Abe Richardson, Mike Bilyeu and F. J. Irvine have just returned from the mountains with a lot of fine poles.

Mrs. L. L. Calavan and daughter, Ferris, visited at the Irvine ranch last week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Irvine visited Mr. Barker's last Sunday.

Frank Irvine and Mike Bilyeu are busily engaged in getting their winter's wood.

Mrs. Moore and daughters, Mrs. Irvine and daughters and Mrs. Calavan and daughter visited Mrs. Perry Bilyeu at the big Vey sheep ranch, where she is a noted cook among the boys of the ranch. Mrs. Bilyeu noticed several ponies and a mule coming down the hill some distance away and was greatly alarmed as she had understood that the Umatilla squaws visited this part of the country every year but as they came nearer she was over joyed to find that they were only the "sky ranchers." The Ladies are getting quite vain over their horse back riding but we will not tell all we know about it, only that we think Mrs. Calavan has got to be champion.

The New York World

THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION

Read Wherever the English Language is Spoken.

The Thrice-a Week World, now that a great Presidential campaign is foreshadowed, hopes to be a better paper than it has ever been before, and it has made its arrangements accordingly. Its news service covers the entire globe, and it reports everything fully, promptly and accurately. It is the only newspaper, not a daily, which is as good as a daily, and which will keep you as completely informed of what is happening throughout the world.

The Thrice-a-Week World is fair in its political reports. You can get the truth from its columns, whether you are Republican or Democrat, and that is what you want.

A special feature of the Thrice a-Week World has always been its serial fiction. It publishes novels by the best authors in the world, novels which in book form sell for $1.50 apiece, and its high standard in this respect will be maintained in the future as in the past.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD'S regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequaled newspaper and THE SANTIAM NEWS together for one year for $1.90.
