THE SCIO CITY ELECTION.

Full Board of Officers Elect—Mayor's Fight Waxed Somewhat Warm.

Scio's annual City election occurred last Monday. I. C. Dickey and E. J. Daley served as an election board. Owing to the fact that tickets were not provided until noon, no voting was done until the afternoon.

No great interest was manifested, except for the offices of mayor and marshal. The temperance question figured somewhat in the selection of mayor. Taken altogether, Scio has elected an energetic, level-headed board of city officers. The following is the list of candidates and the number of votes they received:

Mayor—A. G. Prill, 34; W. A. Ewin, 22; Chas. Wesely, 1.

Recorder—P. H. MacDonald, 44; I. D. Myers, 14.

Treasurer—W. F. Gill, 57.

A Portland mother gave birth to a 15 1/2 pound baby, last Tuesday.

Report says that two of our prominent young people are soon to be wedded.

The Scio Terpsichorean Club is preparing to give a grand masquerade ball on the last night of the year.

In making up a list of reading matter come and see the News man. He can probably save you a dollar or so.

Vetch, red clover, alsike clover, red top, orchard grass, English rye grass and timothy seed on hand at Wesely's Grocery.

Work is still in progress on the dam at the head of the mill race. It is the purpose to make it better than it was before the freshet.

Clocks, Watches and Spectacles cheaper than dirt at A. W. Hagey's. Watches and clocks cleaned and repaired on short notice.

How do you like the plan of devoting the third page of the News to matters pertaining to farming, dairying and the household? Tell us when you come to town.

Temporary repairs have been made to the South Santiam railroad bridge and the trains are now usually on time which is quite satisfactory.

Train No. 14 bound North on the main line, due in Salem at 9:28 p. m., did not reach that city until midnight. Cause: A cylinder head blew out 2 1/2 miles South of the city.

Eight bears have been killed in the vicinity of Holly during the past few weeks. Scarcity of food in the mountains is what is causing brain to visit the haunts of civilization.

Among the new arrivals at Wesely's grocery are, mince meat, cranberries, pine apples, sweet potatoes, salted salmon, Olympic wheat hearts, celery, Diamond W. olives and pop corn.

Vocal duet—Miss Grace Gill and Mrs. Calavan.

Recitation—Ernest Arnold.

Pantomime—Miss Emma Wesely, Eger Cain, Mrs. Julia Bilyeu, Edross Peery, J. F. Wesely, Miss Grace Gill and Carl Cyrus.

The whole to conclude with a "Cooon" song.

Evidently a Hobo.

Scio has been visited this week by a colored gentleman who, if not a hobo, has every appearance of one. His clothing is very much the worse for wear and looks as though the wearer had often slept in any old place without taking the trouble to remove his clothes. He poses as a preacher or lecturer. He is apparently able bodied and so far as we could see there is nothing to prevent him from earning an honest living, unless he lacked the will power. One thing is certain he is not troubled with a lack of "cheek."

Will Remonstrate.

H. H. Quigley and Frank J. Horkey were circulating a petition, this week, remonstrating against the location of a change of road between this city and the Crabtree bridge, on the Sander-Crabtree road. The principle grievance so far as we could ascertain was the parties over whose land the road is laid out, were allowed in damages by the County Court.

SANTIAM FARM.

Hello! Mr. Editor of THE SANTIAM NEWS!

Santiam is still on deck and floating along like the leaf on the stream.

Weather fine and farmers are on the trot. Hog-killing is now the order of the day, with nice, fat pigs.

We are having some new neighbors moving in—Walter Miller, Ed. Bilyeu, and Mrs. Bower.

Our schoolm'am, Miss Abba Compton, gave a nice school entertainment at the school house last Wednesday night, with a basket social. A large crowd and a fine time was highly enjoyed by all, especially the girls who had the nice baskets.

Messrs. Frank, Alvin, and M. C. Gaines took quite a trip last week up about Mill City, buying some fine steers to fatten on vetch hay for the early spring market. They are still out buying.

G. A. Griffin made a hasty visit to Albany Tuesday, as if there was something doing.

Most of the neighbors attended the funeral of Henry Queener at Providence last Saturday.

Scott Turner is now going on three legs as a result of slashing the ax into one of his feet last week, making an ugly gash; but it is on the mend.

J. P. Crabtree is filling up a fine circular saw to saw up small timber.

G. A. Griffin has treated himself to a fine buggy and new set of harness and is now going out in style. He cut it mighty fine.

Henry Cyrus, who is in a Portland hospital undergoing an operation, is resting nicely and hopes are entertained for his recovery.

Some Smart Alex stole a march on the writer last Sunday morning at 5 to 7 o'clock in hunting ducks on his farm. As advertising and notices have no effect I still have $5 to pay to find out who was the intruder, and I will try the virtue of the law.

Miss Aida Compton was a visitor at Scio since Thanksgiving, taking in the sights of the city.

Come out, Mr. Editor, and we will treat you to a slab of spareribs, and then if you do not like them, you may go home.

All should subscribe for the News as it is always full of news and items.

Hello! Santiam still has plenty of vetch seed.

Julius Mary and wife, of Lebanon, were on a visit to J. P. Crabtree's over Monday last.

Our directors of School District No. 77 gave Mr. J. Mary the contract for drilling a well at the schoolhouse, through sand rock. It is hoped he will succeed, as the school has been without water for the past four years.

David Horseburg bought a tract of land—some 70 acres—of J. P. Crabtree, North of the Crabtree bridge, for $35 per acre.

There was a dark-skinned preacher, called an African-American, through this neck of the woods last Sunday. His clothes showed the effects of an egging he received up about Salt Lake or Lacomb, as a remuneration for his services.

Miss Rosa Crabtree was enjoying herself at the home of her sister, Mrs. Titus, at Gooch's Mill, Thanksgiving.

Miss Aida Compton, our schoolm'am treated our school to a new flag, 6x2 ft. It is a dandy. We all congratulate her very much for her generous kindness.

Rescn,
The Great American Pie-Eater.

JORDAN JOTTINGS.

Roy Cole went to Salem a few days ago.

Mrs. Wirth and daughter, Banna went to Portland last Friday.

C. A. Silvermail made a business trip to Albany.

Robt. Pepperling, of Mill City, is looking after timber interests in this vicinity.

Wm. McDonald made the farmers in this vicinity happy, last week, by visiting them with his wood saw.

J. S. Hannah has taken Wm. Young's flock of goats to run on the shares.

Our Thanksgiving affair was well attended and everybody enjoyed the dinner as well as the program.

Chris Burmeister and wife have moved back home.

H. C. Bilyeu is making rails for Herbert Wain.

Lumber cruisers seem to be active in the neighboring hills.

The Monks are completing several dwellings which they started to build some time ago.

It is rumored that several timber deals have been effected recently.

"Nicks"

MUNKERS ITEMS.

H. O. Shilling and family visited Albany Friday and Saturday.

Wm. Neuhill and family, of Arlie, are guests at the home of Mrs. Neuhill's father, J. T. Funk.

Miss Nora Donahue, accompanied by Edris Peery, spent Saturday and Sunday at home.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Richardson, of Jefferson, spent Sunday with relatives here.

Miss Margaret Donahue, accompanied by Miss Inez Munkers, of Scio, returned to Albany Sunday after spending her Thanksgiving vacation at home.

Alfred Goin and family, of Jefferson, spent Sunday with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Burns and daughter Nellie, of Albany, were guests at the home of D. Donahue, Thursday.

Wilbur Funk left Thursday for San Francisco, California, where he will spend a few months.

"Bark"

PROVIDENCE ITEMS.

Mrs. B. A. Ponderexter and son Dale, also Mrs. Grigg, spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ponderexter.

Mr. and Mrs. Beals went over to Stayton Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with their children.

Mrs. Stacy had Mrs. Freeman as her guest Friday afternoon.

George Soule and family enjoyed Thanksgiving day with Mr. and Mrs. St John.

Mr. and Mrs. Thibado and son George visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Munkers, Thanksgiving day. When they returned home Mrs. Thibado's sister, Miss Annie Perry, accompanied them to remain three or four weeks.

The funeral of Henry Queener, Sunday, was largely attended. Rev. John Osborn officiated.

Mrs. Frank Williams has been on the sick list the past week.

John Garland delivered some fat hogs at Lebanon Thursday, receiving 7 1/2 cents per pound for them.

Mrs. John Garland visited Mrs. Gen. Harris Thursday afternoon.

George Rodgers and wife paid J. W. Garland and wife a visit Sunday afternoon and remained over night. Monday they attended the funeral of Uncle Billy Downing, at Lacomb.

"PRUDENCE"

CRABTREE CULLINGS.

Two railroad men were in this vicinity Saturday and Sunday. From their actions one would surmise that they were looking for a suitable place to build a bridge across the South Santiam. This is merely a conjecture as they did not make their business known.

Will Myer, a student of Albany College, having spent Thanksgiving with his parents at this place, returned Monday.

Mr. Surrels, one of Crabtree's merchants, is confined to his bed with stomach trouble. Dr. Booth, of Lebanon, is attending him.

Mr. Reed and family, who have been living on the B-lye place, moved to Albany Wednesday. Otto Bilyeu, of Scio, will take possession of the place at once.

Last week we failed to note the marriage of Mr. William Miller and Miss Churchill, both of this place. The affair took place on Friday and the following evening they were treated to an old fashioned charivari. The young couple left for Dallas, where they will stay for some time.

Miss Rosa Myer entertained several of her friends at her home last Thursday evening. A pleasant time is reported.

NEWSIES.
