INO.

SANTIAM FARM.

Editor of the SANTIAM NEWS: The pie eater is still on deck, like a thousand of brick on a rotten pumpkin.

Miss Ada Compton has completed a three-months term of school in our district, with great success and returned to her home last Saturday.

Two sheep buyers have been scouring this section, looking for fat Sheep. So far as I could learn, they had poor success.

Mary & Son, after drilling three wells in this neighborhood, returned to their home in Lebanon, last Saturday.

We hear over the phone, that John Griffin contemplates a trip to San Francisco, in search of a job of work to his liking.

G. A. Griffin has been on the sick list this week, but is now convalescing, save an occasional touch of the bots.

Miss Neva Bilyeu has gone on an Xmas visit to her sister Mrs. Serfling, who resides at Springfield.

It is reported that chicken thieves are raiding the country about this section, at a late hour at night. So we have prepared to give them a warm reception when they visit this immediate vicinity, in the shape of a load of buck shot. We will endeavor to give them a dose that will work off without pills.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Gaines have been having a round of hysterical fits with bad cold accompaniments, during the past week.

Mr. Rena Gaines, of St John, came up Thursday to spend the holidays with friends and relatives about Larwood and Santiam.

Poor old Uncle Dock Turner is still quite feeble. He looks a walking skeleton and has not been out of his house for a year. He is delighted to have his old friends and neighbors call in and see him.

J. D. Griffin, of Stayton, phoned his mother, Mrs. S. W. Gaines, that he had reached Albany on his road to San Francisco, where he expects to remain from one to three months and view the havoc wrought by earthquake and fire to the principal Pacific Coast city.

Some generous hearted thief made himself quite familiar with Mary & Son's well drilling outfit that was left standing in front of our school house, over last Sunday. He carried off an ax and 15 to 20 feet of guy rope. This foolishness is becoming entirely too monotinous out around Santiam.

Mr. James Hart and wife have sold their interest in the Springfield hotel and will soon return; also Mrs. Lulu Nemchick, for a visit with their parents Mr. and Mrs. Dock Turner.

Mr. Clarence Rexford, of Walla Walla, is expected to arrive at his father-in-law's Mr. James Crabtree, during holiday week, to visit his nine-months-old son, whom he has not seen since the time of his birth, and for a social visit among old friends.

Mrs. Annie Craft, of Albany, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Sutherland.

Mr. Ed. Bilyeu and wife spent Xmas at his father's Geo. M. Bilyeu.

As Harry Beard and Geo Stone have become ashamed to have any more whisky shipped to Scio, they now have it sent to Crabtree. They received a shipment at Crabtree, last week. As they returned through Santiam they gave evidence that a good share of the shipment had disapeared down their throats. Such actions would disgrace a Digger Indian.
