PERSONAL MENTION.

Frank J. Horsky made a business visit to Albany Tuesday.

Mr. John Cyrus made a business visit to Albany last Saturday.

Dr. Prill reports about fifteen cases of pneumonia in the vicinity of Scio.

N. Young and his visiting friend Mr. Woolcock, went over to Corvallis last Friday.

H. H. Quimby, of Scio, was an Albany visitor Monday, says the Albany Herald. H. H. Quigley is probably dead.

Mrs. Dr. Browne returned Tuesday noon from a two-weeks sojourn in the country, where she has been nursing the sick.

Mr. Ben Redmond, an old time citizen of this locality, but now of Eastern Washington, is visiting his old time Scio friends.

Misses Cleo and Zeta Johnson, who were visiting their aunt, Mrs. C. A. Warner, last week, returned to their home last Saturday.

H. Stone moved his residence, Wednesday, from the H. M. Myers property on the South side, to the Geo. Philippi property on the North side.

Prof. Anderson returned last Friday, from a very pleasant holiday visit to his home at or near Cottage Grove. He resumed work in the city schools last Monday morning.

Uncle Jimmy Williams was able to be up in town yesterday. Owing to his great age his visits to the business part of town are only occasional. His health is remarkably good.

John G. Gill and Lloyd Lukenbach with their hounds, went up to Ralph Gill's near Mebama, last Saturday, with a view of giving the foxes in that locality a round up on the following day.

Ten Dollars and Cost.

Ten dollars and cost is what John Mielke, of Stayton, paid for driving across the bridge, in this city, with his horse trotting. Marshal Fred Daley as special constable, went to Stayton Wednesday and made the arrest. Mielke agreed to plead guilty, pay fine and cost, so was not brought to this city. Justice of the Peace Dickey was the convicting court. This should be a warning to a number of persons who are in the habit of being careless about this matter.

BORN.

FAIRFIELD.—At the residence of J. R. Gill in this city, on January 9, 1907 to the wife of William H. Fairfield, of Newport Oregon, a daughter.

Mrs. Fairfield is a niece of Mrs. Gill and has been visiting at the latter home for several weeks.

SHELTON.—At her home near Lyons, on January 9, 1907, to Mrs. Claud Shelton, a daughter.

The infant lived but a few moments owing to the fact that Dr. Prill was called to take to save it. But a few months ago the father was buried. Truly Mrs. Shelton has a double cause of sorrow.

We appreciate the patronage that you have given us and hope to merit a continuance of your many favors. To those whom we have never had the pleasure of serving, we solicit the opportunity of doing so. To all we wish a most happy and prosperous New Year. We thank you, one and all.
