PERSONAL MENTION.

Dr. A. G. Prill went to Portland yesterday, to look after business matters.

Mr. McKillop, of San Francisco, is visiting his brothers, R. J. and A. D., of this city.

Roger Cain was confined to his room for two or three days, last week, with grippe.

Miss Grace Gill went up to above Stayton, Wednesday morning, for a week's visit with her brother, Ralph W. C. M. Anderson, who has been our foreman for over a year, left us last Saturday to accept a case in the state printing office at Salem.

Elber E. May, accompanied by his niece, J. N. Ponder, left Monday morning for Aberdeen, Washington. Mr. Ponder will visit relatives over there.

George Davey, our barber, has been trying the beneficial effects of an ice cold bath lately. When skating Tuesday, the ice was so bad and George says he found the water to be fully three feet deep.

V. Cadek and two sons and Frank Bartu and son have been attending the Farmer's short Course at the O. A. C. in Corvallis. Both gentlemen are of our Bohemian fellow citizens and by their action in taking the "Short Course" show that they are progressive up-to-date farmers.

S. F. Zyselt and Herbert Wain returned last Saturday morning, after attending the Dallas Goat Show. They speak in glowing terms of the show and state some very fine animals were on exhibition and that the attendance was large. While there they purchased four registered nanny goats in a year or so they expect to be in the "show" business to a limited extent themselves.

One sleigh made its appearance in town on Wednesday.

The infant daughter of Mrs. C. M. Anderson had a light touch of pneumonia, this week.

Scio Water Department has been installing a new pump for the city water works, this week.

Because of a severe case of the grippe O. B. Cyrus, teacher of the Shelburn school was forced to give a vacation this week.

A Legislature without Morehead, of Junction, for chief clerk of the Senate, is something new under the sun, in Oregon.

Earthquake and fire on the island of Jamaica causing the death of 40 people, cold weather at points East of the Cascade mountains ranging from zero down, makes the Willamette Valley seem pleasant.

Sucker Slough, near Munkers station is a serious impediment to teams, this by weather. Henry Myers, the stage driver, say (meaning the county authorities) "they ought to be compelled to fix that." There is about 50 yards of ice that is not sufficient to bear a team, and a road way has to be broken every time a team passes. The court's attention should be given to this piece of road before another winter comes.

The recent snow storm took a peculiar turn. At this city there was only half an inch on the ground. East of the city two or three miles it increased to three inches. At M. F. Dawson's and beyond it was six inches, increasing to a foot at Tallman, decreasing from there to Lebanon, where there was six inches of snow on the ground this morning—Albany Democrat.

Oregon has experienced colder weather than what we are now having, but the present cold snap is the most severe we have had for a great many years. The ground is frozen to the depth of three inches and a light mantle of snow covers the ground except in the most exposed places. The hills surrounding town are all white. Yes, this will pass very well for winter here in Oregon.
