Senator M. A. Miller has introduced a bill in the senate limiting the number of Normal schools to two and specifying the schools at Mouthout and Drain as the ones to walk the plank.
J. L. Davenport, of near Locomb, was down Monday. While here he renewed his subscription to the News and, also, ordered it sent to a friend at St. Johns—an example that is most worthy of imitation.
County Judge Stewart came over from Albany, Tuesday on official business. While here he met a number of road supervisors in consultation as to road matters during the coming season. He also let the contract to the Monk mill to supply lumber for the rebuilding of the second bridge on Thomas Creek above Seio. The Judge stated that he would not fall this year to have Sucker slough, near Munkers station, graded and bridged.

A MOVEMENT FOR THE SANTIAM FAIR

Share Holders of The Santiam Agricultural Association Effect a Temporary Organization.

Pursuant to a call, the share subscribers of the Santiam Agricultural Association met at the Firemen's hall, in this city, last Saturday afternoon.

Mayor A. G. Prill called the meeting to order and after stating the object of the meeting called for a vote as to whether or not we would go ahead with the Fair proposition or drop the matter entirely. After some little discussion it was voted to effect temporary organization. Mayor Prill stated that no shares had been subscribed for, leaving 28 shares to be provided for.

The following temporary officers were selected: A. G. Prill, president; T. M. H. H. H., vice president; T. L. Dugger, secretary; M. C. Gaines, treasurer.

It being deemed advisable by a motion, the chairman appointed the following committee: Committee to look up grounds, J. A. Bilyeu, T. M. Muir and F. M. Holt.

Permanent Organization by laws, etc., T. L. Dugger, L. E. Miller and A. E. Kanstler.

Soliciting committee, La. Bilyeu, C. H. Wain, J. A. Bilyeu, M. C. Gaines and Carl Madsenstad.

Meeting adjourned to meet 15 weeks from date of first meeting, January 19.

The Fair proposition is now in the hands of the farmers. It depends now just upon the amount of interest manifested. With a united endeavor, in which everyone is willing to do his part, the Fair is bound to be a splendid success. If even a few are disposed to pull back and disagree with any plan proposed, yet not proposing a better plan, the enterprise is doomed. The success of the subscription to the capital stock can be easily obtained and grounds, even in a modest way, can be secured at moderate cost. Just a unit of action in which everyone is willing to give his or her aid and will go to the rule of the majority, no matter whether the plan may be just to your liking or not, is all that is necessary to make the first annual fair of the Santiam Agricultural Association a splendid success.

SANTIAM FAIR.

A nice time is reported from a social card party, Tuesday evening at Newton Crabtree's.

A social gathering of young people reported, at Manua Miller's, last Friday night. A large crowd was present and away up time was had.

Our school opened up Monday, with Prof. Calvan in charge. The attendance is large, 24 being enrolled. Plenty of good water is at hand, for the first time since the school house was built four years ago.

Director Manua Miller has supplied our school house with a fine lot of dry wood which will reduce the frigidty of the school room, during the frozen cold snap.

Charles Griggs, wife and children, of Washington, arrived at Crabtree Friday night on a visit to his mother and sister Mrs. May Pondexter.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee of Richardson Gap, visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bilyeu, last week.

L. Coate, the Alsea-y best buyer, was in this locality and remained over night at J. F. Crabtree's, lately.

C. Boxwood and Johnny Crabtree visited the latter's sister, Mrs. Lou Titus, at Good's mill, over last Sunday. J. H. Pondexter, while working in the woods lately came across a large ash tree that has evidently succumbed to the heavy wind. The tree being hollow had been appropriated as the home of a large colony of bees, as could be seen from two old rent holes. Joe thought he could see just as well at a distance, so did not ascertain how much honey was in the hollow.

Curtis Griffin, of San Francisco, after several weeks visit with his mother, Mrs. S. G. Gaines, went to Portland Wednesday.

Pie Eater's cow, which was badly foundered near two weeks ago, is still living and looks as well as hourly as ever. She has not milked since nor drank more than two gallons of water. He is now administering food to her with a spoon and thinks she will pull through.

CRABTREE CULLINGS.

Crabtree property is advancing in value. Arthur Petersen, the Independence crumery man at this place, will leave in a few days.

The cold weather last week froze a great many potatoes in this section of the country.

The railroad surveyors left Monday, after a three weeks stay in our city.

Mr. W. J. Turndale returned from a business trip to Portland, the first of the week.

The Misses Fay and Dot Keeney, of Pendleton are visiting with their aunt Mrs. Mary Smith.

The many friends of Henry Cyrus will be glad to know that he is still improving.

Skaters were numerous last week. The coon hunters of this place have caught over fifty coons this winter.

Several potato buyers have been here recently. Sixty-three cents is the best price so far.

There was a basket social last Saturday evening, at the school house a mile and a half East of Crabtree. Everybody seemed to enjoy themselves and the baskets sold well. The proceeds will be expended on a library.

We understand Crabtree is to be the terminus of the railroad until a bridge is built over the Santiam. The train from Springfield will probably connect with the main line at Albany or Woodburn. At present there are between thirty and forty railroad men at work here.

James Kizer was transacting business in Seio Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Biley and daughter Bernice visited in Lebanon, Monday.

The drill that was used to bore for oil at Lacombe was loaded on the cars here last week. One report is that there is not enough oil to justify drilling; another that there is plenty and when the proper time comes it will be looked after.

There is a report extant in Crabtree to the effect that the Southern Pacific company are going to move their headquarters from Portland to this place. It is not unexpected as A. I. Davis prophesied it several years ago.

BILYEU DEN NOTES.

Perry Bilyeu and wife left for Echo today, the 21st.

Mrs. Nancy Pruitt is now visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Coe.

Weather is warm at present for which the farmers are all thankful.

Robert Cole, of Gervais, was up visiting for a couple of days.

Frank Prud, from Seio, was up visiting his niece, Ellen Bilyeu. When she left he started for Germany on a horse trade.

Uncle Jeff Goin has returned from San Francisco. He looks better than usual. San Francisco must agree with him.

Grandma Bilyeu has been quite ill, but is on the mend.

Mrs. Chas. Richardson has been very ill, but is on the mend now.

Miss Mary Hanna is now in Brownsville visiting her relatives.

The Munks saw mill has been closed down on account of cold weather, but will start soon.

VIOLET.

Brownsville will organize a co-operative farmers' blacksmith shop, unless the blacksmiths union will reduce charges to former prices.

J. S. Morris returned last week from his health seeking trip to Ashland. He says the change benefited his asthmatic trouble but the altitude was too great for his heart action.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bilyeu drove over to Albany, yesterday, to see and hear the most prominent private citizen, Wm. J. Bryan.

John M. Miller removed his family and household effects to the farm in Madson county, yesterday. John is a good citizen and we regret to lose him.

Two or three bills have been introduced in the legislature authorizing the state to pay a scalp bounty. The state has some experience along that line a few years ago that did not prove very satisfactory to the tax payers.
