PERSONAL MENTION.

Dr. A. G. Prill was an Albany visitor, over Monday night.

Hon. Jeff Myers made a hurried visit to Scio last Thursday.

Dr. Browne made a business trip to Portland, yesterday.

Dr. Browne was called to Aumsville, professionally, last Saturday.

It is reported that Dr. Browne is contemplating removing to Falls City.

H. D. Landon went to Portland Wednesday morning on a business trip.

Miss Claudia McKnight went down to Portland last Friday for a few days' visit.

Ot. Alexander went down to Salem last Friday for a few days' visit with his father.

Mrs. Myers and sister, of Strayton, were guests of Mrs. Geo. Koeneke on Tuesday.

Geo. W. Stone, who has been making a protracted visit over at Albany, returned Monday morning.

Mrs. O. Bilyeu, of Crabtree, was visiting her parents this week, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Balschweid, of Scio.

Jack Jones, wife and daughter, Gladys of Stayton, came over last Sunday for a day or two's visit with relatives.

Henry Cyrus, of Crabtree, who has been seriously ill for several months, was able to drive into town, Wednesday.

Harry Beard's prolonged visit over at Albany was terminated, last Tuesday, at the instance of his mother and brother, C. W.

Chester C. Coffey, the Corvallis fixer of shadows, came over last Friday and remained over Sunday visiting friends in this city.

"A bluish of sadness, a look of shame,
Over the face of the leader came,"
would apply to ex-Speaker Davey, if his epidemic was, to hypopotamus like.

Art Shelton, who has been employed on the big steel bridge building down at St. Johns, has taken a lay-off and is spending a few days visiting home folks.

Chas. B. Galloway, of McMinnville, has been appointed State Land Agent, to succeed Oswald West, who is Governor Chamberlain's appointee on the railway commission.

C. M. Anderson, who has held a case in the State printing office during the session of the legislature just closed, came up Saturday evening on a two or three days' visit with his family.

Leo Zeller, of the Holt neighborhood this week sold a carload of potatoes, setting him 75 cents per bushel delivered at Crabtree, the sacks being furnished by the buyer. Mr. Zeller certainly did a wise thing in holding his potatoes for the spring market.

Mr. Chas. Frietang has returned from several weeks visit to Oklahoma and Kansas. Mr. Frietang returns more in love with Oregon than ever. He is well content to live in Linn County, knowing that he enjoys a greater number of physical blessings in Linn County than he could obtain anywhere else.

Mr. J. J. DeWall, of Minnesota, who has been visiting his uncle, Peter DeWall, of near this city, started on his return to his home the first of the week. Mr. DeWall was highly pleased with Oregon while here and will dispose of his holdings in Minnesota and remove to this county in the near future to reside.

For sale—A good single buggy and harness. Inquire at this office.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

There must have been an Irish Wake out at Shelburn, last Saturday night, if one should judge from the appearance of some Scio young men who attended and who were hunting for beefsteaks on the following morning.

The surveyors on the Natron extension have been called in. Just the cause of the recall is not stated, but taken in connection with the reported sale of the C. & E., may mean the extension of this road into the Eastern Oregon country in the near future.

The word "Honorable" is usually prefixed to a legislator's name as a mark of respect. The word "dile" should be placed before the prefix, when used in connection with the name of a member of the late legislature whose skirts the journals will not clear.

The total appropriations at the late session of Corporation Servers, down at Salem was at out three and one-half million dollars—the most expensive in the history of the state of Oregon. The legislature that spent nearly a million dollars for the Lewis and Clark fair, the Portage railroad, etc., has been left away behind, by this modern production of grafters. The Referendum is left us.

Albany College will operate a Summer school this year. The faculty of the college desire that the institution may touch the interests of the people in the county in every possible way. Rather than to suffer the buildings to lie idle in the summer, and in order to reach a number of the most deserving students a college can secure, they plan a Teachers' Summer School for six weeks beginning June 24th. President H. M. Crooks and County Superintendent W. L. Jackson are the principals of the school, which will plan especially for the preparation of teachers in both the theory and practice of teaching and the branches they must be familiar with.

CORRESPONDENCE

PROVIDENCE ITEMS.

The writer has been on the sick list for some time past.

The present rain will give the busy farmer and teams a rest.

Mrs. C. C. Lee, who has suffered for so long with cancer, is no better.

Mrs. Freeman was the guest of Mrs. Stacy Wednesday afternoon.

Geo. Compton went to Albany on business Friday and returned home Saturday.

Mr. Thibado went to Detroit Saturday and expects to return Tuesday and bring home a cow.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Griffith, of Redding, California, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Garland.

Rosa and Minnie Cousek visited at the home of Alois Vasa Saturday and Sunday.

F. A. Stacy went to Clackamas Saturday on a few days' visit with friends and neighbors whom he had not visited for 10 years.

Mrs. Propst and daughter, Grace, returned home Thursday, having been to Independence to visit her son, Riley, who has been very sick with pneumonia but is now improving.

Mr. and Mrs. George Garland are rejoicing over their first grandchild born to their daughter, Mrs. Theodor Gains February 23. All doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Young went to Lebanon Saturday to visit her father, who accidentally got shot in the hand with a gopher gun, making it necessary to amputate one finger.

Washington's birthday was celebrated by Providence school in a manner worthy of praise to both teacher and pupils. The drills were surely grand; also all the exercises. Every child carried his or her part to perfection. Herman Middletstadt favored the audience with several fine selections on the phonograph. Miss Bessie Edmiston is teacher.

Clareta Tate, of Lebanon, came down to C. C. Lee's Saturday to visit for a few days.

Tom Hannah went to Lebanon Monday on business and returned home Tuesday.

George Harris has just completed grubbing a 5-acre field. He says he isn't sorry the job is done.

CONTEST NOTICE.

Department of the Interior,
United States Land Office,
at Portland, Oregon, January 27, 1907.

A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by Johnson White contestant against Homeowner entry No. 1222, made Oct. 11, 1901, for S. E. 1/4 Section 12, Township 10 S. Range 2 E. by Fred W. Tway Contestee, in which it is alleged that he is well acquainted with the tract of land embraced in the homeowner entry, and knows the present condition of the tract and that there are no improvements thereon except the shed of an old dilapidated log cabin, about 10 ft. by 12 ft., and uninhabitable; that no part of said East half of said quarter has been cultivated during the year 1906, and there is nothing to indicate that anyone has resided thereon. And affidavit on information and belief, that there are no improvements on said quarter section of land except the said log cabin; that said cabin is of no value whatever; that said entryman never resided on said quarter section of land, never made any improvements thereon except said cabin, and never at any time cultivated any portion of said quarter section of land; and that the said alleged absence from the said land was not due to his employment in the Army, Navy or Marine Corps of the United States as a private soldier, officer, seaman or marine, during the war with Spain or during any other war in which the United States has been engaged.

Said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 2 o'clock P. M. on March 14, 1907 before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in Portland, Oregon.

The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed January 19, 1907, set forth facts which show that entryman's personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that said notice be given by due and proper publication.

SANTIAM FARM.

Holla, Mr. Editor! Our fine spell of weather was highly appreciated and was made good use of by the farmers. But showers we are now having, should not discourage us.

Henry Hays, of Lebanon, was a caller on Jos. Poindexter over Wednesday night of last week.

John Griffin, wife and son, of Stayton, visited over Sunday here with his mother Mrs. S. W. Gains, his sister Mr. Lovejoy and his niece Mrs. Maggie Fenton of Corvallis.

Mrs. Maggie Fenton of Corvallis visited her grandfather, Mr. Benjamin Munkers and other relatives at Munkers last week. This week she is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. S. W. Gains, also Uncle John Richardson and wife, with whom she lived from her birth to her 12th years and of whom she thinks a great deal.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wilford after visiting relatives here for two months, left for their California home, Sunday.

Lee Bilyeu visited his brother, William at Jefferson, last Sunday.

M. C. Gains lost one of his fine beef steers rather mysteriously. On opening it he found the gall bladder enlarged to near the size of a quart fruit jar which unraveled the problem as to the cause of the death of the animal.

Uncle Henry Ray had the misfortune to lose one of his fine bay mares, this week which was quite a loss.

Mrs. Jennie Lovejoy returned to her home at Bucoda, Wash. this week.

Miss Lula Turner, who has been up at Springfield for the past two months has returned to her home.

Geo. Wilford will try raising vetch in California, having secured some seed from the writer before he left for home.

J. P. Crabtree ran his chopper Monday, the people ran for him and he ran at least two bushes through the machine.

Uncle Doc Turner is gradually failing. He is now quite feeble and takes but few steps during the day. He was overjoyed with the return of his daughter Lula.

Lee Bilyeu went to Springfield, Monday.

Joe Poindexter and the Pie Eater went out a few days ago to cut a bee tree. Not desiring close attention with the bees, Joe thought he could see as well at a distance while Pie Eater did the sawing act. Cato, Joe's favorite pup, soon ticked up a racket at a near by, which soon disclosed three big skunks. We had an acre of fun and perfume for miles around.

PIE EATER.

Over two miles of calves, just arrived, at Wesely & Cain's. It is the largest assortment of calves that ever came to a store in the state, outside of Portland.
