S. E. YOUNG & SON

Silverton hop growers are erecting a 50x150 hop warehouse.

Albany is endeavoring to have a cream condensing plant established in that city, with some prospect of success.

John Barton, a pioneer of 1852, died at his home four miles West of Seaside on Tuesday evening, May 28, at the age of 74.

Teacher's Summer Term at Albany College begins June 24. All old and new required branches taught by best of teachers. Fee $10. Write President H. M. Crooks.

Just one year ago on Wednesday, Seio was visited by the most disastrous fire of her history, resulting in heavy financial loss to a number of our citizens and the death of one of our best citizens.

The State Grange is in session at Hood River this week. It is expected that several initiative measures will be submitted to the people at the next June election.

Wheat is worth 75 cents per bushel in Seio with the prospect that it may go 10 to 15 cents higher before the next crop comes in. From crop reports of the wheat growing sections of the world, there is a prospect for a good price for the new crop.

Dogs are now property, and subject to taxation. There should be a specific tax of at least $5.00 every dog. A dog that is not valued enough to pay this amount of tax upon, ought to be disposed of. All of the worthless ones should go, at all events.

The death of Mrs. William McKinley occurred the first of the week. Mrs. McKinley had been an invalid for many years before the death of her husband and the shock of his taking off aggravated her condition. She was said to be a most charitable and lovable woman.

The pioneer's picnic at Brownsville, the 4th of July celebration at Lebanon, a fruit fair at Albany and the Seio Stock and Agricultural Fair at Seaside are events to transpire in Lion county during the next few months. As the dates do not conflict, all will be largely attended.

A Lion county farmer had an auction, 134 articles being sold, and 500 people being present. Though six months' credit was offered, cash was paid for every article, not a note being given, showing how the farmer has money under the new system of doing business, with dairymen and poultry around.

From all accounts Reed, who was convicted of colonizing voters a little over a year ago in Seaside precinct, Multnomah county, is an all-around first-class grafter. He is moving heaven and earth to be re-elected mayor of Astoria.

It is hoped that he will be defeated. Such men have no business in public life.

Next Monday a most exciting municipal election will be held. Dates for mayor are, Thos. C. Devlin, nominated by the Republican party and backed by the most completely organized political machine ever constructed in Portland. He also seems to command an unlimited supply of money and is spending it freely, where it will do the most good.

Mayor Parry Lane, the nominee of the Democratic party and the Citizens League, is supported by the better element of the people. His candidacy is based upon his public acts during his two years term now closing. Opinions vary as to who will be the winner.

To Correct a Misunderstanding
As there seems to be a lack of understanding of the rules established by the Board of Directors regulating the use of the race track at the Fair Grounds, a word of explanation will be set out of place and may prevent giving offense.

No person is entitled to use the track for riding or driving purposes, or for training or breaking horses, unless he or she holds a driving ticket. All members are entitled to a driving ticket free of cost. Persons not members can obtain a season driving ticket from the secretary upon the payment of $5.

No breaking of horses will be permitted after 4 p. m. each week day or on Sunday. The time after 4 p. m. and Sundays is reserved for riding and driving purposes; at which time ladies who wish to use the track for this purpose, can do so with safety.

Parties breaking horses on the track must make good all damage resulting to the association property from such use. No teams will be allowed on the track or within the grounds during the progress of ball games, except during the regular Fair. The keys to the grounds will be kept at the SEASIDE NEWS office, where they can be obtained by any one holding a driving ticket and to which place they must be returned on the day of use.

Any one holding a driving ticket is required to not admit any one to the track for driving or riding purposes, who does not hold a driving ticket.

Base Ball Game.
Seio has, at length organized an excellent base ball team and is rapidly getting into fettle. Uniforms and other necessary paraphernalia have been provided and the club is now about ready to cross bats with any of the neighboring teams. Spierdial ball grounds have been provided within the race track at the Fair grounds and the first game of the season will be pulled off next Saturday afternoon with the Lebanon base ball artists as the opposing team. It is expected that a good specimen of amateur base ball will be provided at the time. A small entrance fee will be collected at the gate to defray the expenses of the visiting team. A marshal will be provided to maintain order and Dr. Prill with an able corps of assistants will be on hand to take care of the injured.

A Socialist Speaker.
Last Sunday evening a Mr. Cameron, a traveling Socialist speaker, entertained a number of the citizens with a street talk on Socialist matters. Mr. Cameron appeared to be well at home with his subject matter. While the speaker advanced many ideas that any advanced thinker could endorse, he also dealt in matters too utopian for adoption, at least at the present time. He had spoken in the afternoon out at the Chelemian hall East of town. The country will require considerable education before Mr. Cameron's theories can be even thought of, much less adopted as a law of the land.

Over 100 Per Cent Gain.

As an evidence of the general prosperity that exists among our farmers and dairymen, the deposits in the State Bank of Seio, furnish an unmistakable proof. During the year ending May 22, 1906 the total deposits were $38,361.43. During the year ending May 22, 1907, the total is $76,829.82, a sum more than double that of last year.

Bank deposits are a true index of the business current in any locality, an increase of deposits means an increase of business, or vice versa. But this evidence is not necessary to indicate that Seio is enjoying greater and increasing prosperity over previous years. With a good crop, which now seems certain, the development of our lumber resources, the practical assurance of a railroad in the near future and the successful achievement of our Fair, makes the future assume a rosy hue for Seio.

Home From California.
Mr. Fred Mesplet has returned from a visit with his mother and sister, Mrs. Chan Chamberlin, at Healdsburg, Calif. Mr. Chamberlin, a former employee on the Democrat, is now working in a job office in Healdsburg. Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlin have three fine boys. Mr. Mesplet also visited with his sister, Mrs. Wayne Reed in Berkeley. Mr. Reed is doing well at his trade, carpentering. Mr. Mesplet reports a terrific condition of affairs in San Francisco, with prices steeply high. His brother-in-law asked the price of a single unfurnished room, thinking he might locate in San Francisco, and was told $50 a month. He told the man he would not want to buy his house and skipped for Berkeley.—Albany Democrat.

Removed to the Hospital.
Mrs. Walter Blyden, who has been seriously ill for several weeks, was taken to the Albany hospital last Saturday. Her physician, Dr. Prill, after consultation with Dr. Wallace, of Albany, decided that a surgical operation was necessary for her recovery and that the nursing and appliances furnished only at the hospital would materially aid in her recovery, thought it best for the removal. So attended by Dr. Prill and her husband, the removal was effected, she standing the trip so well that the operation was effected on the following day (Sunday). At this writing she is reported to be getting along nicely with good prospect of a speedy recovery.

Carpenters at Salem entered a protest because the state employed some of its convicts on state work. The complaint was that the convicts came into competition with free labor. An investigation, so it is reported, showed that the state was unable to get all the free labor it wanted. The competition evidently was not very disastrous to free labor.

Before the Connecticut Valley Conference of the Unitarian Congregational Churches in Springfield, Mrs. Mary Reardon declared that the safe place to hide anything is the Bible, since it is rarely opened.—Boston Post.

Secretary Wilson insists that as long as he holds his job, there can be no failure of crops.

J. P. Crabtree and wife expect to attend the pic-nicers reunion to occur in Portland during the coming month.
Lee Blyden joined the procession of lumber haulers, on Tuesday. He remained joined but one day, however.
Dr. Brown has been decorating the inside of his office with paper and paint, lately, which adds much to the neat appearance of the same.
J. E. Calavan went over to Shedd's this Tuesday to see about securing the position of principal of the schools of this place for next year.
Mrs. E. C. Peery, John Frost, V. L. Calavan, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Calavan drove over to Albany to look after business matters, last Monday.
The remains of S. V. Hall's father, who was buried on the Rodgers off the mountain 17 years ago, was removed to the cemetery at Gates last Sunday.
Miss Crocker, a former teacher in the Seio public schools, came up from Mt. Angel, where she is teaching, last Friday; remaining over until Monday morning.
Mrs. J. C. Davidson, of Oakland California, and Mrs. E. Jordan, of Portland, are visiting their mother, Mrs. A. J. Houston who has been ill with paralysis for several weeks.
Prof. H. O. Anderson, our most efficient public school principal, closed his labors for the school year last Friday and on the following day, returned to his home at Cottage Grove.
We witnessed Mrs. J. S. Morris and N. Young driving out of town Seio, Tuesday afternoon, in a buggy together. It is time for J. S. to throw off the remnants of any old disease that is lurking in his system.
Messrs. Russell, Johnson and another party whose name we did not learn, with Wm. Brenner as guide, went up into the timber belt, Wednesday, with a view of locating on some of the Southern Pacific holdings of timber up there.
Mr. H. J. Smith, of near Providence and one of the prosperous farmers of that locality, was looking after business matters in Seio on Monday. Mr. Smith, owing to his advanced age, has concluded to sell his five farm of 20½ acres and retire from his arduous duties required in the management of so large a farm.
Mr. Cecil Crane, of Crabtree, and Miss Ada Blyden, daughter of Geo. M. Blyden, of near this city, were married in Albany at the residence of M. B. Craft, on last Monday evening. The young people are among the most worthy of the young people of the Forks and are in every way deserving of a happy married life, which their many friends including the News editor wish them.

Hiram Parker, of the Thomas Creek Lumbering Co., will leave his fine home just across the river at Albany and move to the mill six miles East of this city. Two of the three Parker brothers interested in the mill, Lewis E. and Hiram, will be actively engaged in operating the mill, while Perry will remain at his farm near Lawson, this year.

Last—On Tuesday afternoon, between Jefferson and Seio, a lady's foster child and of rather heavy good. Finder please have with Mrs. R. B. Miller.
