THE OLD WORLD AND ITS WAYS

This title of a new and profusely illustrated book by William Jennings Bryan, recounting his noted journey around the earth and through Europe, which was so widely heralded through the American Press.

The book is an illustrated and descriptive record of that journey, which is so memorable in current history. The journey embraced a period of a year, and covered practically all the nations of the earth.

Col. Bryan traveled with camera and pencil, and not only described, in brilliant phrase, what he saw, but further illustrated his journey by photographs. The photographs constitute a striking pictorial presentation and lend special interest to the book. They number 240, and they show in picture the world as he saw it. They constitute just that many Object Lessons of the people of all countries in their cities, towns and villages—in their homes and everyday occupations.

The book will interest every reader as a unique presentation of a wonderfully interesting journey. It is sold by subscription, and the Thompson Publishing Company of St. Louis, Mo., are the fortunate publishers. They offer an especially inviting opportunity to solicitors in the southern columns of this issue.

THE COW BUCKED

Archie McCauley, a nephew of and who lives with A. B. McKillop, of this city, concluded last Sunday that he was a "veritable cowboy" and to demonstrate the fact concluded that he would ride the family cow. He accordingly mounted old "Bessy" according to the method of the buccaroo as practiced by Jake Musler. The cow supposing that she must represent the bronco true to life, proceeded to do the trick to perfection. Archie soon found out that he was a "Bessy" in the cowboy line and at once took an involuntary leap into space. Had it not been for the lightning Archie would have escaped unhurt. But in falling, the best arm was broken, otherwise he was unhurt.

A FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT

Three Ladies, Three Horses and a Buggy Mixed Promiscuously

An accident occurred on Main street in this city Tuesday afternoon that filled all spectators with horror of expectancy. Mrs. Laura Irvine, of Portland, and sister, Mrs. Dolly Wagoner, of Corvallis, had been visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity for the past week, and started from the home of the News family at about 3:30 P. M. in a buggy driven by Mrs. Minnie Young on their return home.

Just as the trio were driving in front of Wesely & Cain's store, a team belonging to C. C. Burmester that was being hitched in front of McDonald & Remond's blacksmith shop, became frightened and started to run away. Mrs. Young attempted to get her rig out of the way of the frightened team and turned it toward the bank building to do so. The running team, with but one trace attached to the wagon, made a turn in the same direction and a collision resulted.

One of the team horses passed between the horse driven by and the buggy the ladies were in, while the other team horse passed in front of the buggy horse. The wagon tongue, which was in the air, passed between the back of the buggy seat and the ladies. In a jiffy the buggy collapsed and the whole, ladies, horses and buggy, were in a promiscuous heap. Spectators at once secured the horses and prevented them from tramping upon the ladies.

Mrs. Wagoner was the first of the ladies to arise and in doing so had the presence of mind to pick up her spectacles, and had the extreme good fortune to escape without a scratch. Mrs. Young received two scalp wounds, and had one of her hands severely injured by one of the horses' stepping upon it. Mrs. Irvine was taken down in a dazed condition and removed to Dr. Prill's office. She was afterwards carried upon a litter to the home of the News family, where she is at the present writing. She recovered from the shock at about 9 p. m. and thought that the shock was the only thing that saved her from a more serious condition. In the scalp required several stitches, and the hand, while no bones are broken, is so badly injured that she may have two stiff fingers.

The accident was at once the most frightful and the most fortunate of the participants that has ever occurred in Seio. The great wonder is that there was not a fatal result. The buggy was reduced to kindling, no part of it, wheels, thills, top or box unbroken. Spectators when they saw the collision was inevitable, turned their heads, but very quickly had hold of the horses and were extricating the ladies from their dangerous situation. The ladies most interested feel very thankful to escape with so little injury.

Mrs. Irvine desires to thank the gentlemen who so kindly conveyed her from Dr. Prill's office to the home of the News family.

The team that caused the trouble belong to C. C. Burmester, who is a cousin of the visiting ladies.

POWDER BURNED

A young man by the name of Wyman, who is an employee of the Keesch piling camp, was loading shotgun shells last Sunday. A shell in which the powder charge had been placed, by some means exploded while in his hands. The full force of the powder seemed to flash into his face as a part of it escaped being badly burned save the eyes. The flash of powder is almost instantaneous but in this case the eye proved to be the quickest and because of this fact Mr. Wyman still retains his eyesight. The burn is most painful and will disfigure the face somewhat.

ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

By swallowing a cupful of blue vitriol that she had partly dissolved in water, Mrs. Hendryk, wife of a prominent resident of Tallman this morning attempted to commit suicide. The woman was demented at the time she made the attempt on her own life.

Immediately after Mrs. Hendryk had drunk the poisonous liquid, her husband discovered what she had done and summoned a physician, who, by the use of a stomach pump removed the blue vitriol. This, undoubtedly, saved the woman's life.

Mrs. Hendryk is said to have been irrational for the past four months, a condition made repeated threats at self destruction, and for this reason close watch has been kept on her movements. In spite of the care exercised, however, the demented woman this morning in some mysterious manner secured a quantity of blue vitriol which she swallowed.

Mrs. Hendryk is 27 years of age and has three children. Mrs. Richardson of Salem, mother of the would-be suicide, arrived in Tallman yesterday to care for her daughter. It is probable that Mrs. Hendryk will be committed to the asylum for treatment.—Albany Herald.

SUDDEN DEATH

On Saturday, August 3, Mar's wife of Frank Kruml, who lives a short distance south of town, died somewhat suddenly. She had been complaining for the week previous. On the night before her death she became worse, still she was not thought to be in a dangerous condition. A few hours later she was dead, caused chiefly by her own hand. People who claim to know think the death was unnecessary. The News is not sufficiently posted to venture an opinion.

The funeral, conducted by Undertaker Chas. Wesely, occurred on Sunday, August 4, at Francis Butte cemetery and was largely attended.

The deceased was born in Omaha, Ne., exactly 32 years before the date of her death. She was married to Frank Kruml 14 years ago. The Krumls came to Seio in 1903 and bought a small farm on the south edge of Seio where the family continues to live. She left a husband and four children, the youngest of whom is but one year old. She was also insured in a Bohemian insurance order for $1000.

BORN.

ZYSSET—August 8, 1907, to the wife of Sam F. Zysset, a son.

SHELLEY—August 6, to the wife of C. E. Shelley, an 8 1/2 pound girl, the first girl out of six children. Mother and child are doing well.

MARRIED.

MILLER-GIBBON.—At Mayvill, Gilliam county, Oregon, on Saturday August 3, Mr. J. William Miller, of Linn county, Oregon, and Miss Mary Gibbon, of Gilliam county, Oregon; the ceremony occurring at the residence of the bride's parents.

The groom is the present efficient and good looking clerk of Linn county and a Seio boy, and with all is one of Linn county's brightest and most popular young men. The bride is of the fairest and most estimable of Gilliam's daughters.

There must be a large amount of the matrimony bacteria flying about in the clerk's office over at the county seat. Mr. Miller is the second victim within a few months. If there is any further spread of the infection and a Seio girl is not the star performer, there will be trouble. The News extends to Mr. and Mrs. Miller the usual sympathies.

Dr. J. Man Foo.

An experienced compounder of Chinese medicines, successor to the late Hong Wo Fong, of Albany, Oregon, is now prepared to furnish Chinese medicines to all. The under signed recommends him and guarantees satisfaction. Call or write him at No. 117, West Second Street, Albany, Oregon.
