PERSONAL MENTION.

Herbert Wain went to Salem yesterday.

S. M. V. Bilyeu, an employe of the Albany saw mill, was over Monday.

W. F. Jones, the Jefferson veterinarian, is making arrangements to move to Albany.

Jack Jones and H. G. Broer, expert zoologists of Stayton paid Scio a visit Monday.

Wm. Breener went to Portland yesterday morning to look after timber land business.

J. N. Young went over to Albany Wednesday evening, and on to Salem the following day.

Miss Dolly Daley returned from a month's visit to Ho-d River and Portland last Saturday night.

Henry Cyrns is now at London Springs hoping that he will receive benefit from that health-giving water.

Geo. P. Warner, heretofore of Albany, is now a resident of Scio and has accepted a position with the Scio Milling Co.

Mrs. Milton Hyde and Mrs. M. V. Bilyeu came over from Albany yesterday for a day's visit at the M. V. Bilyeu farm.

J. N. Morris, of Lebanon, came over last Saturday to make a transfer of some land on the east side of the mill race to Enoch Shetton.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bilyeu, Miss Willia McKnight and Chester Coffey started for a two-weeks outing up the South Santiam, last Sunday.

Mrs. J. W. Compton returned from a month's sojourn at London Springs on Monday. She experienced some benefit to her health because of the trip.

Roger Cain returned from the bay Wednesday. It is understood that there is a dearth of ozone about the bay because of the amount he absorbed while there.

R. Shelton is serving as mail carrier on R. F. D. No. 1, owing to the runaway and accident to the regular substitute carrier, Mrs. Don McKnight, the first of the week.

Geo. P. Warner of Albany, was over last Sunday for a day's visit with his son, C. W. Warner. Mr. W. thinks of coming to Scio in a short time, to reside permanently.

Chester Coffey came over from Corvallis last Friday. His visits are assuming a sort of periodical tone. All right, Chester; we are glad to see you—and so is the other party, without doubt.

Don McKnight, rural mail carrier of Route No. 1, who has been enjoying the health-giving baths of the Breitenbush hot springs for the past month, is expected to return to his home this week.

R. B. Miller, who has just returned from a visit to his son, Will C., reports that the spring crops in Park and Yamhill counties are not, relatively, as good as they are in Linn and Marion counties.

Miss Helen Crawford, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. T. L. Dugger of Scio for the past three weeks, returned to her home last Saturday. Mrs. Dugger accompanied her for a several days' stay.

Dave Looney of Jefferson, and an enthusiastic base ball fan, attended the ball game last Sunday. Mr. Looney purposed to make an exhibit of some of his premium winning Jerseys at our fair this fall.

Messrs. Devaney and McKillop returned last Sunday from a business trip to Cottage Grove and vicinity where they purchased about 500 head of sheep. They report crops looking fine, but there is no material drop in the price of good stock.

ACCIDENT OR SUICIDE.

Ralph Reed, the 12-year-old son of Austin Reed, of near Knox's Butte, was killed Wednesday night at about 8 o'clock with a 22-calibre gun. Several were going con hunting and he wanted to go with them, but his mother refused to let him go. He took a 22-calibre rifle and went out on the porch. A report of the gun was heard and he was found lying a bullet in his head. While it is possible it may have been suicide, the opinion was that it was an accident, that the boy had been playing with the gun.

Coroner Fortmiller and Dr. Davis went out, but did not call a jury, not thinking the circumstances necessitated one.

TEACHERS' EXAMINATION

Notice is hereby given that the County Superintendent of Linn County will hold the regular examination of applicants for state and county papers at Albany, Or., commencing August 14, at the hour of 9 o'clock a. m. and continue for three days for county papers and four days for state.

W. L. JACKSON, Co. Supt.
 Dated at Albany, Or., this 20th day of July, 1907.

The News office does all kinds of job printing in good style and at reasonable prices.

The total wool clip for Oregon for the year 1907, is estimated to be 2,000,000 pounds, valued at $1,800,000, as against 18,000,000 pounds last year, valued at $3,240,000. The average price of Eastern Ore. on wool was 18 to 20 cents; Willamette Valley, 22 cents.

Hickory Bark Cough Remedy, made by the Hickory Bark Remedy Co., of Salem, Or., guaranteed to be pure; guaranteed to cure your cough, or money refunded. Guaranteed to make a friend of you. For sale by E. C. Peery, Scio, Or., and first-class dealers everywhere.

The 6-year-old son of J. Boyanovsky of Crabtree fell out of an apple tree and broke the middle third bone of his left arm. Dr. J. C. Booth was called to reduce the fracture. Just a year before, on the same day and hour, the boy was thrown from a horse and broke the middle third bone of his left leg.—Lebanon Express Advance.

The lecture at the city hall next Saturday evening by the celebrated Socialist blind orator, J. B. Osh rn, should not be overlooked. Let us go out and give him a good audience, whether we believe in socialism or not. An orator of national repute is worth hearing, no matter what his subject may be.

Lumber hauling is again under full headway which will be continued until the winter rains set in. If the Southern Pacific would build a line into Scio, the mills would construct flumes to this city, in which case the lumber shipments would continue right along through the winter months and the capacity of the mills would be largely increased.

Last ear W. D. Devarney was hunting in the Coast range, about 60 miles from Roseburg, when he fell and slid 40 or 50 feet down a canyon. On reaching camp he discovered the loss of a valuable wise alarm watch. It could not be found. While out hunting this summer a companion suddenly shouted: "Here's the watch you lost last year!" And it was.

The timely subjects to be presented at the Gospel Tent, beginning August 15, 1907, are:

Thursday—"Spiritualism."
 Friday—"Capital and Labor."
 Saturday—"The Test of the Ages."

Sunday 8 P. M.—A reply to Pastor Richm ind's Sunday morning attack on Seventh-Day Adventists.

The May-McBride-Gill outing party has returned, after having spent a month on the trip. The party went up the McKinnon route, spent some days at the hot springs thereon; then went across the mountains, and retraced by the Santiam route, completing the outing with a few days at the Nodas. All report a very pleasant and most enjoyable trip.

While three Washington county boys were leading their horses along a road and road, a big cougar jumped out from the brush and sprang on the neck of one of them. The two others, with rare presence of mind, whipped out their revolvers and both shot, striking the animal in the neck and head. She fell, and before the boys could get another shot had disappeared into the brush.

T. Cadiz Powell, U. S. marshal of Alaska, appointed by President Roosevelt, is now in Portland. According to the Portland papers, Powell, when in the clerk's office in Multnomah county, purloined thousands of dollars from the county funds. But the fact was concealed until the nefarious statute of limitation had barred prosecution for the theft. Yet, after all this had transpired, the president appointed him to a fat office. There is, certainly, something existing somewhere, and it is a moral certainty that Senator Fulton knew of it then, and knows of it now; yet he will ask the people of Oregon to re-elect him to the United States senate. If they do so, they should all emigrate to the state of Colorado, where they would find plenty of congenial company.

AN EXCITING GAME OF BALL

Probably there has not been a more exciting, nor a more closely contested game of base ball played in the Willamette Valley this year by amateurs, than that played last Sunday by a Salem team and the local nine of this city on the Scio diamond at Linn county fair grounds. The contesting teams were very evenly matched, as the score of 3-2 and eleven innings, would indicate. Even in league circles, the score would be regarded as a good one.

The Scio team was handicapped in having three of its members absent on their vacation, who had to be replaced by inferior players—the only available. The team thus weakened, and a number of costly errors, made by the best players in the Scio team, made the Salem boys a donation of the game.

The run getting commenced in the third, when Scio managed to get a man over the plate. In the following inning Salem returned the compliment. Towards the close of the game each team had secured another run each, and the ninth inning closed with a score of 2 and 2. The tenth added a goose egg to the score of each team.

The eleventh inning found Scio's poorest batters, who retired the side, while Salem's surest batteries were on deck, and the winning run was secured.

The game was most interesting, because of a tie score during almost the entire game, and was greatly enjoyed by the spectators.

As a contrast to the ball games of today, the News man has a score of a game of base ball as played forty years ago. The game of nine innings was played in 2 hours 57 minutes, with a score of 73 to 65. The teams were regarded as good in those days.

FAVOR BUYING LARGE PLANT

From a recent talk with some of the directors of the Condensed Milk company, it has been hinted that some are in favor of buying a small machine. In view of the fact that, outside of 9764 cows, now engaged by Mr. Olmstead, there is to be but service on the river, which will draw from territory contiguous to the Long Tom up and down the Willamette.

Mike Johnson of Salem is anxious to run a launch from Salem, and Mr. Burnett of Monroe wants to contract for 30,000 pounds daily, so that, from present indications, a 2,000-can capacity machine would be inadequate to handle the daily demands made upon it, inside of six months. There is only one way to start an enterprise, that is, start it right; it is no toy, or child's play. The milk is in this vicinity and we have to handle it.

It is an enterprise that will not only mean much to the stockholders but a great deal to Albany; and if the right foot is put forward to start with, its success is assured.

A MAIL ACCIDENT

Tuesday last, Mrs. Edith McDonald, one of Uncle Sam's nieces, and substitute carrier for Route No. 1, met with a mishap which prevented her from completing the trip over the route. Just as she was approaching M. V. Bilyeu's mailbox, her horse became frightened and turned the vehicle almost squarely around, in making the turn the buggy was upset, dumping mail and female out in a heap. Mrs. McKnight, in consequence, was so severely bruised that she telephoned into town for some one to go over the rest of the route, and, also, for a rig to bring the disabled carrier back to town. J. A. Bilyeu and R. Shetton secured a team and completed working the route, and H. M. Myer went after Uncle Sam's wounded relative, Don McDonald, the regular carrier, is in the mountains on his well-earned vacation. We did not learn what injury resulted to the overturned buggy.

THE BIG STRIKE.

The telegraphers' strike that is now on in, perhaps, the most extensive strike in point of the number of the cities involved, that has ever occurred. The commercial service is crippled in all of the large cities, from New York to Los Angeles.

The telegraphers are contending for an 8 hour day, an increase of 15 per cent in wages and for the telegraph companies to furnish the typewriters.

The result of the strike will be a paralysis of the news service and a demoralization of the markets along every line that are dependent upon daily telegraphic reports for stability.

About all the people can do during the pendency of the strike, is to "grin and bear it." Yet they are apt to do considerable thinking, and the thought would be: There would be no strike if the government owned and operated the telegraph lines. They know that there has never been a postmaster's or a mail-carrier's strike, and rightly conclude there would not be a telegrapher's strike with government ownership and operation of the lines.

HOP PICKERS

I want 35 pickers at my hop yard, located 2 1/2 miles east of Buena Vista, in Marion county. Will pay the customary price for picking. Good yard; good comfortable camp ground and three weeks' picking. Register as soon as possible at Santiam News office, or write the undersigned.
