

S. E. YOUNG & SON

Dress Goods

A very nice wide cream Panama, $1.25. Sicilians at 50c, $1.00 and $1.50. New Serges and Wool Goods, in cream and other light shades, very appropriate for outing.

Oxfords

Our stock was a little late in coming in but is complete now. A little more style and a little more quality in all the numbers. Don't fail to see our Patent Cut Oxfords for ladies at $3.50.

Blankets

A good 5lb gray wool Blanket, the thing for coast or mountain use, $4.50.

Gloves

Men's reindeer gauntlet Gloves, $1.50. A good Glove with horsehide palm and goat cuff and back, $1.00. Some new driving Gloves in brown, 75c.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Lee Bilyeu was an Albany visitor Tuesday. J. A. Bilyeu and family were Albany visitors Monday. Clark, Wesely, the house furnisher, was doing business in Albany Thursday. Albert Shelton, of Arlington, Ore., is visiting his father, Lee Shelton, and family. Mrs. E. J. Daley and daughter, Miss Dolie, went to Portland Wednesday for a visit with relatives. Judge W. M. Queener, wife and daughter, Mrs. Richardson, of Stayton, were Scio visitors yesterday. Mrs. Maud Conaway returned to her home on Hood River Tuesday. Her sister, Miss Eva Bilyeu, accompanied her for a visit.

WESTGATE GETS A PLUM.

G. A. Westgate has been formally appointed surveyor-general of Oregon. He has been a resident of Albany about ten years, being in the grain, horse, commission and newspaper business. He has been chairman of the Republican state convention, and was a prominent candidate for collector of customs and railroad commissioner. He succeeds J. D. Daly, recently deceased, and who met with a fatal accident at Ft. Stevens several days ago—Democrat. The Albany Herald ought to be so generous as to value property, not on account of the plant, which we know is a good one, but for the fruit it brings its owners. Editor Train was appointed and served as postmaster at Albany for eight years. Editor Whitney was elected state printer, and Editor Westgate has been appointed surveyor-general. Former editors have certainly been lucky.

SIGNING ORDERS.

We talked the other day with a well-known, highly-esteemed and thoroughly honest school director. He told us of some trouble he has recently experienced. He felt better when we told him that all directors had these troubles to a greater or less extent. He was a man who desired to do whatever he could for the good of the district. He devoted considerable time to the discharge of his duties as school director. He felt that the school should be equipped with an abundance of apparatus. But he finds himself the victim of misrepresentation made by some gentlemen who were engaged in the sale of school maps. He had done what many other school directors had done before, and what many will do in the future, he had signed his name to what purported to be a testimonial, but which, turned out to be an order for an expensive set of maps. The maps were useful, but the methods employed to effect a sale did not appeal to this gentleman at all, and this only proves that off-its, as a rule, are not careful what they sign. School directors in particular, are made victims oftentimes of gentlemen who are paid a high salary because of their ability to dispose of apparatus to school directors at enormous profit. If school directors are in doubt as to what they should buy or what they should not buy, they will be safe in asking the opinion of the teacher or of the county superintendent. But this thing of signing orders or testimonials simply to get rid of a persistent agent, is a dangerous policy and always results in a misunderstanding, and often ends in litigation. School directors should scrutinize very carefully a contract before they sign it.—Ex.

EQUALIZATION NOTICE.

The County Board of Equalization will meet at the office of the County Clerk, Monday, October 21, 1907, and remain in session six days for the purpose of publicly examining the assessment roll and to correct all errors. In valuation, description or quantity of land, lots or other property, and all persons interested are hereby notified to appear at the appointed time and place, and if it shall appear to said board that any land, lots or other property be assessed twice or assessed in the name of any person or persons not the owner thereof, or assessed under or beyond its value, or any lands, lots, or other property not assessed, they will make the proper correction.

D. B. MCKNIGHT, County Assessor.

LAND FOR SALE.

I offer my farm of 200 acres for sale; 34 acres in cultivation, 15 acres slash, and 150 acres of first-class saw timber. Land lies six miles east of Scio, has house, barn and fair orchard; living water. I am offering a bargain, and any one desiring to purchase land will do well to see me.

JOHN RUZICKA, Scio, Oregon.

The News office does all kinds of job printing in good style and at reasonable prices.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Read Wesely & Cain's ad. Fresh Bread daily at the Cozy Corner. All kinds of Grass Seeds, clover Seed, and Oil Meal at Wesely's Grocery. Three S. P. surveyors were in town Wednesday. What does it mean? For Sale—Forty head of high grade Angora goats. Inquire of S. F. Zysset, Scio, Oregon. When in Albany, visit the store of Charles Knecht and see the real 5, 10 and 15 cent counters. Chas. Wesely has just put in a full line of picture mouldings, handsome in design. Call and see them. See the "Never-Fail" Oil Cans at Wesely's Grocery. They have no equal. Given you on 30 days' trial free. The Revere house, Albany, now in charge of S. C. Hummel, formerly of Corvallis, is now open to the public. David Rice is preparing to erect a residence on his property on the south side, on the main street leading east. Bulk Olives, Pickled Herring, Salt Salmon, Boneless Codfish, sweet, sour and Dill Pickles, at Wesely's Grocery. A full line of hardware has just been received by Chas. Wesely. Give him a call. No trouble to show them to you. It is reported that West Scio is to be the layover point for the Woodburn train, instead of Crabtree, as heretofore. We have a full line of sash doors, paints, lead, oils, tar roofing, wall paper, picture mouldings, carpets, etc., at C. Wesely's. Any person wishing work done, will do well to call or address C. D. Comp-ton, at Scio, Oregon. House moving a specialty. Orchardist Goodwin is now gathering his apples. He has several hundred bushels of Spitzenbergs that actually look good enough to eat. Albany is being considerably agitated by the local option cases being investigated. No matter what may be thought of the local option law, so long as it is on our statutes, it should be enforced. You can give your friends no better advice than to recommend Hickory Bark Cough Remedy for all coughs and colds. Sure cure! Sure pure. For sale by dealers every where, and E. C. Peery, Scio, Or. Advertising pays! As an evidence of this fact, yesterday a coat was brought to our office, which was found on the Jordan road. We wrote a notice for publication, and before night the owner called for the coat. Surely it pays to advertise. "Tony" Nolter, one of the oldest and best known of Oregon newspaper men, died at the residence of his son in Portland Tuesday morning. Mr. Nolter was one of Oregon's pioneer newspapermen, of average ability and universally popular. N. Young started east Monday with the expectation of staying two months or more. He will visit a sister who lives at Adams, Neb. At the same time, another sister, whom he has not met for 60 years, will come from her home at Johnstown, Penn. Frank Tucker, who claims to be a brother of James Tucker, who formerly lived in Scio, has been arrested as a suspect in the murder of ex-Sheriff Brown, of Baker City. The description given would indicate that the brother's statement may be true. Hickory Bark Cough Remedy, made by the Hickory Bark Remedy Co., of Salem, Or., guaranteed to be pure; guaranteed to cure your cough, or money refunded. Guaranteed to make a friend of you. For sale by E. C. Peery, Scio, Or., and first-class dealers everywhere.
