DEATH OF S. M. DANIEL

Word was received in this city on Monday of the death of S. M. Daniel in Salem early on the morning of the 21st inst.
S. M., or Clef, as he was familiarly called, was well and favorably known in Scio. He was born on the Daniel homestead on Crater-creek, where he was raised to manhood. After completing his education, he engaged for a number of years in merchandising in Scio, from whence he moved to Monmouth some eight years ago, where he continued in general merchandising. The cause of his death was cancer of the face and neck.
Mr. Daniel was first-class citizen of sterling character, and a prominent member and worker in the Christian church.
A sister is the only member of the E. M. Dan of family now living.
From the Salem Capital Journal we glean the following: Mr. Daniel was born May 14, 1865, making his age at death 42 years, 5 months. He was married in 1885 to Miss Verna Peck at Eugene. To the union were born five children, viz.: Norma, Luella, Lorana, Clarence and Edward, all of whom, together with the mother, survive him. The funeral service and burial occurred at Salem on Tuesday afternoon.

DEATH CLAIMS SAMUEL I. SHORE

Word was received in this city Wednesday of the death of Samuel I. Shore, at his home in Monmouth on the previous day. Mr. Shore was a citizen of Scio until some six or seven years ago, from whence he moved to Monmouth. He engaged in merchandising here, being a member of the firm of Hibler, Shore & Holdridge. A few years ago, he became almost totally blind, and in the effort to gain his sight, became almost impossibly infirm, having to depend upon the daily earnings of himself and wife for a subsistence. The funeral occurred Thursday afternoon at Franklin Butte cemetery, in the family burial plot.

WILL BE CONTESTED.

A number of homestead claims up Crabtree and Thomas Creek, the title of which were secured without complying with the law, are to be contested.
It is said a decision has been rendered stating that when a title to land has been secured fraudulently, and the fact is properly established, it will be declared void.
With this decision to back them up, about one dozen locations have been made upon these patented claims. Of course, the first proceeding will be a contest. If the holder of the claim can establish that he has substantially complied with the law, his title will be protected; but if he has not complied with the law, he will, probably, lose his claim besides standing a good show of facing the charge of perjury.

WE APOLOGIZE

Perhaps THE NEWS owes an apology to the rest of the Linn county and adjoining newspapers. If so, here it is: We did not wish our contemporaries to infer that we felt towards them for not attending our fair, when we stated, "Col. Hoder was the only newspaper man who thought our fair worthy of attending etc." We wrote the item as a matter of news, and stated it so unobtrusively, that the wrong inference could be drawn.
The newspapers throughout the valley treated our fair very handsomely in giving it publicity. We would have been pleased to have all editors visit us who we supplied with "comps." THE NEWS extends the thanks of the Society, and expresses the hope that you will favor us with a visit next year.

FOR SALE.

On account of ill-health of myself and family, I hereby offer my butcher shop, fixtures and business for sale. To the right kind of a purchaser this business is a paying one. Terms reasonable. For particulars, consult me at the shop, on the east side of Main street, next to the bridge. GEORGE KOENEKE.

refunded. Guaranteed to make a friend of you. For sale by E. C. Peery, Scio, Or., and first-class dealers everywhere.
J. L. Martin, a prosperous Marion county farmer, was almost instantly killed last Sunday by the accidental discharge of a hammerless shotgun. He on taking hold of the gun, grasped it by the muzzle, when from some unaccountable reason, the gun was discharged.

Fred Gooch has completed the shipment of his mill machinery, traction engine and household goods to above Lyons, and is now no longer a citizen of Scio. Fred is a good citizen and a rustler for business. THE NEWS wishes him all the good luck imaginable in his new field.

About the surest way to persuade President Roosevelt to accept a third term is to arouse the trusts and railroads into action and open opposition to his election. If there is anything in the world the president likes better than killing deer, it is to fight and overcome opposition.

Pres. Kerr, of the O. A. C., will address the farmers and fruit growers on "The Farm and Higher Education," on the afternoon of the 7th and in the evening will give his splendid lecture on "Industrial Education." Don't fail to hear him. At the Apple fair, Albany, Nov. 6 and 7.

Over 100 Menonites from Oregon, Washington and Idaho have been in conference over at Albany this week. Menonites is a religious sect somewhat resembling the Dunker or Duckards. The adherents of that faith with whom we are acquainted, are first-class citizens and farmers.

A careless hunter killed a cow belonging to W. H. Martin, of Albany, this week, and Mr. Martin purpose making it hot for anyone hunting on his ranch in the future. A hunter that cannot distinguish the difference between a cow and a Chinese peasant, ought not to be granted license to hunt.

The fruit growers of Oregon will receive for their crop for the present year, $4,275,135, as estimated by Hon. W. K. Newell, president of the State Board of Horticulture. In making his estimate Mr. Newell does not deal with fancy prices, nor does he include the fruit that will be consumed on the farm.

Scio needs a jewelry store whose proprietor could repair clocks and watches. We are also without a justice of the peace since the death of I. C. Dekey. The county court should look after this matter once. We are, usually, a very peaceable people here, but occasionally the services of a justice is required.

Edward Perdu, charged with the larceny of a steer, who has been confined in the county jail for the past few months awaiting the coming session of the circuit court, was released on bail this morning, furnished by Mrs. Perdu, the prisoner's wife. Perdu will have his trial at the October term of the circuit court, which commences next Monday.—Albany Herald.

Walter Blyen was last week the victim of rather an odd accident. He was riding on the high seat of a wool rack. One of the horses indulged in a kicking spell. One of the kicks landed on the bottom of one of Walter's feet. Result: He thinks one of the bones of the foot is smashed, and he is using a pair of crutches with which to navigate.

Last week we noted that Walter Blyen had resigned as central operator for the Scio Mutual Telephone Co. At a meeting of the directors at that time, a committee was named to select his successor. Tuesday the committee made its selection in the person of Newton Weddle, of Stayton, at a salary of $60 per month. Mr. Weddle will move to Scio at once and take charge of the office.

John Jacobs, of Prine precinct, has been fined $2 for neglecting to send his 14-year-old son to school. As an excuse, Jacobs stated he needed the boy to work at home. Truant Officer Walker thinks the law ought to be enforced, and, from his movements, the probabilities are that it will be. So if you are keeping your boy or girl out of school without a just cause, you had better get a move on you. To be fined and given publicity for this offense is, to say the least, not creditable.

Uncle Jamba A. Crabtree, of Newberg, was a caller at this office Monday morning. Uncle Jim says that Newberg is improving very rapidly. A milk condenser and a big canner being among this year's improvements. Uncle Jim is now in his 82nd year, and is exceedingly hale and hearty for that great age. He is a Mexican war veteran and was one of General Taylor's boys in that war. He gets a pension of $20 per month, which with the proceeds of his farm, which he lately sold, furnishes him an abundant living. Uncle Jim is enjoying life, lives with his children, and is as jolly and cheerful as one can desire.

G. D. TROTTER, STAYTON OREGON

sufficient depth of water can be obtained in the harbor for coast steamers to enter the bay with safety. Ed. Sullivan, one of Newport's prominent citizens, in speaking to a Journal reporter this morning, said the steamer Leggett, few months ago, proved that at present there is sufficient depth in the harbor for many of the coast vessels. The Leggett is a boat drawing 15 feet of water and over 200 feet long. During this summer the boat entered Yaquina harbor, proceeded to Yaquina
