PERSONAL MENTION.

Wm. Young was in Albany Wednesday looking after business matters.

A. E. Randall returned from a business trip to Corvallis Monday morning.

Wm. Sims, of Shedd, has been spending this week visiting home folks in this city.

George P. Warner, of the Scio Milling Co. was an Albany visitor on Monday.

Mrs. Zoe Lee, formerly Miss Zoe Morris, is visiting Mrs. Sarah Morris this week.

H. D. Landon, the Lebanon machinist, was on our streets last Friday greeting his Scio friends.

Clarence Rex went over to Albany Tuesday evening to look after matters pertaining to the settling up of his father's business affairs.

N. J. Morrison and Fred Goodfellow, of Bilyeu Den, were down Tuesday looking after business matters. Mr. Morris-son has a business project in mind that, if carried out, will be of considerable importance to Scio. We are not at liberty yet to disclose its nature, but will simply say, great endings often result from small beginnings.

This week Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Abbott and James Abbott a rived home from up the Calipsoa mountain wagon road, where they have been employed during the past summer. The road is not yet completed to the mines. By the time it is completed, the expense will not miss $5,000 very far—just about ten times the first estimated cost. About a week before they came out, Mrs. Abbott killed a fine large buck, a feat of which she is quite proud.

J. E. Bilyeu, of Bilyeu Den, has bought a small body of Santiam bottom land near the S. P. bridge on the South Santiam where the Woodburn-Springfield line crosses, and is now moving thereto. The price paid was $60 per acre. Mr. Bilyeu intends to engage in potato raising extensively.

R. Shelton, of St. Johns, was in Albany Monday, says the Democrat, on his way to Scio to close up his business. As he left Scio on Monday, the Democrat was probably misled in the statement. Mr. Shelton was simply looking after business matters at the county seat. He will go to St. Johns later.

The Portland Oregon Journal should instruct its Washington correspondent to be not so careless in stating historical events. Benjamin Harrison was president in 1888, and not William McKinley, as this correspondent stated. McKinley was first elected in 1896. All the same, The News heartily congratulates the sentiment expressed.

THE ELECTIONS.

Elections were held in twelve states and a number of cities on Tuesday.

Probably the San Francisco election excited more interest in this state than that of any other locality. There were three principal tickets—Republican, Union Labor and Democratic Good Government tickets. Mayor Taylor was a candidate on the latter ticket and appears to have won out by a plurality of 9000. District Attorney Langdon is re-elected by a majority of 19,000.

In New York, Hearstism is badly smoked under. In New York city, the Democratic ticket defeated the Republican-Hearst fusion by a large majority.

Kentucky, for the first time in her history, appears to have elected the entire Republican ticket.

Mayor Tom Johnson was elected mayor of Cleveland, Ohio, for the fourth time, defeating Congressman Burton.
This fight, in a measure, was looked upon as a Bryan-Roosevelt contest. Mayor Johnson was Mr. Bryan's candidate, and Congressman Burton, it is understood, accepted the majority nomination at the special request of the president.

Republicans have been elected in New York, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Kentucky and Nebraska. Democrats elected in New Jersey, New York city, Rhode Island, Maryland, Mississippi, Cleveland, Ohio, and San Francisco.

TOOK A SPIN.

A. J. Devaney's family buggy horse was left standing in the streets Wednesday morning on the north side. Being hooked to the buggy and thinking it was time to move, the horse proceeded to get busy. In the effort of a number to stop him, he was caused to make several turns on the north side before he started to create a sensation on the south side of the bridge. As he crossed the bridge, Mr. Phillips, mounted, gave chase. Turning south on Water street, the now frightened animal thought the best place for him to be, but on the road, a pass way leading down into the cool waters of Thomas creek looked inviting. Anyway, he wanted either a drink or a bath, he was not particular which. After being chased up the channel of the creek for 100 yards, he concluded the run had ceased to be sport, and suffered himself to be caught. No particular damage resulted.

A good plan, hereafter, will be to tie up when you leave this equine who thinks he is a racehorse, which he isn't, Andy.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to publicly tender our most heartfelt thanks to our neighbors and friends for their kindly attention and sympathy during the sickness and death of our husband and father.

Mrs. A. J. Rex,
CLARENCE AND ERNEST REX.

PAY UP.

I design closing out my butcher business in a very short time, and it is necessary for every person knowing themselves indebted to my shop to come for ward immediately and settle the same.
A word to the wise is sufficient.

GEORGE ROENEKE.

ANSWERS THE FINAL ROLL CALL

While it had been reported on our streets for the past week or two that Comrade Aaron J. Rex was sick and confined to his home, it was not reported that the sickness would result fatally.
The end came peacefully on Saturday morning, November 2. The cause of his death is attributable to his service in the army during the civil war.

Aaron J. Rex was born in Nimitzella, Ohio, on February 24, 1841, making his age at the time of death 64 years, 7 months and 8 days. He went from Ohio to Chicago in 1864, and there enlisted in the 64th Illinois cavalry, in which regiment he served until the end of the war.

Returning to Ohio after his discharge from the army, he was married in 1867 to Della Elizabeth Scott. Removes from Ohio to Missouri in 1869, and two years thereafter to Kansas, in 1885 to New Mexico and from there to California the following year. He came to Oregon in 1888, and where he has since continued to reside. He has been engaged in the harness business in Scio since 1911.

Comrade Rex was the father of five children, three daughters, all of whom are dead, and two sons, Clarence and Ernest, who together with their mother, live in Scio. As a citizen and business man Comrade Rex was quiet and unob-trusive; as a neighbor, obliging, as a husband and father, kind and affectionate.

The funeral service were held at 2 p. m. at the Baptist church on Monday, Nov. 2, at 11 o'clock. Burial was conducted the service. By request, Comrades Barnes, Barham, Miles Gossage, Carpenter and Dugger served as active bearers, and laid away all that was mortal of their departed comrade.

CHANGES IN S. P. SCHEDULE.

Important changes of time on the Southern Pacific lines in Oregon will become effective November 10. The Shasta express, a through train to San Francisco from Portland, will be taken off the California run and will operate between Portland and Roseburg only. This will greatly improve the service through the Willamette Valley while it will do away with the morning train to California.

This is said to be in the public interest, however, for train No. 11, leaving Portland daily at 8:15 a. m. and arriving here at 12:30 p. m., has never been a fav.rite with passengers.

Train No. 12 will leave Roseburg at 8:30 a. m., arriving here about 1:30 p. m. Train No. 11 will arrive here about the same time as the present schedule, as it leaves Portland at the same time. This train will only run to Roseburg and will therefore carry no dinner, and 2 1/2 minutes will be allowed in this city for lunch. Train No. 14, also a California train, will leave Albany at 9:10 a. m. and will arrive here about 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

On the Lebanon branch, train No. 60 will, after November 10, leave Albany at 12:35 p. m. It now leaves at 1:45 p. m. Trains 11 and 12 will connect with this train at Albany.

The time of train No. 17 on the main line of the Southern Pacific, will be lengthened 10 minutes between Harrisburg and Cottage Grove. Train No. 62, on the Lebanon branch, will leave Albany at 9:05 a. m. instead of 8:55 a. m.
Train No. 60, on the Albany-Springfield branch, will leave Albany at 1:30 p. m. instead of 8 p. m., as at present, arriving at Springfield at 4:35 p. m. instead of 10:55 p. m. This change is made at the solicitation of patrons of the Woodburn-Springfield branch.—Albany Herald.

TO RANK THIRD.

Linn county is to have the third largest apple orchard in Oregon. A Portland company, of which Chester A. Parvin is superintendent, has secured 300 acres of fruit lands in the south part of the county, in the neighborhood of Twin Buttes, and will plant the same in standard varieties of apples.

The largest orchard—400 acres—is at Medford. The second largest is the M.
L. Lewis orchard, near Lyle, in Yamhill county, and consists of 320 acres. The Linn county orchard will have 200 acres of trees set out this winter, and the other hundred next winter.
