PERSONAL MENTION.

For headache Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills.

Frank Kula, of this city, and C. Overholtz, of near Scio, were business visitors in Albany Tuesday.

Mrs. E. J. Daley and Miss Dollie returned from a several weeks' visit to Portland, on Saturday night's train.

Mrs. Emma Lesley and little son are visiting their parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Morrow, of this city.

L. W. Parker, of the Thomas Creek Lumber Co., returned from a Thanksgiving visit to his farm near Plainview, last Saturday.

Rev. J. O. Richmond, came down from Springfield Saturday morning to conduct the Aunt Barbara Munkers funeral obsequies.

Herman Hecker, of the firm of Hecker Bros., Albany, large handlers of stock, came over Friday evening and returned the following day.

AUNT BARBARA MUNKERS PASSES AWAY.

On Thanksgiving afternoon occurred the for some days expected death of Aunt Barbara Munkers.

Afflicted with a malignant cancer, from which great mental suffering resulted, the merciful intervening of death and the end of pain was a matter of joy rather than sorrow to those who loved Aunt Barbara best. While the hand of affection was ever ready to aleviate and ease every pain, the end must have been one of melancholy pleasure to the anxious and affectionate watchers.

The funeral service, conducted by Rev. J. O. Richmond, was held at the Baptist church on Saturday morning, November 30, and the burial at Franklin Butte cemetery, beside the husband who had preceded her some 17 years, immediately followed, a very large concourse of friends and neighbors attesting their love and respect with their presence.

Barbara Munkers was born in the state of Indiana October 5, 1821, and died in Scio, November 28, 1907, making her age 86 years 1 month and 23 days. She moved with her parents, when but a girl, from Indiana to Iowa. Reaching womanhood she was married to Zephenish Ireland about 1840. In 1852 the Irelands crossed the plains to Oregon by ox team and settled on a farm in Washington county. Mr. Ireland's death occurred some four years later, and the subject of this sketch was married to Preston Munkers, November 10, 1859. Mr. Munkers' death occurred October 16, 1890, and Aunt Barbara was left companionless to finish the journey of life.

Being denied by nature the joys of real motherhood, her motherly affection was extended to many motherless children, chief of which were T. J. Munkers, a stepson, and W. A. Ewing, a foster son, both of this city, and who could not have extended greater affection and filial care to a real mother.

For months Aunt Barbara has known that her ailment could have but one result, and she has awaited the end with fortitude and Christian resignation. An affectionate wife and mother, and a kind neighbor, her sphere of influence, which was always for that which was right and just, was limited only by those with whom she came in contact. A long life of simple unostentatious devotion to duty, exemplary in every way, will have a lasting influence. The world is the better because of the fact that people of the sterling integrity and rectitude of Aunt Barbara Munkers, lives in it.

A MAGNIFICENT SHOWING.

As an indication of the splendid financial condition of our citizens and also the energetic and attentive methods of Sheriff D. S. Smith, the tax collecting department of the sheriff's office is able to make a most excellent showing. The total amount charged up and placed in the sheriff's hands March 1 last was $233,949.35. This amount was increased by sheriff's assessment $248.30, and by penalties, $857.40, making a grand total of $235,055.05.

Of this amount $218,150 05 has been collected, $367.79 allowed for errors in assessment, $5,645.92 allowed in rebates, leaving a balance now delinquent of $10,891.63. The largest delinquent amounts are due from Willamette Valley Co., $2,664.48, and C. & E. R. R., $2 751 87. Deducting these two delinquencies, a balance of only $6,475.28 of the large tax roll remains to be collected. Now, much of this last amount is due on personal property of parties who have removed from the county and never can be collected. As it is, a very small delinquent list will have to be reported. This fact argues a prosperous condition of the people and an efficient attention to the county's business by Sheriff Smith that is most commendable.

Judge Frazer, who presided over the juvenile court in Portland, died in that city from the effects of an operation for appendecitis. Judge Frazer's loss is regarded as a calamity by the citizens of Portland.

The railroads are now beginning to feel sorry they raised the freight rates on lumber. The money stringency has so paralyzed the freighting business that the roads can take care of all the business offered, and then some.

Canby is now to be a dry town. The dry ticket won out by 2 majority. It will be remembered that Canby is the town where boys could buy liquor with impunity, and where one boy, in a drunken stupor, was strangled to death.

Hickory Bark Cough Remedy, made by the Hickory Bark Remedy Co., of Salem, Or., guaranteed to be pure; guaranteed to cure your cough, or money refunded. Guaranteed to make a friend of you. For sale by E. C. Peery, Scio, Or., and first-class dealers everywhere.

In the jolly times of the holidays self-interest should not be entirely forgotten. A little money laid aside will come in handy. Send a few dollars to the Lee Comstock Mining company, P. O. Box 258, Rhyolite, Nevada, and buy a block of stock at 15c a share. It may prove a good investment.

The McCleay quadruple murder, in which Mrs. Casteel, son and daughter, and farm hand, named Montgomery, were the victims, which occurred some time last Saturday night, is still a matter of mystery to the officers. No clue that offers any reasonable explanation has been discovered.

Rev. G. W. Pettit will speak on next Saturday and Sunday evenings at the Christian church. Subject—"Why Seventh Day Adventists believe we are living near the End of the World and the Second Coming of Christ." A cordial invitation is extended to all to hear these two discourses.

Jason Wheeler, one of Linn county's oldest pioneers, died at his home in Albany, Tuesday, at the age of 84 years. Captain Wheeler was an Indian war veteran and was the head of that order for a number of years. He was also the builder of Santiam canal and the Cascade mountain wagon road.

The Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company, if it would re-establish itself in the estimation of the people of this locality, would do well to withdraw its efforts to avoid paying its just portion of the tax. People of the Forks of the Santiam have but very little use for tax dodging corporations.

A rather interesting telephone meeting was held by the stockholders of the Scio-Albany commercial telephone line last Saturday afternoon. A proposition was adopted to be submitted to the Home Telephone. Later—The proposition was rejected by the Home company. Hence, telephone matters remain in the same condition as before the meeting.

CITY ELECTION.

Scio held the most quiet city election of her history last Monday. Indeed, it was so quiet that not more than one-fourth of our citizens seemed to know that it was city election day. Another reason for the small vote was, the board of city officers soon to go out of office, have conducted the city government with eminent satisfaction to everyone, and, as there was but one ticket in the field, com osed almost exclusively of the old officers for re-election, many voters knowing this fact, failed to go to the polls to vote. Of about 100 voters, only 21 felt sufficiently concerned to take the tiee trouble to vote.

The new board of city officers will be as follows:

Mayor—A. G. Prill; re-elected.

Recorder — P. H. McDonald; re-elected.

Treasurer—W. F. Gill; re-elected.

Marshal—J. A. Bilyeu; re-elected.

Aldermen—Roger Cain, L. E. Miller, Chas. Weseley, E. L. Peery, H. Shops, J. J. Barnes, all re-elected, and D. M. McKnight.

H. M. Myer received one vote for mayor; and for councilmen, John Leffler 7, H. M. Myers 7, Joe Wesely 1, G. W. Morrow 1, A. J. Devaney 1. For marshal, W. H. Stam and A. F. Beard each received one vote.

OTHER CITY ELECTIONS.

ALBANY.

Albany officers elected are: Dr. J. P. Wallace, mayor; F. M. Redfield, recorder, E. D. Cusick, treasurer; Fred Ries, marshal. Councilmen — First ward, L. C. Marshal; second ward, F. J. Miller; third ward, M. L. Wilmot.

The fire hydrant ordinance, which had been vetoed by Mayor Wallace and then passed over the veto, was referred to the people and the veto sustained. Three initiative resolutions were proposed, one to cut off that portion of the city limits extending into Benton county, carried; to issue bonds to cover the city's floating indebtedness, defeated; to chose the city marshal by appointment by the city council, defeated.

LEBANON.

Mayor, J. L. Mayer; recorder, G. W. Crusen; treasurer, H. Y. Kirkpatrick; councilmen, I. M. Crandall, N. D. Keefhaver and J. R. Green.

SODAVILLE.

Recorder, J. W. Mitchell; treasurer, C. F. Smith; marshal, O. Summers; councilmen, J. M. Beyles, H. C. Lifert, F. W. Smith, J. E. Hamer and Hogue Parrish. The council will elect one of its members mayor.

CONGRESS IN SESSION.

The second or short session of congress convened last Monday. This is called the "short session" because it is required by law to close on or prior to March 4, when the terms of many congressmen expire. The first, or "long session," may prolong its existence for one year, if not sooner terminated by the voice of the members.

Hon. Joseph G. Cannon was elected speaker for the third time, and is easily the biggest gun of the House of Representatives.

It is not expected that any tariff legislation will be undertaken, though it is understood that a strong effort will be made to remove the duty on print paper and paper pulp.

Some sort of currency reform legislation and amendment to the railway rate law, will probably be undertaken; but, taken altogether, there is the least indication of what legislation will be taken up at the present time, of almost any congress heretofore held.
