PROGRESS WINS OUT

Decisive Vote of 49 to 15 Shows Scio Will No Longer Be a Backnumber

Scio has decided, by the decisive vote of 49 to 15 to extend her water system so that all parts of the city will have fire protection. The election was held on Monday, January 13, at the city hall, and treated a warm interest. In defense of the 15, who placed themselves as obstructors to the wheels of progress, it is out just to say the incurring of debt was their only grounds of opposition. They thought we should undertake but the installation of the electric light plant, when the water question could be taken up later on. But, as our honorable state, three fourths of our population both plants, and want them now. As all public questions are determined by the rule of the majority, this will be an exception to the rule and our city will install both plants as soon as practicable.

Of course Scio will incur a debt of possibly $1000. But what of that! Years ago when our water and light systems were owned and operated by private parties, we paid from $100 to $150 per month for city water and lights. At this rate we would pay for the entire plant every four or five years, yet not acquiring ownership of the plants. In interest upon the debt thus incurred will be not over $50. The cost of operating the plants not over $400 to $500 making a total of not more than $1000 per year. We would have to pay more than this for street lights and water if the systems were in private hands. Thus the saving, the city makes, more than offsets the debt, leaving the entire income from private users of water and lights as private property and which will pay the interest on the debt. The saving of insurance to our citizens will more than pay the interest charges. So in every way the matter can be considered, the step should be taken by our city, are wise.

DEATH OF CHARLES GLASS.

It has been known for several weeks that Charles Glass was afflicted with a mortal disease and when the word came in the street Tuesday noon that he was no more, while all expressed sorrow, one was surprised. His ailment, consumption, manifested itself about one year ago in the way of a stubborn cough which he was never able to overcome. Last fall Charles evidently concluded that the recovery of his health was doubtful, for he disposed of his personal property. He talked of changing his residence to a different climate, but failed to do so.

About three months ago he became weakened and emaciated that he was confined to his room. Growing no better, he had his sister Mrs. A. L. Richardson and husband A. L., come down from Echo, Oregon, to care for him, and rooms were rented from Mrs. Amsel for the purpose. But the love and care of a sister were unavailing. Death had marked Charles Glass as his own. He peacefully breathed his last on Tuesday, January 28, 1908.

Charles Glass was born in Adams county, Ill., March 12, 1870. Came to Oregon and to Scio with his parents in November 1881, where he grew to manhood and where he has continued to reside since, with the exception of four years spent in Eastern Oregon. His education was obtained entirely in the public schools. Charles has never married. Both his parents being dead, he leaves two sisters, Mrs. Mary Cunningham, of Wasco county, Oregon, Mrs. Belle Richardson of Morrow county, Oregon, and three brothers, Marcellus, George and Sheridan, all of Wasco county, to mourn his loss. Mrs. Richardson and Sheridan were at his bedside when the pale messenger arrived. The funeral, conducted by Rev. Evans, of Albany, transpired on Wednesday at the Christian Church. The burial immediately thereafter at the Franklin Butte cemetery.

As a citizen, neighbor and friend, Charles Glass had no superiors. Being scrupulously honest and upright, none were enemies. All dropped the silent tear upon his bier as they paid the last look and token of respect to their loved neighbor and friend.

SPECIAL SALE.

We will offer our entire line of bugles at factory prices after November 1. Now is the time to buy.

THOMAS CREEK RIPPLES.

Mrs. Z. J. Clark and daughter Odie who have been visiting friends in Albany and Salem for the past week returned home Monday.
Mrs. Ona Shelton, who has been very ill for the past two weeks is slowly improving.
Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Miller spent a few days, last week, with their uncle Will Miller of Thomas Creek Lumber Company.
Mr. and Mrs. Don Ray spent Sunday with W. R. Ray of Jordan.
Mrs. John Calavan spent Saturday and Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Russell, at Parkers Mill.
Mr. Geo. Westenhouse has just finished building a new wire fence around his four yard which adds greatly in appearance to the place—an example others could do well to follow.
Mr. and Mrs. Will Miller spent Sunday with Mrs. Miller's father, Mr. August Rahn.
Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Frost, who have been among the La Grippe victims for several weeks, are slowly on the mend.
Mrs. Delbert Shelton went down to Salem last Wednesday, for a few weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Weaver.
Mrs. Addie Beaver came up from the coast last Thursday for a few weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carvey Shelton.
Mrs. Josie Gaines was the guest of Mrs. Geo. Westenhouse Thursday of last week.
Evel Osburn, of Shelburn, made an over Sunday visit with his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Grimes.
Mr. Beach Hall, wife and children, of Still City, are the guests of E. F. Stewart, his week.
Mr. Burr Fleming spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. Fred and Frank Grimes. He also attended church at the Blyen Den Church Saturday night.
Sunday school at the Shelton School house was very largely attended last Sunday.
It seems like good old summer time when you see Geo. Westenhouse going to town with a thousand feet of lumber on a load.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Judge G. H. Burnett called the circuit court at 9 o'clock Monday and ran through the docket, disposing of the cases not attended to by Judge Harris. There was no business for a jury trial and were dismissed for the term. Following is the record:
Continued—J. J. Whitley agt. Thomas Large, Oregon agt. Edward Ferber, J. Turin agt. W. C. Black, Oregon agt. Ralph Turpin, Oregon agt. M. Drenner, Oregon agt. David Young, R. O. Keene agt. Waterloo, J. H. Henshall agt. H. K. Hasler, M. A. James agt. White & Fletcher, G. V. Smith agt. Roscoe E. Overman, I. T. A. agt. Wm. Hollich, Speck agt. Nevin, J. M. Bradley agt. Nevin, J. W. Cusick agt. Brown & Sommerville, F. M. Scroggins agt. Thomas Lewis.
In the last case there is a motion to quash the summons on the ground that it was served during the holidays.
Emma G. Daniels agt. the Macabees, as reported earlier.
In the three cases of Oregon agt. James Curran, Lee Morgan, and J. P. Hulbert, for violation of the local option law, Mr. Wyatt for the defendant, ordered the motion for dismissal of appeal and the cases were ordered off the docket. In these cases Curran was fined $100, Hulbert $100 and Morgan $200, which will probably be paid.
A demurrer in J. N. Kice agt. the Jalaposa Lumber Co. was argued and the case continued.

THE RANDALL-MILLER WEDDING.

Rev. J. O. Richmond, of Springfield, who was the officiating clergyman, writes us relative to the marriage of Mr. A. E. Randall and Miss Vena Miller:
"The ceremony was performed in the presence of only a few of the immediate friends of the contracting parties. The bride is one of the best and most popular ladies and is loved by all who know her on account of her many sterling qualities and winning manners. The groom is a man of the best business qualifications and enjoys the respect and confidence of acquaintances. The happy couple after a short visit to Corvallis relatives, arrived at their home in Scio on the following Friday afternoon. In the evening about 50 or 60 of their Scio friends, including the band, paid a reception visit and serenade. Presents of cut glass, cigars, candies and nuts were features of the reception. After a short visit, congratulations, etc., all repaired to their homes feeling that the welcome they had extended to the young couple upon their settling down in life, was genuinely heartfelt and not perfunctory as such congratulations frequently are."

CARD OF THANKS.

To our neighbors and friends we desire to tender our most sincere and heartfelt thanks for their many acts of kindness and sympathy during the long illness, death and burial of our brother, Charles Glass. We feel that a kinder or more sympathetic people cannot be found than lives in Scio.
MR. AND MRS. A. L. RICHARDSON, SHERIDAN GLASS.

STATEMENT No. 1.

As this is election day and the time for candidates for the various offices will make their appearance, it is, in hand, we publish the following explanation as given by the Portland Journal editorially, of Statement No. 1, for the benefit of any of our readers, who may not thoroughly understand the matter:
"The Journal is asked by several readers what Statement No. 1 is, and to explain it. The statement is reprinted elsewhere on this page. It is inserted in the primary election law as a pledge which any candidate for nomination as a member of the legislature may make to the voters. If he makes that statement publicly, in filing his petition for nomination, they will rely on his carrying out the statement, and that without reference to the politics of the man who has received the highest number of votes or United States senator at the preceding June election. If he declines to make that statement, voters will know that he will not be bound by the proposition of a senator. If voters desire to elect the senator themselves, and not leave the business to the legislature, they can secure this result only by voting in the primaries for men, of either party, who have made this statement. Demand of every legislator candidate as a condition of your support in the primaries, that he subscribe unqualifiedly to this pledge."

RELATIVE TO A CANNERY.

Banker W. P. Elmore, of Brownsville, came down last Saturday, remaining over Sunday. While here Mr. Elmore was interviewed on the cannery proposition. The experience of the Brownsville cannery people is that a capital of at least $100,000 is necessary to get a proposition of this kind on the feet properly. Also another feature which our neighbors seem to think necessary is, we people should raise the stuff to can, and a preliminary arrangement for people to grow small fruits, cherries, peaches, etc., besides garden truck is very necessary.
Scio possesses natural facilities for the raising of small fruits and vegetables, which are lacking in many other localities. The strawberry farms of the Santiam bottom are known far and near, and for garden truck of our creek bottom cannot be surpassed.
Two or three years of preparation is probably necessary for the successful establishment of a cannery. But as we have the soil and the people are ready to undertake the enterprise, there is no reason why Scio, in a few years, should not be the home of one of the largest and best canneries in the state.

READY TO DEVELOP.

With the permanent organization of our commercial club, as we now have it, Scio is ready to take up any enterprise that will develop and push her interests to the front. We can get these enterprises only by reaching out after them. The country about Scio will justify a town four or five times the size that Scio is at the present time. We can have a cannery, a milk condenser, a furniture factory, a nursery and many other industries, if we simply go after them and keep going. Scio can and will be one of the largest lumber shipping points of any inland town in the state. We have the one thing needed, lumber in abundance, to bring this result about. Let us all be optimistic and seek development at all times. By so doing we can hasten development, without a doubt.

HAND PUNCTURED.

Scott Turner, who lives a short distance south of Scio, was handling a revolver somewhat carelessly last Monday when, by some means, the weapon was discharged. The ball passed through the fleshy part of his left hand, causing a profuse flow of blood.
Dr. Browne was called by telephone to dress the wound. Other than puncturing the hand and the loss of considerable blood, there was no damage done. It is safe to say Scott will handle revolvers a little more careful in the future, especially when loaded.

A CO-OPERATIVE COLLEGE.

M. S. C. is run on the co-operative or new American plan. A select college, high-grade and efficient work. Splendid college building. January 20, 1908 all debts were met. January 25, 1908 several fifty dollar subscriptions were subscribed to apply on a one thousand dollar fund to build an athletic hall and improve the grounds. Write for circulars.
J. K. GREGG, President.
