JUDGE WHITNEY

Will run for Congressman.

Judge J. J. Whitney of Albany, who has been prevailed upon by the Democrats of the First congressional district to become a candidate for the Democratic nomination for congress, is planning to make a short campaign in order to bring himself clearly before the voters of that district.
Judge Whitney entered the campaign only after he had been urged to do so by many friends through out the district. He is in the list not because of his desire to make the race but because he did not wish to see the nomination go by default and through it the party lose its power to take part in the primary elections of the state.
It is now planned by the Democrats of the First district to write Judge Whitney's name in on the ballot at the primaries and in this manner give him the congressional nomination. Following the primaries Judge Whitney will take off his coat and go into the battle in earnest, it now being planned to make a thorough campaign of the district in the interests of his candidacy.
It is expected that Judge Whitney will poll a large vote throughout the district as he is a man who has been prominent in the life and politics of the section for many years and is well-known and highly respected.—Portland Journal.

Our Advantages.
Scio has the best equipped livery stable; the best constructed flouring mill; the safest small banking institution; as good stores; a splendid public school building; owns her own light and water plants; is the seat of the Scio Stock and Agricultural fair, and is the healthiest of any town in the central Willamette valley. With a very large territory to draw from, with dairy interests unsurpassed, immediate rail road connection would make Scio one of the very best country towns in Oregon.
All of these advantages should appeal to emigrants hunting homes. Farm lands and city property are cheaper here than at any other point of the Willamette valley. Immediate railroad connection is promised us and when we get it, prices on all classes of property will go up with a bound. If you want to get in on the ground floor; if you want to see Scio grow and participate in her prosperity, the sooner you buy a home among us, the better.

Olla Snyder, the adopted daughter of Rev. Snyder who formerly lived near Scio, died at the family home in Albany, early last Sunday morning.

Provide Stamps.
Postmaster at Thomas, Ore., desires to call attention to the practice of some patrons of rural delivery of placing loose coins in their boxes each time they desire to dispatch letters instead of supplying them with postage in advance of their needs.
This practice imposes undue hardship on rural carriers in removing loose coins from boxes and delays them on the service of their routes.
The postmaster, therefore, urgently requests that patrons of rural delivery provide themselves and keep on hand a supply of stamps consistent with and in advance of their needs. It is also very desirable that rural patrons place in their mail boxes small detachable caps of wood or tin in which to place coins, when necessary, in purchasing supplies of stamps.

Severely Injured.
Wm. Steadoff, a Salem stock buyer, met with a severe accident at the M. C.
Gaines farm. He had purchased cattle from Mr. Gaines and was rounding them up when his horse fell with him, badly shattering one of his legs. Dr.
Prill was called and advised matters.
He then had the injured man conveyed to Albany and from there to his home in Salem. Dr. Prill says it is a very serious case.

Mr. Francis J. Henry is now due in Oregon. Mr. Fulton has placed him in such a condition before the people that he will be compelled to prove or make good his accusations against the Senator. A member of the Federal grand jury that indicted Mitchell, Hermann et al says Fulton is undoubtedly guilty of what he is charged and that he (Fulton) came very nearly being indicted with the rest of the congressional delegation.

illegal acts of legislators of the past in building the state colleges and the soldiers' home.
If the voters of Oregon are wise they will, undoubtedly, refuse to place more power in hands which have heretofore abused power. They surely will not surrender to a pack of greedy legislators, power to reach down into the pockets of the people and help themselves at will. Our present fundamental law on this subject, is entirely sufficient, if obeyed, to guard the interests of the people both in the legislature and the state treasury. The general well-fare is of vastly more importance than the selfish interests of a half dozen or more counties.

FARMERS and HORSEMEN

Will do well to call and see me before purchasing Harness or anything else pertaining to the use of the horse, elsewhere.
I have opened a first-class Harness Manufacture in Scio, and I intend to make just such work as will suit you.
I use only the best oak-tanned leather and my workmanship is subject to your inspection. My prices are as low as good material and honest workmanship will allow.
Come and see me, and I am sure that I can suit you.
