DIED.

GOODFELLOW—At the family home near Jordan, Oregon, of pleural pneumonia, on May 25 1908, Mrs. Wilda Goodfellow, wife of Fred Goodfellow; aged 47 years 4 months and two days.

Mrs. Goodfellow was ill but during the short space of six days, yet in that brief space the ravages of the fatetuj pneumonia were such that her physical system was unable to withstand the strain.

The deceased was a most admirable woman. Her disposition and noble qualities endeared her to all who knew her.

She leaves, to mourn her loss, the bereaved husband, one sister, Mrs. George M. Champlin, of Hillsdale Ore., one brother, Prince M. Cook, of King county Missouri; besides other distant relatives and a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

The interment occurred at Turner, Ore., on May 16, attended by a large number of sympathizing friends and neighbors.

After Forty-One Years.

Last week Mrs. Leroy Gossage, of West Scio, went to Portland to meet her only sister as she passed through that city to her home in Seattle, from California where she had been for her health, during the past winter. On Sunday they enjoyed a reunion with their two brothers, at the home of the elder, J. A. Peckham, of Montavilla. This is the first time that all of the four brothers and sisters have been together for 41 years. The father and mother have long since passed away, but the number of children has never yet been broken.

A very pleasant day was spent by the four in talking over the events of early childhood. Mrs. Gossage returned to her home last Monday evening.

The Democratic Candidates.

According to program the nominees of the Democratic county ticket visited Scio, last Monday evening.

At about 7:30 p. m., Central Committeeman Miller called the meeting to order. After a couple of excellent selections by the Weesly orchestra, Judge Stewart was introduced as the first speaker, and who gave a very comprehensive review of the financial management of Linn county during the past four years. He successfully contradicted the stories of extravagance by the court. He took the people into his confidence in a way that will be sure to increase his vote in this locality.

He was followed with short speeches from all of the various candidates, many of whom demonstrated to the audience that while they are all first-class men as orators they were not a howling success. As a rule though they left a good impression with the people and that they were worthy of the various positions they were standing for. The following candidates were present:

For county judge, C. H. Stewart
For county clerk, B. M. Payne.
For sheriff, D. S. Smith.
For recorder, S. H. Goin.
For assessor, L. M. Taylor.
For the legislature, J. M. Philpott, Thomas Brandon and I. A. Munkers.
For commissioners, D. D. Hackleman and Peter Bither.

Mr. Calavan's Statement.

Scio May 19, 1908

Editor of the News: Certain parties have been circulating the story, that Mr. B. M. Payne, the present candidate for county clerk, of Linn county, and some others forced me off the ticket in the primary election.

Now the facts are, that Mr. Payne and those other gentlemen were the parties who urged me to enter the race. Justice to them compels me to say that they stood by me until I was forced, by sickness, to withdraw. And when I did withdraw I did so with my own accord and without suggestion from any one.
