A Statement.

To the People of Linn County:

Having full faith in the judgement and honesty of the people, and believing that their expressed wishes should be the guide of the one chosen to represent them in the Legislature, and that the source of all political power rests with the people, I will, if elected, vote for that candidate for United States Senator who receives the highest number of the people's vote for that position in the general election in June.

If I am elected I will, during my term of office, support a business-like administration of all public affairs, just regulation of all transportation, equitable assessment and taxation of property, a liberal policy for the common schools, strict enforcement of the direct primary law, and the maintenance of the Initiative and Referendum law.

NO. 32 ON THE OFFICIAL BALLOT

F. M. Brown
REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR Representative

Statement No. 1 Candidate.

Coyotes and Cougar.

George Ray and Early Phillips, of Jordan, did quite a land office business in the destruction of "varmints" last week. Learning that one of the Lyons farmers was losing a large number of goats, the young men with their dogs were invited to go up and hunt down these lovers of goat meat.

On Thursday of last week they succeeded in capturing a litter of seven coyote puppies. On the following day they thought they would make a try for the coyote mother. They put their dogs to work on the mountain South of Lyons. In a short time after the dogs started, the game started as well and in a few minutes, being pressed closely by the dogs, took to a tree in order to get clear of them. This was an unusual proceeding for a coyote to pursue. When the hunters arrived on the scene, much to their surprise a good sized cougar and been tamed by the dogs. A well directed bullet brought the animal to the ground. The cougar was not an unusually large one though it measured about 7 feet from tip to tip. No doubt there will now be a diminution in the loss of stock in that locality.
