LOCAL BREVITIES.

Scio had a light frost Tuesday night, the first of the season.

Many of our citizens have taken in the state fair this week

John Wesely returned from a short business visit to Portland, last Friday.

Wm Ehlert and family, this week, moved over to his farm, near Lebanon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Wesely went to Portland, last Sunday, on a business trip.

Miss Agnes Wesely went down to Portland, last Sunday, for a short visit with friends.

Wm Brenner and family went down to the state fair grounds to camp during fair week.

Thomas Edison, the leading electric l inventor of the world, has been in Portland this week.

E. C. Peery went down to Yamhill county, last Sunday, called there by the illness of his father.

Wood hauling and wood sawing is the principle occupation of a number of our citizens now-a-days.

Thos. Small and family expect to move from the Parker mill, back to their farm in a week or two.

T. K. Sanderson, dentist, Scio Oregon All classes of dentistry. Office between the livery stable and harness shop.

Albany now has a free public library and reading room—something that every town, large or small, should have.

Wednesday, September 23, one day only, Dr. Lowe will be in Scio. Have him test your eyes. 19 years experience.

Bryan and Kern lithographs and Bryan buttons at the NEWS office. Any voter desiring one or both, can get them by calling.

Lieut Governor Chanler and Governor Hughes are the Democratic and Republican candidates for governor of the state of New York.

The Albany Democrat intimates that Linn County is large enough for two or three fairs. It is large enough to form at least, two counties.

We just received 3,000 rolls of Wall Paper, the finest Fall designs you ever saw. Come in and see our stock before you buy. Chas. Wesely.

Personal—Will Mr. James King, Mechanic, or his friends, please send address to the NEWS office. Something to his advantage. Important.

A number of our citizens are now assisting in the hop harvest. The families of John Sims and Ed Balschweid being among the number,

Since the close of the ball season and of the Linn County Fair, Sunday is as quiet in Scio as could be desired by the most orthodox church member.

Frank Pruitt is now building a residence on the site of that burned some weeks ago. Ed Balschweid and C. D. Compton are doing the carpentry.

Dr. Prill fitted a plaster of paris jacket on a little child of Mr. Johnson, of Detroit, on Monday. Curvature of the spine made the jacket necessary.

O. B. Cyrus went to Portland, Monday morning, for the purpose of hearing Eugene V. Debs. He will tarry a day or two at the state fair, as he returns.

FOUND—At the Fair Grounds, a lady's purse. Owner can have same by proving ownership and paying cost of advertisement. MRS. A. G. PRILL.

Eilers Piano House has been re-established in Albany. Mr. E. B. Robinson, a special agent of the house, was looking up business matters in Scio, on Monday.

Art Gaines, of St. Johns, who was superintending the building of a concrete walk along side the Gaines block, last week, returned to his home on Monday.

Mrs. Nelle Gunsaules, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bilyeu of this city, returned to her home in Portland, Thursday of this week.

Now is the time to commence preparing for next year's fair. If you wish to raise prize vegetables, manure and prepare the soil ready for spring planting this fall.

Next Wednesday, Sept. 23, Dr. Lowe the well known eye specialist, will be in Scio. Don't fail to have him test your eyes for glasses. This will be his last trip till next June.

Have Dr. Lowe relieve your head and eye ache with a pair of his superior glasses. Consult him at the hotel in Scio, Wednesday Sept. 23, wont be back till next June.

During the recent sultry weather stench from the various hog pens about town have been most offensive. Our city health committee should get after the offenders in a no-uncertain manner.

Standing room was at a premium on the Cottage Grove local Wednesday morning going North. About 50 got on at Jefferson, nearly as many at Marion and Turner each. At Turner a box car had to be switched on in order to give standing room.

Lebanon is erecting a solid concrete wall building, the only one of the kind in Linn county. It is an extension of the First National bank building and will be occupied by S. M. Garland for law offices.

Senator Bourne has returned to his Oregon home after an absence of two years. The Senator is now as enthusiastic in support of Taft as he was in his advocacy of the second elective term for Roosevelt.

If there is anything that Scio people like better than fair it is more fair. We have hardly recovered from the fatigue of our own fair, when state fair week arrives and is attended by fully one-half of our citizens.

The Portland Country Club and Live-stock show will open next Monday and continue all week. This is the first fair of the Country Club and, as there has been no lack of money in preparation, it will, no doubt be a splendid success.

Every farmer in the forks of the Santiam should raise some premium stock. It will pay to do so. Buy or breed some pure bred animals and then take care of them as it for show purposes. The increase of the value of the animal or animals will pay the additional cost.

An English walnut tree belonging to L. E. Blain, of Albany will, so the Oregonian states, yield $25 worth of Walnuts this year. The Oregonian's dispatch, also, states that about 500 acres have been planted to walnuts, the trees now being from one to five years old.

Oklahoma's blind orator, Senator Gore will deliver a political address in Portland on the evening September 25. It was while Senator Gore was speaking that the Denver convention went wild in cheering for Bryan. He is said to be one of the Nation's most gifted orators.

Last week Lee Bilyeu sold his farm, a part of his father's homestead, to his brother George M. Bilyeu; consideration $3000 or $35 per acre. Elsewhere in this issue will be found notice of a public sale of personal property by Mr. Bilyeu. He is thinking of buying a home in Lebanon.

Dr. Prill, assisted by Dr. Hill, of Albany, performed a surgical operation on the 10 year old son of Comodore Hassler last Friday. The operation was both delicate and painful. During the few days that the daily attention of the physician is necessary, the lad is domiciled at Mrs. C. A. Knauf.

Saturday evening the cement walk on the South side of the Gaines block on Mill street was completed. It appears to be a first-class job in every respect. We understand it is the purpose of Messrs Gaines to place a like walk along the entire front of their business property, next year.

A little boy was given the stunt by his father to write an essay on Editors, and here is the result: "I don't know how newspapers come to be in the world. I don't think God does for He haint got nothing to say about them and editors in the Bible. If the editor makes a mistake folks say he ought to be hung; but if a doctor makes any mistakes he buries them and people dassent say notaing because doctors can read and write Latin. When the editor makes a mistake there is law suits, and swearing and a big fuss; but if a doctor makes one there is a funeral, cut flowers and perfect silence. A doctor can use a word a yard long without him or anybody knowing what it means; but if the editor uses one he has to spell it. Any old college can make a doctor or lawyer or preacher; an editor has to be born."—Albany Democrat-Misfiit.

MILK CONDENSERY.

On Thursday evening, plans were laid for a Milk Condenser for our city. Through the efforts of C. W. Tebault of Albany, the people were gotten together and a regular booster meeting was held, which was well attended by citizens from all sections.

It was moved that the sentiment of this meeting be that we circulate a petition to build a forty thousand pound capacity condenser, which met with the unanimous approval of all present.

The meeting adjourned to meet at some future date to be announced later. There was $2500 subscribed in a few minutes and it is an assured fact now that we are to have the best paying proposition for our own town that is available.

STATE FAIR VISITORS.

Quite a number of Scioans have visited the state fair this week. As nearly as we can learn, the following is the list:

Margarett A. Gillett vs. J. W. Gillett, divorce, default and decree.

Death of Timothy Kelly.

Timothy Kelly, one of the oldest and best-known men in Linn County, died today at the home of his son, Michael Kelly, three miles East of Jefferson, at the age of 94 years. He had been ill for some time, but his condition was not dangerous until this morning, when he was seized with heart failure and died suddenly.

Mr Kelly was born in Ireland and came to America when 6 years old. He had resided in Oregon the past 35 years. He was noted as one of the strongest men in this county, and his advanced age was marked by great vigor. He cast his first vote for President Van Buren, and had voted for every Democratic candidate for President since that time. In spite of his advanced age, his interest in politics continued active, and he attended the Democratic County Convention here last Spring and was committeeman from Shelburn precinct in the last campaign.

Mr. Kelly leaves four children—Michael Kelly, and Mrs. Dan Donahue, residing near Jefferson; Mrs. William Moore of Cottage Grove, and Mrs. Hudson, of Atchison, Kan.

DIED.

OUPOR—At the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oupor, near the Richardson bridge crossing Crabtree creek, of Pott's disease of the spine, on Friday, September 11, 1908, Frank Oupor; aged 26 years, 8 months and 22 days. Frank was a most excellent young man. Kind and affectionate to his parents and brothers and sisters, he leaves a void that cannot be filled and that time only will heal.

He had been ill with, seemingly incurable disease for over three years and had submitted to three surgical operations, in his efforts to get relief. But nothing availed and he passed peacefully away on the date above given.

The funeral occured at Franklin Butte cemetery last Sunday afternoon and was largely attended. Being a member of a Bohemian secret order, his burial was in accordance with the rites of that order.

O'Brien Goong to Interior.

An Albany dispatch to the Oregonian says: J. P. O'Brien and his party of railroad men now inspecting Southern Pacific lines in Oregon are planning a trip across the Cascade Mountains on the old survey of the Corvallis & Eastern, according to advices received in this city. They will arrive here tomorrow or Wednesday and will proceed by train to Detroit, eastern terminus of the Corvallis & Eastern, where pack animals will be in waiting to convey the party over the survey.

The trip is believed to be an investigation of the feasibility of extension of the Corvallis & Eastern into Central Oregon.
