The City Election.

Scio's city election, last Monday was, probably, the most quiet one of her history. Not a contest for any of the offices and not a vote cast until the afternoon. Indeed, the election board had commence talking about offering a premium for votes, before the NEWS man opened the ball by casting the first vote somewhat after 2 p. m. When the last vote was polled it was found that not more than one-third of the voters considered the election of sufficient importance, to go and vote.

But one ticket was offered and the candidates thereon named received nearly the total vote; except in the case of W. F. Gill, who had been named for treasurer. J. F. Wesely was substituted because it was found that Gill was living just outside of the city limits.

The new board of officers elected are as follows:

Mayor, A. G. Prill, elected for the third time; recorder, P. H. MacDonald; marshal, J. E. Cyrus; treasurer, J. F. Wesely; aldermen, R. M. Cain, Chas Wesely, E. C. Peery, J. F. Leffler, J. L. Calavan, R. W. Gill and A. E. Randall.
