CHARLES J. MAHER

(Successor to Riner Bros.)
PROPRIETOR.

A full line of Guaranteed Prussian stock and poultry remedies at Wesely's Grocery.

Notice.

Those knowing themselves indebted to the undersigned will please call and settle. I need the money.

E. C. PERRY.

For Sale.

Forty head of high grade Jersey heifers, coming fresh this spring. Will give time on easy terms to the purchaser in the payments. H. Bryant, Albany, Oregon.

Our carload of buggies, bike wagons and hacks will be here from the factory about the first of April. We can give you some hot prices, this year, on vehicles. Come in and get the prices before you buy of others. Chas. Wesely.

For Sale—My entire holdings in the city of Scio. Cause: Ill health.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Early gardens are now in order.

The Smith Bros. sale occurs on April 2.

Bone, shell, granite, grit, and flax meal at Wesely's Grocery.

For Sale—Blooded R. I. red rooster, at Fred S. Bilyeu's Scio, Ore.

The funeral of Mrs. Cal. Carson was largely attended, last Monday.

Ex-President Roosevelt started on his African hunting trip, this week.

A new blacksmith shop, it is said, is to be started in a part of the old livery stable building.

The Peery-Wesely mine up near Gates is reported to have made a rich strike, lately, of turquoise.

R. M. Cain spent the most of last week in looking at Portland sights, returning last Saturday night.

Increase your vetch and clover crops, 50 to 100 per cent, by using land plaster. For sale at J. F. Wesely's grocery store.

Born—To the wife of Marion Brown, on March 20, 1909, a son. Mrs. Brown is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee George.

G. D. Trotter, the rustling Stayton merchant was over Monday and left a good sized order for job work and advertising with us.

The new gearing was installed at our electric light station, last week, and we are now in good shape, so far as lights and water are concerned.

For Sale—I have 17 head of hogs for sale. They are 9 months old and will weigh 80 to 100 pounds each. Call and see them at my residence, 5 miles East of Scio. Mike Svoboda.

The Smith Brothers have purchased a meat market at Junction and will move thereto in a short time. They advertise their farm personal property for sale elsewhere in this paper.

M. M. Peery, of Springfield, was down last week, looking after his property at the North end of Pentland Avenue. He contemplates making extensive repairs to the property.

Miss Winnie Plaster and Mr. Harry Pettit, employees of the Stayton Mail office, were Scio visitors on Thursday of last week. The NEWS acknowledges a fraternal visit while they were here.

Lee Bilyeu came over from Lebanon, Monday, to take the Franklin Butte stallions to Lebanon. This is the first time that the horses have been out of Scio since they were imported from Nebraska.

A complete line of "Lillys Best" garden seeds, alsike clover, red clover, white clover, alfalfa, red top, English rye grass, field peas, vetch, and timothy seed—prices always reasonable at Wesely's Grocery.

Scio has about as poor a railroad service as she well can have and have the name of having any railroad service at all. The Woodburn-Springfield train leaves so early and arrives so late that its passenger business is very light.

We have a full line of farm implements, Monitor drills, disc harrows, John Deere plows, buggies, wagons and all kinds of woven wire fencing. Call and get our prices before you buy elsewhere. Chas. Wesely.
