WEST SCIO ITEMS

Lincoln Logan came up from Portland, last week, and is now busy every day working in an apple orchard, near Scio.

Mrs. W. J. Burden made a business trip to Portland, last week, returning on Wednesday evening.

Material is being put on the ground for a new house on the Lawrence Compton place, which is now owned by W. J. Burden.

Mr. N. B. Moses moved into his temporary residence on his farm, lately purchased near John Shelton's.

Mrs. L. Gossage went to Portland, Sunday A. M. as a delegate to the D. A. annual conference.

A newly married couple in this neighborhood, who have recently fixed up an old house as a temporary residence, had every thing in shape to begin housekeeping, as young married people naturally will—filled with the splendid anticipations of commencing to live in their own domicile. When, lo! they found it already occupied and by an occupant that made it utterly impossible for them to remain. So they returned to father's house for the night. It was a polecat. But all is well at the present writing and Mr. Cat is barred out. They are related to Mr. Quigley. Evanda.

Obituary

Grace M. Carson was born on January 15, 1880, in Whitman county, Washington and died in Scio, Oregon on March 20, 1909. She left to mourn her loss, her husband Cal. Carson and three children; Ethel aged 10, Floyd aged 8 and Emmaline aged 6; also her mother, Mrs. G. Hull and four brothers, Will, George, Glen and Oscar, all of whom reside at Pe Ell, Washington.

Mrs. Carson was a woman of kind and affectionate disposition; and her early demise is an irreparable loss to her husband and children. The funeral was conducted from the Christain church by Rev. Carman and was largely attended. The burial occurred at Franklin Butte cemetery on Monday March 22.

Spring trimmed hats on Wesely & Cain's. I have the styles and fit can you out as neatly and cheaply as can the large millinery establishments in the city. Mrs. Emma Cyrus.

revities

M. V. and Jake Bilyeu came over from Albany, Tuesday morning on lodge business.

Mrs. E. C. Peery returned on Tuesday of last week, from Albany, where she is taking a course in osteopathy. She expects to return and resume the treatments the first of next week.

Mrs. Mary J. Peery, mother of E. C. Peery of this city, is visiting for a few weeks at the home of her son before going to Aberdeen, Wash., where she intends spending several weeks with her daughter who resides at that place.

Owing to the death of a sister of G. K. of R. and S. L. R. Stinson, of the K. of P. order, G. C. Moser and Mr. Stinson could not pay the promised fraternal visit to Leonidas lodge last Tuesday evening. They promise a visit on April 6.

Ex-Senator Fulton is having hard sledding to obtain the appointment of U. S. district judge for Oregon. It is stated that President Taft has turned the matter over to Senators Bourne and Chamberlain to settle. If so Mr. Fulton is farther away from the coveted position than ever.

Elsewhere in this issue we have stated that Lee Bilyeu was taking the Franklin Butte horses to Lebanon. The NEWS will have to acknowledge the corn. It has simply lied. Since writing the item Mr. Bilyeu has sold his interest in the horses and they are not to be taken to Lebanon at all; but will remain in Scio as for the past three years, as the posted bills will show.

Use Diamond chick feed, composed of a great variety of seeds and grains mixed in proportions of bone, grit, shell, charcoal, dried meat and blood. In all there are 20 different ingredients, giving the little chicks just what they need to keep them healthy and to grow well. Get it at Wesely's grocery.

As usual, the NEWS is receiving, daily, tariff literature based on the extreme protection idea. The NEWS does not believe in this theory. It believes that the Nation has followed that policy too long already and that it is time to change to a revenue basis. The big government deficit should cause a revenue producing tariff if there was no other reason.

I have pure bred black Minorca and Brown Leghorn eggs, (guaranteed) for sale at $1 per setting of 15. What is the use of sending away for something that you can get at home. N. J. Morris.
