Notes of the Diamond

Last Sunday afternoon quite an interesting game of ball was played on the Fair grounds diamond between Scio's second team and a bunch of huskies from Marion. The game was closely contested up to and including the sixth inning. During this inning Ed. Wesely was hit on the pitching arm with the ball, after which the Marion players had no trouble in finding him at will. But until the sixth the game was in Scio's favor.

The personnel of the teams was, Marion: T. Gentry, R. Russell, J. Hobbs, H. Russell, T. Lee, E. Davison, W. Cassidy, I. Hobbs, Chas. Russell. Scio: I. Miller, W. Stam, Babe Gooch, E. Simms, R. McDonald, Ardes Powell, E. Arnold, Ed. Wesely.

Game by innings: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Marion 2 0 0 0 0 1 4 2 0—9
Scio 2 1 1 0 1 0 0 0 0—5

Card of Thanks

Mrs. W. T. Hickman and family desires us to express to the people of Scio and vicinity, her most profound thanks for their help and sympathy in the tragical death and burial of the husband and father, and for which she will ever hold them in her grateful remembrance. The substantial help and sympathy does much to assuage the bitterness of her grief.

A Potato Pool

Our friends down at Crabtree have struck it rich by holding their spuds over, this year. They made sale of 11 car loads last week, at 90 cents per bushel net. The buyers, Woods & Hurst, of Aurora and Silvertown, furnished the sacks. Of the 11 carloads J. W. Mitchell furnished 2400 bushels, E. A. Easton 1200 bushels, Wm. Crabtree 600 bushels, Jake Bilyeu 300 bushels and Wm. Prine 300 bushels. As an average crop on the Santiam bottom is from 150 to 250 bushels per acre, it can be seen what a fine profit our friends down there have made this year.

George Washington Phillips

G. Wash. Phillips' death occurred at the family home in this city, on Sunday afternoon, April 18, 1909, his age being 68 years, 5 months and 24 days.

Mr. Phillips had been ill for several years, much of the time being confined to his room and bed. A few years ago he was one of the most prominent, energetic and well-to-do farmers of the forks of the Santiam. Quitting the farm he engaged in the flouring mill business, in which he was not successful and most of his large property holdings were swept away. To be bereft of his property in the closing years of his life, proved too great a strain upon his usually well-balanced mind and softening of the brain resulted. His faithful wife, however, tenderly cared for him at the family home to the end.

George Washington Phillips was born in Guilford county, North Carolina on October 24, 1840. Removed with his parents to Missouri two years later. Remaining in Missouri a few years later, they then removed to Texas, remaining there for three years and then returned to Missouri. In 1852 the Phillips family joined the throng of immigrants bound for the Pacific coast; they, coming to Oregon. A donation land claim was taken up within a few miles of Scio.

Mr. Phillips was married to Miss Martha Tarbley in 1861. To this union have been born seven children, two of whom died in infancy. The living are M. W. Phillips, of near Scio; Mrs. Sarah Coffey, of Washington; Mrs. Emma Davis, of Silvertown; Mrs. Lina Warwick, of Scio, and George W. Phillips, of Albany.

In 1886 Mr. Phillips was elected county commissioner of Linn county and served with credit for four years.

In 1892 he leased the Jefferson flouring mills and operated them for two years reasonably successful. In a short time thereafter, he bought a half-interest in the Scio flouring mills. Here is where he was overtaken by financial disaster and which contributed to his long illness.

Mr. Phillips was a member of the order K. O. T. M. and in which he carried an insurance policy for $3000, about half of which he has drawn during his long illness.

A Strange Case

We clip from the Albany Democrat the following dispatches, which have been given publicity in press reports at various times. The matter is peculiar and one which nobody seems to know anything about. An official investigation of a searching character, should be made. If there has been no foul play, the public should know it. The dispatches follow:

Chicago, April 19.—Mrs. Jacob Caldwell, residing at 4921 Lake avenue, after having spent hundreds of dollars in an effort to secure trace of her daughter, Mrs. Emma Yocubets, wife of Anton Yocubets, a farmer residing near Crabtree, Linn county, Or., who dropped out of sight on September 30, stated today that she had given up all hope of finding her child.

Mrs. Yocubets No. 2, was formerly a nurse in a Chicago hospital. Anton Yocubets came to Chicago for a short visit after his first wife's death. Being taken ill, he was removed to the hospital where the woman who became his second wife was employed as nurse. She cared for Yocubets during his stay at the hospital, and when he recovered they were married, going to Oregon to live on his farm.

Lebanon, Or., April 19.—In the secluded farmhouse on Anton Yocubets' farm, near Crabtree, Mrs. Yocubets No. 1 blew her brains out with a revolver in November 1906, after giving her little daughter a dose of poison that almost proved fatal. On September 30, 1908, Mrs. Yocubets No. 2 mysteriously vanished.

A week elapsed before Anton Yocubets notified any one of the occurrence. Sheriff Smith of Linn county immediately attempted an investigation, but found himself helpless because of the complete absence of any details. Neither he nor the deputy prosecuting attorney found any evidence at the Yocubets home that would point to foul play. A peculiar feature of the disappearance is that nobody saw Mrs. Yocubets take the one daily train that stops at Crabtree.
