...says that a citizen of Scio is contemplating the purchase of a automobile. Scio is bound to keep up with the swim.

The outlook for building in Scio and vicinity during the coming summer is brightening. We hear of several buildings to go up in the surrounding country.

Father Lane informs us that it is the intention to build a Catholic church in Scio this year. The building will be 30x50 with an annex of two rooms in the rear.

The Central association of the Baptist church is in session at the Baptist church in this city. Messengers are here from many churches throughout the county.

The meetings at the Baptist church will continue all of this week and over Sunday, with part of next week. They are growing in crowds and interest. Let all come.

For these weeks from April 22, I will sell one box of Steel Die linen note paper and envelopes, the regular price of which is 50 cents, for 25 cents. F. M. Arnold.

Misses Dolly Daley and Hattie Canfield came up from Portland, last Saturday evening, for a few days visit with relatives and friends, returning on Tuesday morning.

We are informed that work on the proposed steel bridge for Scio will be commenced about July 1. The county bridge gang is now engaged at building the Brownsville structure.

S. Philippi announces that he is in the market to buy wood and that he will pay the highest market price therefor. See him, call up Home telephone No. 275 or write him.

Father Robe, of Brownsville, the oldest minister of Linn County, died at his home in that city on Tuesday. Father Robe was 87 years old and was loved and respected by every one who knew him.

Scio's second ball team played a very interesting game with Lebanon, last Sunday. It required ten innings to determine which was the better team. Lebanon won out on a score of Lebanon 4 and Scio 3.

A complete line of 'Lily's Best' garden seeds, alsike clover, red clover, white clover, alfalfa, red top, English ryegrass, field peas, vetch, and timothy seed—prices always reasonable at Wesely's Grocery.

M. F. Bilyeu came over from Albany on Monday. Rumor has it that Mart is looking for an assistant to help him do the county janitor work. The object of his visit was to look after and care for his lot at the cemetery.

Decorations day at Providence church next Monday, May 31. The sermon will be preached at 11 a. m. by Rev. D. E. Baker, pastor of the Baptist church at Lebanon. Dinner will be served at 12:30. Let all interested come.

The Scio ball team will cross bats with the famous J. G. Mack & Co. ball team, of Portland, next Sunday, at Woodburn. This promises to be a fast game. Our boys will, sure, have something to do. Fare for the round trip will be $1.40.

Two things are necessary, if we have a reasonable good crop in Oregon this year. We need warmer weather and rain. We are told that the need of rain is more noticeable over in the Albany prairie than here. If so, the prospect is gloomy indeed.

Jim Bryant was carrying his eye in a sling for a couple of days, this week, caused by a sliver of steel flying into the eye from the anvil. Dr. Prill removed the difficulty and Jim is now ready to shoe a horse or talk "single tax" just as you like.

R. Shelton last week sold 100 acres of the Jack Bilyeu farm situated about one mile southeast of Scio to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ambrosch, lately from Dakota, consideration $3600. Mr. Ambrosch will erect a new residence thereon in the near future.

Chas. Thornton, instructor at the condenser, left for Washington points Tuesday noon. He thinks Milk Receiver Randall and Panman Myer are now able to stand alone, for a while at least. Mr. Thornton has been with the condenser since March 1.

Music hath charms, is the belief of Rev. Baker, who is conducting a series of meetings at the Baptist church. The Scio Concert band and the Wesley orchestra has been engaged to furnish music during a part of the services. Such an invocation would be a severe shock to the Puritanical ideas of the average churchman of 50 years ago.

Bobwhite quail introduced in this valley some years ago were getting to be quite numerous until this spring, when their scarcity is very noticeable, says the Eugene Guare. Whether they have been hunted too industriously or have voluntarily emigrated is a question for discussion.—Oregon Journal.—The continued snow and cold weather of last winter which cut off the food supply, is probably the cause.

Hickory Bark Cough Remedy, made by the Hickory Bark Remedy Co., of Salem, Ore., guaranteed to be pure; guaranteed to cure your cold or money refunded. Guaranteed to make a friend of you. For sale by F. C. Peery, Scio, Ore., and first-class dealers every where.

The Closing Exercises

The Scio public schools held their closing exercises at the auditorium of our public school building, on last Friday evening. The exercises included the graduation of three pupils from the eighth and four from the tenth grades. Owing to the backwardness of the season, there was a lack of floral decoration of the stage other than evergreens and a few of the hardier classes of flowers. One side of the stage was festooned with the colors of the eighth grade class and the other with that of the tenth, while overhead was suspended the motto of either class.

After a musical selection by the Wesley orchestra, Rev. Carman, as chaplain made a short prayer, when the following program was rendered: "To My Graduating Class" was a theme of a short recitation by Forest Woodmansee.

"Our Flag" was the central thought of a recitation by Bernice McDonald. A vocal solo was very nicely rendered by Roger Cain.

"True Victory" was the subject of a recital by Lucy Wesely.

"How I Did It" was the theme of a short oration by Ivan Miller.

The valedictory address by Birdelle Brenner, showed a care of preparation and depth of thought one could hardly expect from one so young in years.

"Ante Ver" was the title of a vocal duet by Misses Agnes Cain and Alida Powell and which was so nicely rendered that the young ladies were enthusiastically cheered.

The address to the graduates by Prof. Alderman, of Eugene, was very practical and fraught with good thought and advice to the classes which had finished the required courses. His principle thought was that men and women were not what they seemed to be, but what they actually are.

Presentation of diplomas by Principal Reed and presentation of bouquets concluded the exercises.

All Linn County Band

Everybody was pleased with the splendid music furnished by the "All Linn County" band at the Fair, last year, under the direction of Mr. D. C. Burkhardt, of Albany. We are glad to state that Mr. Burkhardt will again furnish us music by a band of selected musicians, this year, as the contract was made with him when he was here, last week.

The fact that musicians from all parts of the county are to furnish music for the Linn County Fair, is most appropriate. It gives, so to speak, a sort of proprietorship of the band to the entire county, as well as to the Fair.

Mr. Burkhardt states that the band of this year will be superior to that of last year, in that the instrumentation will be better and will be better balanced.

A 4-Legged Turkey

Two legs are supposed to be sufficient for an ordinary turkey, but they would not suffice for the specimen exhibited to the NEWS on Wednesday, by Joseph Vasek, of near this city. This particular turkey (dead) had four fully developed legs and three wings. The third wing had two points, as though nature had started in to build two wings, but became weary of the job. It is extremely unfortunate that Mr. Vasek threw this particular egg away as a bad one; for the embryo turk gave every evidence that it would have been hatched alive and with the promise of being fit, some day for the thanksgiving table. Truly, nature's ways are mysterious, sometimes.

The NEWS would like a correspondent in every neighborhood of the forks of the Santiam, who would write occasional newsy letters for publication. We would like to give the local news of each neighborhood and this is about the only way we can get it. Let some one take hold of this matter and advertise your neighborhood. We believe it will be remunerative to both you and the NEWS.

The warm rain of Wednesday morning had a tendency to shorten up the vassages of our farmer folk. One could almost see their cheeks in the act of wilting out. But come to think about it, crops never fail entirely in Oregon. The dry cold weather we have been having this spring was only calculated to check the too rapid emigration to the Willamette valley. If our seasons should always be perfect, there would not be land enough in our beautiful valley to contain the people who would want to live here.

Spring Clothing Now on Display

The garments that we are displaying are distinctive enough to be out of the rut, yet never loud enough to offend good taste.

Tailoring, which is good as head and hand can devise, good enough to hold the style permanent as long as the garment is in service.

We want to show you. We can also fit your purse. A first rate, all wool worsted for $10; some cheaper.

A winner for $15; $20 will buy one good enough for anybody; and if the best is none to good for you, then $25 is the limit.

Always the best money.
