The Scio rooters were strictly in it, at the ball game last Sunday with Jefferson. They did not have any tin horns but most of them shouted until they were hoarse.

Commissioner Butler and some cement experts were over Monday examining the gravel and sand bars with the view of securing material for the construction of the bridge piers.

Timber cruisers are in the mountains this week, cruising the Brenner-Jones-Waddell timber holdings. It is reported that a sale has been made on the basis of $1 per thousand stumpage.

Rev. Father Henry Pelletan, of the Trappist monastery, of near Jordan, passed through town on his way to Portland. Father Henry does not think the lumber outlook very encouraging.

Charlie Balschwid was too close to a bomb or large firecracker, last week, when it exploded. Result: Badly singled face, eyes, eyebrows, etc. It is thought that his eyesight is not injured.

The News is engaged, this week, in printing 15,000 circulars for the Scio Milk Condensery. The condensery people are now putting their product on the market and are meeting with good success.

Arrived at Wesely's Grocery, a plain and fancy glassware ware. Just the thing to buy for presents. Prices reasonable. Our patrons are cordially invited to see the goods before buying.

references.

E. C. Peery was doing business in Albany, Tuesday.

The lumber for our new steel bridge is now overdue. The Thomas Creek Lumber Company should get a move on.

J. J. Barnes and a cousin, lately from the east, came down from the Mehama ranch, last Saturday, remaining over until the following Monday.

By special request, Dr. Lowe, the well known refractivist and optician will be at Hotel Scio Thursday, July 1.
This in answer to letters, make a note of the date.

Miss Ethel McDonald, who has been visiting Portland friends and relatives for the past two weeks, returned Tuesday evening. Miss Opal Munkers returned with her.

The annual school directors convnion will convene in Albany June 30, the state teachers association being in session at the same time. A splendid program has been prepared and every director and others interested in school matters should be present.

Scio is the victim of the new train service as well as her neighbors. The morning train for Portland leaves just about 5 a. m. and the evening train arrives at any old time. The S. P. could only make one worse change and that is to stop the trains entirely.

The sixteenth session of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua assembly will convene at Gladstone park on July 6, lasting to July 18. A number of talented speakers from all parts of the U. S. will deliver addresses during the assembly. The News acknowledges a complimentary ticket for the entire series.

Scio and Salem will cross bats at Woodburn, next Sunday afternoon. It is understood that Salem is making up the very best team possible for the occasion and an excellent exposition of the great American game may be expected. There is some talk of chartering a car for the trip.

A little son of Mrs. Clarence Rex, while playing on the city water mains, which are attached to the bridge, fell therefrom last week and fractured his jaw. The News has been expecting to hear of an accident from this source for some time. Little boys can be seen playing on the main there almost every day and we are sure to hear of other accidents from this source if the little fellows continue the sport of running across the creek by this means.

Enos Vernon Drowned

Last Thursday, just after we had gone to press, word was brought to town of the drowning of Enos Vernon.
Our information is somewhat meager but, as reported to us, the circumstances are as follows:

Mr. Vernon was in poor health and had had several sinking or fainting spells. At the time of the accident, Mr. Vernon expressed a desire to go to the spring and because of his weakened condition, Mrs. Vernon proposed going with him. But as she had been sick also, Mr. Vernon thought her company unnecessary and would weary her, so he went to the spring alone. About one hour afterward she became uneasy and went in search of her husband.
When she reached the spring, she found her husband lying on his stomach with his face in the spring, quite dead. She lifted his face from the water and at once summoned help. Soon assistance arrived and in a few hours the county coroner and Dr. Davis of Albany, arrived upon the scene. The unfortunate man was removed to the house; but as nothing could be done and the facts seemed to be so plain that no question of the cause of the death could be raised, the coroner thought a jury unnecessary and the death was reported in accordance with the above facts.

It is supposed that Mr. Vernon had laid down to get a drink when, from his weakened condition, he was unable to keep his face out of the water. The spring was small in circumference and but eight inches deep.

Mr. Vernon leaves a wife and three small daughters. He is in debt for his home, in part, but the insurance he carries in the 2500 will pay off his indebtedness. His reputation in the community is all that any honest man could desire.

ANNUAL SCHOOL MEETING

Arrangements Perfect to Establish a County High School

Last Monday was annual school meeting day and, while the attendance was not large, one could see that there was an unusually deep interest taken in the proceedings.

The clerk's report showed the district to be in a very healthy condition and the outlook for the next school year is very bright.

R. M. Cain was re-elected director and J. F. Weasely was re-elected clerk.
Instead of the district being behind, financially, as usual, the board has about $284 with which to begin the school work of next year.

After the election was over, the directors held a meeting and elected the following teachers for the next school year:

Superintendent and principal of the High School department, Prof. A. Roy Mize, of Byron, Illinois.

Principal of the Grammar department, Asa P. Hiron, of Shelburn.

Teacher of Intermediate department, Miss Melodora Jackson, of Monmouth.

Teacher of Primary department, Miss Nora J. Sorensen, of Corvallis.

All of these teachers are strangers, except Mr. Hiron. Yet every one of them carry very flattering testimonials.
Prof. Mize has had a number of most successful years of experience and our school board feel very sure that, in employing him, they have secured a prize. He is a graduate of the State Normal of DeKalb, Illinois. Served as principal of the public school at Stillman Valley, Ill., for two years and was superintendent of the public school at Byron, Ill., for three years. Each of these schools has a 4-years High school course. Also was superintendent of the public schools of Winslow, Arizona.

This is a record which insures Prof.
Mize to be a successful high school man.

Prof. Hiron is too well known for us to attempt laudation. Suffice to say that his character as a teacher is first-class and he will add to the strength of the school.

Misses Jackson and Sorensen, are strangers to the people of Scio, but they have excellent testimonials and have had several years experience as teachers, and from the papers submitted the board feels confident that both ladies will be successful in their respective departments of the Scio schools.

With the creation of a county high school, inclusive of the twelfth grade, Scio is taking a place among the educatory towns and, with the loyal support of the people, we will build up a school which will reflect credit upon Eastern Linn County.

Jefferson Was Shut Out

The Scio ball team has, probably, never played a better game of ball than that played at Jefferson, last Sunday.
Nor has Jefferson ever played a worse one, that is to say hardly ever. What was thought would be a closely contested game, proved to be simply a slaughter.

It had been commonly reported that Jefferson had greatly strengthened her team for this particular game and as there were a number of new faces wearing the Jefferson colors, we presume that Manager Jones had endeavored to do so. Nor were the Jefferson fans lacking in enthusiasm and money to wager on the game, prior to the opening thereof. At first the Scio bettors were somewhat leary, but finally about all the Jefferson money offered, was covered.

The game was called at 3 p. m. with Umpire McDonough, of Albany as indicator man. Scio went to bat first and at once commenced to do things with Pitcher West's delivery. Before the side retired one Scio man succeeded in reaching the home plate. Jefferson, in her half was retired in short order, as but four men were permitted to face Pitcher Shermmer before the side retired.

In the second, Scio at once got busy and before the required three men were called out, five of Scio's sluggers had galloped around the diamond. Jefferson, in her turn went down in 1 2 3 order. The third, fourth and fifth innings proved runless for each team.
By this time, it had become a settled fact that the Marion county lads were at the mercy of the huskies from Linn and talk of 'shut them out' could be heard freely from among the Scio rooters.

The sixth was another Waterloo for Jefferson, for Scio duplicated the second by scoring five more runs, while poor Jeff. scored another goose egg as usual.
The seventh gave Scio two more runs and this concluded the run getting for both teams.

The leading features of the game were the sensational catch of a foul fly in the left garden by Short Stop Shorey.
He accepted a desperate chance and won. The other was the purling of Jefferson's mascot by Benchman Roger Cain. This nice little mascot became quite a Scio rooster before the game ended. It is, also, understood that there is a job-lot of highly decorated tin horns in Jefferson, which can be purchased at bargain counter prices.

Game by innings: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
