have been quarantined for several weeks were on the streets on Monday.

A complete line of all kinds of fruit jars, caps, rubbers, sealing wax, parafin and jelly glasses at Wesely's Grocery.

Soon the hum of the thresher will be heard in the land. We expect to be able to report some good yields of grain during the season.

Father Lane, of Albany, will conduct Catholic services at the Wesely-Cain hall, in this city, at 11 a. m. next Sunday. All are cordially invited.

Scio played a very close game of ball with the St. Paul ball boys at Woodburn, last Sunday, from all accounts.
The score was Scio 1, St. Paul 0.

WANTED—To buy or rent a good creek bottom farm, 40 to 160 acres, within 8 miles of Scio. Address W. C.
Kahle, Albany, Ore.

On Monday the cement machinery preparatory to filling the cement piers for the bridge, was brought to town.
The cement work will begin next Monday.

We are glad to state that Uncle Dan Donohue is much better than last week and is on the road to recovery. His trouble was not apoplexy as was stated.

D. H. Detchon, of Portland and traveling agent for the Oregonian, was doing business in this city, last Saturday. The NEWS acknowledges a fraternal call from him while here.

Dr. T. K. Sanderson, dentist, will be absent from his office in Scio, on Thursday of each week, until further notice.
Those wishing dental work will govern themselves accordingly.

Only one month until the Fair.
Farmers should be gathering their grains and grasses which they intend to place on exhibition. $50 for the best farm exhibit looks tempting.

Judge Duncan, Commissioner Butler and Cement Boss Harkness were over Monday looking after bridge matters.
Mr. Harkness stated that he would begin the cement work next Monday.

S. Philippi announces that he is in the market to buy wool and that he will pay the highest market price therefor. See him, call up Home Just arrived at Wesely's Grocery, a full line of plain and fancy glassware and chinaware. Just the thing to buy for your harvest needs. Prices reasonable, and our patrons are cordially invited to see the goods before buying elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Long, of Salem and Miss Long, of Franklin, Penn., were visiting over last Sunday at Hotel Scio.
Mrs. Long and Mrs. Carpenter are sisters and Miss Long is their niece.
She is, also, one of Pennsylvania's successful teachers.

Last Saturday, August Krieger, a Benton county farmer attempted to commit suicide by jumping from the highest point, 50 feet, of the Albany bridge. Ill health is assigned as the cause. He was rescued and is now in the hospital with prospects that he will recover.

R. M. Cain was over to Newport this week.

The State Fair offers a premium of $40 for the best milk cow, milk test.
The Linn County Fair goes $10 better, making a premium of $50 for the same test. Dairymen bring in your cows!

The roof which had sheltered the Scio wagon bridge for many years and which was reshingled two years ago, was transported to the Fair grounds and is now doing duty as a roof for sheep and hog pens.

R. Shelton, last week, sold the 85 acre farm of Nancy J. and W. A. Neal, situated five miles South of Scio, to Antona Kebza, of Aberdeen, and John Ggr. of Hoquiam, Wash.; consideration $4500. The purchasers will move there to this fall.

Mrs. R. Shelton and Miss Auda came up from Portland, last Monday. Mrs.
S. had become of the opinion that Riley was becoming a little too frisky and needed a little family training, hence the visit. They will return to Portland after a short vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. McQueen, of Jefferson, were over on Monday and concluded the transfer of their residence property in that city to R. B.
Miller, of this city. Possession is to be given on August 15, when Mr.
Miller will remove to that city.

A very interesting game of ball was played, last Sunday afternoon on the Scio diamond, between Scio's second team and an aggregation of Knox Butte players. It was seen that the Scio boys were a shade to fast for the visitors and there was no time in the game when the home team did not have the game under control. The score at the end of the ninth inning was Scio 7, Knox Butte 2. The K. B. boys are a gentlemanly set of fellows and the game was played without a jar which, no doubt, was attributable to the skillful umpiring of Fred Jones.

New arrival at J. F. Wesely's this week. It arrived on Monday shortly afternoon. Joe has not stated whether this new arrival is to be estimated by the yard, pound or all the affection he can give; but we suspect that the latter will be the standard. It is commonly understood that Mrs. Wesely will have considerable to say in regard to the management of the aforesaid new arrival for a few months, after which the little "Joe" will probably, be the master and Mr. and Mrs. Wesely will be the servants. We are glad to state that both Joe Jr. and Mrs. Wesely are getting along nicely. We hardly know what Joe Sr. will do, but he will probably go—a fishing.

Some men are born to greatness, others achieve greatness through personal endeavor and others become great by having it thrust upon them. The NEWS man pleads guilty to greatness of the last named variety. The Albany Herald of Monday dubs the Forks of the Santiam "Digger County" in a sort of facetious spirit. The people of the Forks have not, for many years, clamored to be set off into a new county; but if it will be of any great accommodation to the Herald and any respectable number of citizens of the present county seat, that divorce proceedings be commenced between the two sections of old Linn, we the people of the Forks, will not make an appearance. But neighbor, the new county will not wear the nomenclature of your selection, nevertheless you would, fecundiously, honor the NEWS editor.
Oh no, brother! The name "Santiam" attaches to this section by location and when the divorce occurs, as it will some day, "Santiam" will be written high upon her escutcheon regardless of the doubtful honor which the small modicum of gray matter in the Herald man's head has evolved.

Departed
VERNON—At the family home near Shelburn, on July 26, 1909, of paralysis, George W. Vernon; aged 70 years, 6 months and 2 days.
An obituary will be published next

Land for Sale
1 acre to 1000 acres. Price $10 up to $300. Farm of 320 acres, will accept small farm on deal. Timber lands, and good residence property in Scio.

R. SHELTON,
Scio, Oregon.

Arrived
Dr. Prill reports the following new arrivals:

WESELY—On July 26 to the wife of J. F. Wesely, a son.

OSBORN—On July 27 to the wife of L. Osborn, of Shelburn, a son.

GRIMES—On July 27 to the wife of John Grimes, of Bilyeu Fen, a daughter.

SANDERSON—On July 28, 1909, to the wife of Dr. T. K. Sanderson, a son—All of the above are doing well.

Fatally Kicked

Last Saturday James P. Crabtree and wife drove from the home farm to Crabtree station, one of the team they were driving was a young and partially broken animal. Arriving at the Turnage store, Mrs. Crabtree alighted and Mr.
Crabtree drove the team to the hitching grounds, there to unhook and tie up the team. In passing by the young horse, for some reason the animal became frightened and kicked with both feet, landing upon Mr. Crabtree's abdomen. At once it was known that the injury was serious and Mr. Crabtree was removed to his home and the family physician, Dr. Brown was telephoned for. Dr. Brown administered such medicines and applied such external remedies as he deemed proper.
On Sunday Dr. J. L. Hill, of Albany, was called in consultation, but nothing new was advised. On Sunday evening Mr. Crabtree was reported to be resting easier but this was, probably, attributable to the soothing medicine given. At 1 a. m. the end came.

James Porter Crabtree was born in Jackson county, Missouri, on November 22, 1837, making his age at his death 71 years, 8 months and 4 days. In 1845 the Crabtrees crossed the plains by ox team and spent their first winter in Yamhill county. In July 1846, they came to the forks of the Santiam.

John Packwood had taken up the claim, situated on the North side of Crabtree creek in part and had built a cabin thereon. This was the first house erected in the forks of the Santiam and among the first in Linn county, if not the first. Packwood liked another location better than that which he had taken, he proposed to the Crabtrees that if they would build him a cabin upon the claim he preferred, he would surrender the claim he then occupied and then the Crabtrees could make entry of the claim. This was done and the first house erected in this locality passed into their possession. This cabin served as a residence for many years, then did duty as a barn and was finally torn down last year.

On this donation land claim the subject of this sketch grew to young manhood. The Indian war of 1855-56 found James P. Crabtree enlisted as a soldier in company D of Col. Tom Cornelius' regiment and he participated in all the strenuous duties through which that regiment passed.

On December 24, 1865, Mr. Crabtree was united in marriage with Miss Eliza Burtenshaw, who survives him. To this union have been born five children, four girls and one boy. One of the daughters, now dead for several years, married Owen South. Two other married daughters, Mrs. David Horsburgh and Mrs. Ernest Titus live within a short distance from the Crabtree home and Miss Rose and John are still at the paternal home. Three brothers and three sisters survive the deceased.

Jobe and Isaac reside at Hathaway, Montana and Newton on the original first homestead. Of the sisters, Mrs.
Rebecca Morris resides in Albany and Mrs. Elizabeth Gaines and Mrs. Phoebe Turner in the immediate vicinity of the old home. By virtue of his Indian war service, Mr. Crabtree was a pensioner and he enjoyed himself greatly when attending a veteran reunion or in meeting with the pioneers.

Mr. Crabtree was preparing to take life easier and to this end, bought residence property in Scio a few weeks ago, intending to move thereon this fall.

Politically, Mr. Crabtree has always affiliated with the Democratic party excepting when the Populist party was working for political reform when he acted with that party. Of recent years he has again acted with the Democrats. He was a member of Banner Grange, of this city and in early life was a member of the M. E. church South.

Mr. Crabtree filled the measure of what constitutes a good citizen in every respect. Honest and upright in his dealings and associations among men, an obliging neighbor, an affectionate husband and father, he has rounded out a life which is worthy of emulation by anyone.

The burial occurred at Franklin Butte cemetery on Tuesday afternoon, attended by a large concourse of his old neighbors and friends. Geo. L. Sutherland delivered the funeral address.

Destructive Fire

Last Saturday word was phoned into town that the Henry Miller & Son sawmill, located over in the edge of Marion county was destroyed by fire, together with near 300,000 feet of lumber.

It seems that no watchman has been employed at this mill and while the hands were at dinner the fire broke out.
It is supposed that a spark from the boiler was what started the blaze.
Large piles of lumber excluded a view of the mill from the house and the fire had been in progress several minutes when discovered. When the hands returned from dinner, the whole interior of the mill was ablaze. Seeing that the mill was doomed, attention was given to saving as much lumber as possible. The fire apparatus was brought from Stayton, but too late to save anything but a part of the lumber.

The clear lumber was stacked near the mill and all went up in smoke.
Placing the lumber at a low estimate, the loss is all of $25,000. There was no insurance carried and the entire loss falls upon the Millers, who have the sympathy of all.

The body of timber at this locality was about exhausted and the mill would soon have been moved to a new location.
It is thought that the boiler and some other parts of the machinery may be used again, but will never be as valuable as before the fire.

Proposed Matinee Races

It has been suggested to hold some matinee races at the Fair ground some Saturday afternoon, and the following horses owned by the persons named have been placed in the classes.

Race No. 1.—John Lefler, Charley Wesely and F. L. Jones.

Race No. 2.—Mr. McBride and Mr.
Finch.

Race No. 3.—Wm. May and H.
Parker.

If the above persons will enter their horses in the above named classes the races will be pulled off.

An admission fee of 25 cents will be charged, and the proceeds used to paint all the buildings on the Fair grounds.

The race will be for one-half mile, and a small purse will be offered. It is also suggested that our ball teams donate a game at the same time.

Wood Wanted

The Scio Condensed Milk Company will receive bids for second growth Fir wood, four foot, delivered at their plant in Scio, in lots of 25 cords up to 500 cords. Said wood to be delivered during the months of September and October 1909.

The company reserves the right to reject any and all bids if not satisfactory. Bids will close at 6 p. m.
August 7, 1909.
