The News has arranged a clubbing rate with the Youth's Companion Publishing Co. by which the SANTIAM NEWS and the Youth's Companion can be supplied for $2.60 a year. The last named paper is the leading weekly magazine published in the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Schwartz, of Junction, arrived in this city, on Monday, for a ten-days visit with old time friends. The News man claims acquaintance with him, because of numerous hunts and fishing trips in the vicinity of Fish Lake. We always had camp meat when Al was along.

The News will be glad to supply a copy of the paper free, regularly, to any one who will supply items of new weekly from any and all of the surrounding neighborhoods. Some one in every neighborhood should be willing to take up this work for the interests of themselves and neighbors.

Scio should give Lebanon's Berry Fair a good patronage.

If you cannot say a good word of a neighbor, say nothing at all.

There were 23 births and 12 deaths in Linn county, in the month of January. Born—To the wife of Fred B. West, on Saturday, February 5, 1910, a daughter.

Dr. M. H. Ellis, of Albany, was in this city, last Saturday, in a professional capacity.

George Phillips and family, of Albany, attended Mrs. Warwick's sister's funeral, Tuesday.

Wanted—A brood mare broken to work, weighing not less than 1200. Emil Holub, Crabtree, Ore.

Rev. T. P. Haynes, of Lebanon and a pioneer minister, died at his home in that city, last Sunday evening.

It is reported that Lee Bilyeu, now of Lebanon, is seriously contemplating a removal to Scio, in the near future.

The total tax levy for Scio is 29 1/2 mills, 9 1/2 for state, county and school, 8 mills for city and 12 mills for special school.

The Oregon Agricultural college will soon inaugurate a normal school training for students who design to become teachers.

"Pony" Ray was down, Wednesday, and reports but little if any damage by the late freeze, in his neighborhood except to winter oats.

Lebanon will hold a three-days berry fair in the month of June. A Berry Fair promises to become one of Lebanon's permanent institutions.

When others abuse us it is well to consider the class of people they most admire. Such reflection oftentimes makes us bear the abuse with contented cheerfulness.

Died—In this city on Sunday night, February 6, 1910, Ida M. wife of J. S. Warwick, aged 39 years, 7 months and 13 days. The funeral and burial at Franklin Butte cemetery occurred on the following Tuesday.

Albany business men have undertaken to build an electric car line from that city to Sweet Home. The incorporators are P. A. Young, C. E. Sox and Joseph M. Hawkins. They have not decided whether they will build via Lebanon or Brownsville.

John D. Roselair, convicted of killing his wife and sentenced to be hanged today, has filed an appeal. There is small prospect that it will be granted, as the murder was most cold-blooded. Roselair lived in Washington county on a homestead, when the crime was committed.

FOR SALE—S. C. White Leghorns. We have a few nice cockerels for sale, July hatched, at $1 per bird and eggs for hatching in the season. No purer stock than the above can be found anywhere. Also full blood Poland China hogs with pedigree. Trappist Fathers, Scio, Oregon.

The scardal monger is one of the most dangerous persons, society is troubled with. They are easily detected; for you may know that if they speak harmfully of other persons to you, they will speak harmfully of you to other persons. Such people should meet with a cool reception, when they visit your home.

Look here! I can furnish you with groceries, lunch goods, post cards, stationery, and school supplies, confectionery and tobaccos. Orders taken for office supplies and rubber stamps. Agency for the American Weekly.

C. G. GOTTCH, Scio, Oregon.

Albany business men have, lately been making adjoining or nearby towns, something of the nature of fraternal visits. Harrisburg and Jefferson have, thus far, been favored. This movement is to be commended; for business men who, necessarily come in contact in a business way, should not be strangers to each other. But our Albany friends indulged in one feature which, it seems to us, is beneath the dignity of staid business men. College yells, with the recognized yell leader, may be excused when indulged in, by school boys, yet in their 'teens; but for business men to take up the practice, it seems to the News, is to lower the dignity of men who, daily, deal with the realities of life.

Will Move to Salem. It is reported on our streets that Wm May and family will move to Salem sometime next month. The News is informed that he purchased property down there, recently and that he has rented his farm adjoining this city, to Wm Hassler.

Mr. and Mrs. May are among our best citizens and we regret that they will so soon become "has-been" residents of Scio.

A Ford Garage.

W. W. Crawford returned from Portland, yesterday, with a Ford Model T demonstrator. Mr. Crawford and J. M. Rolston have associated themselves together in the sale of the Ford, and have placed an order for eight cars to be delivered the 1st of March. These cars will sell for $1050, fully equipped. Their garage will be at First and Washington streets.—Democrat.

The experiment here will be watched with great interest, not alone by Albany people, but throughout the country, and it will bring many here to see what is being done in this modern transportation method.

Securing the enterprise is a splendid thing for Albany, the proper place, as both of the young men are former Albany boys.—Democrat

Ladies Take Notice.

It's of great importance and you will appreciate the fact after you have read this piece. The Greater Chamber & McCune's store at Albany has a most wonderful offering to make before they announce their Grand Spring Showing of Stylish Ready to Wear Apparel for Ladies, Misses and Children. It's a Surprise Sale and Rummage Carnival, commencing Saturday Feb. 12th and ending Saturday Feb. 26th. The Rummage Carnival means the absolute clean up of all Suits, Coats, Skirts, Waists, Hats, Dresses, Shoes, Muslin and Knit Underwear, and fancy Dry Goods at such ridiculously low prices that it will mean a clean sweep of all that's left. The Surprise Sale is this: You all know this big store is a ready to wear store, but our New York buyer purchased 10 cases, over 50,000 yards of new Spring Calicos, Prints, Apron Gingham, Percales at prices less than wholesale cost and we are going to give our customers the benefit of this big buy and sell them every kind, color and pattern of calicos made in the United States for four and three-fourths cents a yard. Amoskeag Apron check Gingham for six and one half cents a yard and all the beautiful spring patterns of Amoskeag's Utility and A. F. C. Dress Gingham the best that's made in the world for 9c a yard, and double width Percales all colors and patterns for 8c a yard. No store can buy these goods at such prices and we hope the people of Scio will appreciate these great offerings for it is a chance you will never get again and every piece is all new 1910 spring goods. The 50,000 yards should supply the greater part of this valley so get your share.

THE GREATER CHAMBERS & McCUNE'S store, Albany, Ore.

Will Fly at Albany

John C. Burkhardt and Will Crawford yesterday afternoon completed arrangements for a field for their flying machine experiments, securing the large Goltra Park field, a fine one for the purpose. They went to Portland this morning after their machine and will be here Saturday evening on the boat with it.

The contract was let last evening for the erection of a house for it at this end of the park, and it will probably be ready by the time the flyer gets here. Then the track and the necessary experiments. The young men are both mechanical geniuses and will work to perfect the machine so it will do anything the machines of Paulhan, Wright Bros., Curtis, Hamilton, and others do. In fact they believe they have a better machine than most of them.

The experiment here will be watched with great interest, not alone by Albany people, but throughout the country, and it will bring many here to see what is being done in this modern transportation method.

Securing the enterprise is a splendid thing for Albany, the proper place, as both of the young men are former Albany boys.—Democrat
