Waterson's Estimate of Speaker Cannon
 Hon. Henry Waterson has the following to say about the curtailment of Speaker Cannon's power:
 "In the meantime, the Courier-Journal stands up on its hind-legs and says in its artless way 'Uncle Joe, you has our sympathy! They done you dirt—they sure did! Stand up, you magnificent old reprobate, whilst we salute you and, amid the cowardly clamor and the ribald jeers, we render you the homage of a life-long foe! You fit a good fight. You held out long and well. Except that you are an old man, they would not have dared—but, even at that, you made them play ball! Now they want to unload on you the sins of the Republican party; to find their expiation in your slaughter; to make that a virtue in Roosevelt and Taft which they find a crime in you; in short, to personalize their own system as Cannonism, and having cast out Cannonism, to reappear as good as new, as sinless as doves, as stainless as snowflakes, you, after your 50 years of service, to pay the forfeit, they to get the reward! Ah, Joseph! Joseph—dear old Uncle Joe!—it is true enough that parties, like republics, are ungrateful! At least you told them no lies! You stood to your guns, which, until there came a fire in the rear, were their guns! The young may die. The old must live. Your time had come, Uncle Joe. Better to go down with colors flying than peter out in a longdrawn agony of hope and fear! We rejoice that the system with which you were allied no more than the others who went before you—which was no more Cannonism than Roadism, or Crispian, or Carlisleism or Blaineism, for it was practiced and illustrated more or less by every Speaker of the House—has gone with you; for it was a bad old system, quite eliminating the spirit of representative government! The proposed change will prove good for the country and not ill for the House! It will lead to other reforms until high Parliamentary methods prevail in Congress! Meanwhile, as to you, Uncle Joe, here's 'how!' We look toward you, Joe! There shall still be cakes and ale! Join us, old enemy, join us, in singing that good old song, 'Never say die till the sea goes dry; We'll git over double trouble in the sweat by and bye!'"

You want the Normal School question separated from politics. That is what the Initiative Bill does for Monmouth. This is your opportunity to keep it always separate. The State educates her lawyers, farmers, doctors, pharmacists, etc., why not her teachers. We must have schools. The better trained the teacher, the better school and more intelligent service the child gets. Vote, Yes, for Monmouth.

A few settings of pure bred Buff Orpington eggs, at $2.00 per setting of 15. Eggs only from the selected birds are offered for sale. If you want eggs from hens that look well and lay well get a few of these and you will not regret it.
